Soviet Theater Nuclear Offensive:

The Soviet Theater Nuclear Offensive Joseph D. Douglass, United States. Office of the Director of Defense Research and Engineering, United States. Defense Nuclear Agency, United States. Department of the Air Force, 1976 World Communism at the Crossroads S.S. Rosefielde, 2013-03-09 The collection of essays presented in this volume grew out of a series of lectures given at the University of North Carolina during the academic year 1976-1977. The series was sponsored by the Soviet and East European Studies Program which I chaired at the time and the Curriculum of Peace War and Defense headed by James Leutze. In the ensuing years almost all the manuscripts have been redrafted at frequent intervals to reflect the changing state of knowledge in each respective discipline. The final version of the text that appears here is therefore the outcome of a long developmental process. It is up to date and embodies our individual views on world communism at the present juncture. Although the recent Soviet invasion of Afghanistan occurred shortly after this volume was completed that event has not impaired the book's timeliness. The findings of Rosefielde, Lee Valenta and Leutze all point toward a resurgence of Soviet expansionism and Parker explicitly predicted the Afghan invasion in the first draft of his essay June 1978 see p 32.

Myers, 2019-03-04 The survival of NATO as a viable alliance is currently challenged by a shift in the strategic balance of power as well as by global events and contingencies that extend far beyond NATO's boundaries. In the face of these challenges existing institutional mechanisms are proving inadequate to respond effectively. The distinguished contributors to this volume draw on their vast political and diplomatic experience to identify and analyze the problems confronting NATO for the remainder of the twentieth century. They make clear the need for a trans-Atlantic communication network among policymakers, scholars and others, a network that will allow an ongoing process of analysis and assessment of NATO's strategic economic and political problems along with the identification of appropriate reactions.
