Soweto Blues:

Soweto Blues Gwen Ansell, 2005-09-28 Tells the remarkable story of how jazz became a key part of South Africa's struggle in the 20th century and provides a fascinating overview of the ongoing links between African and American styles of music Ansell illustrates how jazz occupies a unique place in South African music Through interviews with hundreds of musicians she pieces together a vibrant narrative history bringing to life the early politics of resistance the atmosphere of illegal performance spaces the global anti apartheid influence of Hugh Masakela and Miriam Makeba as well as the post apartheid upheavals in the national broadcasting and recording industries

Faultlines in Postcoloniality Ernest L. Veyu, 2014-10-02 Faultlines in Postcoloniality Contemporary Readings is a collection of scholarly articles addressing fundamental postcolonial and or postmodern concerns The articles are nursed from the background of social cultural political linguistic ideological and literary tensions in the fabric that holds or is supposed to hold the human race and the world together Various expressed and exemplified the articles point to a complex interplay of factors all of which result in a certain degree of social and literary fragmentation partly due to the absence of communication or the lack of the creation of communication avenues across the divide be they imaginary or real Each of the chapters in this collection bridges the gaps caused by different linguistic literary and artistic faultlines

The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape Lindsay Michie, 2021-09-20 From an array of prominent activists including Nelson Mandela and Steve Biko to renowned performers and oral poets such as Johnny Dyani and Samuel Mqhayi the Eastern Cape region plays a unique role in the history of South African protest politics and creativity The Spirit of Resistance in Music and Spoken Word of South Africa's Eastern Cape concentrates on the Eastern Cape's contribution to the larger narrative of the connection between creativity mass movements and the forging of a modern African identity and focuses largely on the amaXhosa population Lindsay Michie explores Eastern Cape performance artists activists organizations and movements that used inventive and historical means to raise awareness of their plight and brought pressure to bear on the authorities and systems that caused it all the while exhibiting the depth originality and inspiration of their culture

New Frontiers in the Study of the Global African Diaspora Rita Kiki Edozie, Glenn A. Chambers, Tama Hamilton-Wray, 2018-10-01 This anthology presents a new study of the worldwide African diaspora by bringing together diverse multidisciplinary scholarship to address the connectedness of Black subject identities experiences issues themes and topics applying them dynamically to diverse locations of the Blackworld Latin America the Caribbean Africa and the United States The book underscores three dimensions of African diaspora study First is a global approach to the African diaspora showing how globalism underscores the distinctive role that Africa plays in contributing to world history Second is the extension of African diaspora study in a geographical scope to more robust inclusions of not only the African continent but also to uncharted paths and discoveries of lesser known diaspora experiences and identities in Latin America and the Caribbean Third is the illustration of universal unwritten cultural representations of humanities in the African diasporas that show the distinctive humanities disciplinary representations of Black diaspora imaginaries and subjectivities The contributing authors inductively apply these themes to focus the reader's attention on contemporary localized issues and historical arenas of the African diaspora They engage their findings to critically analyze the broader norms and dimensions that characterize a given set of interrelated criteria that have come to establish parameters that increasingly standardize African diaspora studies

Sounds of Resistance Eunice Rojas, Lindsay W. Michie, 2013-10-08 From the gospel music of slavery in the antebellum South to anti-apartheid freedom songs in South Africa this two volume work documents how music has fueled resistance and revolutionary movements in the United States and worldwide Political resistance movements and the creation of music two seemingly unrelated phenomenon often result from the seed of powerful emotions opinions or experiences This two volume set presents essays that explore the connections between diverse musical forms and political activism across the globe revealing fascinating similarities regarding the interrelationship between music and political resistance in widely different geographic or cultural circumstances The breadth of specific examples covered in Sounds of Resistance The Role of Music in Multicultural Activism highlights strong similarities between diverse situations for example protest against the Communist government in Poland and drug discourse in hip hop music in the United States and demonstrates how music has repeatedly played a vital role in energizing or expanding various political movements By exploring activism and how music relates to specific movements through an interdisciplinary lens the authors document how music often enables powerless members of oppressed groups to communicate or voice their concerns

Legends Matthew Blackman, Nick Dall, 2023-09-29 We have a lot to be positive about in South Africa With all our problems it's easy to feel bleak But hold those thoughts because Legends might be just the tonic you need to drive off the gloom This book tells the stories of a dozen remarkable people some well known others largely forgotten who changed Mzansi for the better Most South Africans are proud of Nelson Mandela and rightly so His life was truly astounding but he's by no means the only person who should inspire us There's King Moshoeshoe whose humanity and diplomatic strategies put him head and shoulders above his contemporaries both European and African And John Fairbairn who brought non racial democracy to the Cape in 1854 Olive Schreiner was a bestselling international author who fought racism corruption and chauvinism And Gandhi spent twenty years here inventing a system of protest that would bring an Empire to its knees Legends also celebrates Eugène Marais's startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje's wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool's lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan's battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of South Africa Legends also celebrates Eugène Marais's startling contributions to literature and natural history despite a lifelong morphine addiction Sol Plaatje's wit intelligence and tenacity in the face of racial zealots Cissie Gool's lifetime fighting for justice and exposing bigots and Sailor Malan's battles against fascists in the skies of Europe and on the streets of Shireen Ally, Arianna Lissoni, 2017-06-26 The bantustans or homelands were created by South Africa's apartheid regime as ethnically defined territories for Africans. Granted self governing and independent status by Pretoria they aimed to deflect the demands for full political representation by black South Africans and were shunned by the anti apartheid movement. In 1972 Steve Biko wrote that politically the bantustans are the greatest single fraud ever invented by white politicians. With the end of apartheid and the first democratic elections of 1994 the bantustans formally ceased to exist but their legacies remain inscribed in South Africa's contemporary social cultural political and economic landscape. While the older literature on the bantustans has tended to focus on their repressive role and political illegitimacy this edited volume offers new approaches to the histories and afterlives of the former bantustans in South Africa by a new generation of scholars. This book was originally published as various special issues of the South African Historical Journal.
