Soviet Union The Muslim World:

The Soviet Union and the Muslim World Ivar Spector,1958 The Soviet Union and the Muslim World Ivar Spector,1967 Moscow and the Middle East Robert Owen Freedman,1991-01-25 Professor Freedman provides an exhaustive account of Soviet policy in the Middle East from the invasion of Afghanistan in December 1979 to withdrawal from the country ten years later The Soviet Union Paul Dibb,1988-07-28 Now updated to the Gorbachev era this book is an examination of the state of the Soviet Union today One of its main aims is to highlight the weaknesses of this faltering empire

Islamic Peoples Of The Soviet Union Shirin Akiner,2013-09-05 First published in 1987 The aim of this historical and statistical handbook is to answer three basic questions about the Islamic peoples of the USSR who they are where they are and how many of them there are It is convenient to speak of them as Soviet Muslims grouping them all together under a single collective heading but they are in fact quite disparate For this reason it was decided to treat each ethnic group individually here Soviet Union Paul Dibb,1986-06-18 Studying Islam in the Soviet Union Michael Kemper,2009 Annotation Our image of Islam in the Soviet Union has changed a lot in the last three decades During the Cold War period Western observers were mainly driven by the question whether Islam and above all the Sufi brotherhoods with their male disciples could become a political and military threat to Moscow's rule in Central Asia and the Caucasus Russian scholars by contrast regarded Sufism as a threat because the Sufi shrines attracted a mainly female audience these women would transmit the superstitions of Islam to their children and contribute to the dominance of Muslim traditionalism a kind of Soviet subculture that seemed to be resistant against atheist education As shown in the lecture Western and Soviet researchers made the same methodological mistakes and today we often repeat these mistakes when stereotyping Islamic fundamentalism This title can be previewed in Google Books <http://books.google.com/books/vid/ISBN9789056295653> The Soviet Union and Egypt, 1945-1955 Rami Ginat,2022-12-28 The Soviet Union and Egypt first published in 1993 sheds new light on Soviet policy towards the Middle East after 1945 It seeks to uncover and analyse the events leading to the eventual domination of Egypt and other Arab countries by the Soviet Union Soviet penetration into the region can only be understood by tracing the roots and motives of Soviet policy after the Second World War The strengthening of Soviet influence resulted from a process of gradual political and ideological development in Egypt Special attention is drawn to domestic and foreign developments in both countries and the book makes extensive use of recently declassified documents and primary sources

The Islamic Threat to the Soviet State (Routledge Revivals) Alexandre Bennigsen,Marie Broxup,2014-06-03 First published in 1983 this book traces the historical and cultural development of the Soviet Muslim population Going back to the Mongol Empire and the Russian conquest of Muslim lands under the Tsars it demonstrates how the present Soviet Islamic culture has emerged It also examines how Soviet Muslims interact with the Muslim world abroad and how Soviet Muftis have been used as ambassadors of the USSR in Muslim countries Radical Islam in the Former Soviet Union Galina M.

Yemelianova, 2009-12-16 This is the first comprehensive and comparative examination of Islamic radicalisation in the Muslim regions of the former Soviet Union since the end of Communism. Since the 1990s the ex-Soviet Muslim Volga, Urals, Caucasus and Central Asia have been among the most volatile and dynamic zones of Islamic radicalisation in the Islamic East. Although partially driven by a wider Islamic resurgence which began in the late 1970s in the Middle East, the book argues that radicalisation is a post-Soviet phenomenon triggered by the collapse of Communism and the break-up of the de facto unitary Soviet empire. The book considers the considerable differences in perceptions and manifestations of radical Islam in the republics as well as the level of its doctrinal and political impact. It demonstrates how the particular histories of the regions' Muslim peoples, especially the length and depth of their Islamisation, have influenced the nature and scope of their radicalisation. Other significant factors include the mobilising power of the global jihadist network and, most significantly, the level of social and economic hardship. Based on extensive empirical research including interviews with leading members of the political and religious elite, the Islamist opposition as well as ordinary Muslims, the book reveals how unofficial radical Islam has turned into a potent ideology of social mobilisation. It identifies the different dynamics at work and how these relate to each other, assesses the level of foreign involvement and evaluates the implications of the rise of Islamic radicalism for particular post-Soviet states, post-Soviet Eurasia and the wider international community.
