Space Place And Environmental Ethics:

Space, Place, and Environmental Ethics Andrew Light,Jonathan M. Smith,1997 The inaugural collection in an exciting new exchange between philosophers and geographers this volume provides interdisciplinary approaches to the environment as space place and idea Never before have philosophers and geographers approached each other s subjects in such a strong spirit of mutual understanding The result is a concrete exploration of the human nature relationship that embraces strong normative approaches to environmental problems While grounded in philosophy and geography the essays also will interest readers in political theory environmental studies public policy and other disciplines Environment, Space, Place -

Volume 1, Issue 1 (Spring 2009) Gary Backhaus,2009-01-01 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century Gary L. Gaile,Cort J. Willmott,2005 Geography in America at the Dawn of the 21st Century surveys American geographers current research in their specialty areas and tracks trends and innovations in the many subfields of geography As such it is both a state of the discipline assessment and a topical reference It includes an introduction by the editors and 47 chapters each on a specific specialty The authors of each chapter were chosen by their specialty group of the American Association of Geographers AAG Based on a process of review and revision the chapters in this volume have become truly representative of the recent scholarship of American geographers While it focuses on work since 1990 it additionally includes related prior work and work by non American geographers The initial Geography in America was published in 1989 and has become a benchmark reference of American geographical research during the 1980s This latest volume is completely new and features a preface written by the eminent geographer Gilbert White Geography and Ethics James D. Proctor,David M. Smith,2002-09-11 This book represents a landmark exploration of the common terrain of geography and ethics Drawing together specially commissioned contributions from distinguished geographers across the UK North America and Australasia the place of geography in ethics and of ethics in geography is examined through wide ranging thematic chapters Geography and Ethics is divided into four sections for discussion and exploration of ideas Ethics and Space Ethics and Place Ethics and Nature and Ethics and knowledge all of which point to the rich interplay between geography and moral philosophy or ethics

The Intersection of Economics and Ecology Gurudas Nulkar,2024-11-25 p This book is a machine generated literature overview highlighting the importance of natural capital while studying the economics of ecology It puts together available literature on this theme exploring it through the lens of sustainable development While the main content is machine generated each chapter contains curated published content overview and an introduction by the editor highlighting important areas and literature gaps describing the connection of the topic with human economy and examples of negative externalities The topics seek out research articles that show a connection with mainstream economy or rural livelihoods The connection between natural capital and human economy is well known but many of these negative externalities are complex problems to solve While there is a growing awareness to capture the value of natural capital in economic decision making

there is no universal consensus However assessing the economic value of natural resources and ecosystem services and integrating this information into decision making processes such as cost benefit analysis corporate reporting and government policy making holds a promise of finding long term solutions to these market failures By valuing natural capital decision makers can better understand the economic benefits and costs of different activities and policies and make more informed choices that balance economic social and environmental objectives Containing important introductions by the human editor to plug gaps in literature the book is a great resource for policy makers students of economics and sustainable development non governmental organisations working in this field and corporate managers who are responsible for allotting budgets towards corporate social responsibility programs Human-Environment Relations Emily Brady, Pauline

Phemister, 2012-02-02 This fresh and innovative approach to human environmental relations will revolutionise our understanding of the boundaries between ourselves and the environment we inhabit The anthology is predicated on the notion that values shift back and forth between humans and the world around them in an ethical communicative zone called value space The contributors examine the transformative interplay between external environments and human values and identify concrete ways in which these norms residing in and derived from self and society are projected onto the environment

Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design Robert L. France, 2007-10-18 What if environmentally damaged landscapes could not only be remediated from an ecological standpoint but also designed to replenish an entire community as well as the nature surrounding it The Handbook of Regenerative Landscape Design incorporates ecology engineering sociology and design elements into a new paradigm for environmental r Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey

Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb Eco-Phenomenology Charles S. Brown, Ted Toadvine, 2012-02-01 This groundbreaking collection explores the intersection of phenomenology with environmental philosophy It examines the relevance of Husserl Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Levinas for thinking through the philosophical dilemmas raised by environmental issues and then proposes new phenomenological approaches to the natural world The contributors demonstrate phenomenology's need to engage in an ecological self evaluation and to root out anthropomorphic assumptions embedded in its own methodology Calling for a reexamination of beliefs central to the Western philosophical tradition this book shifts previously marginalized environmental concerns to the forefront and blazes a trail for a new collaboration between phenomenologists and ecologically minded theorists Environmental Policy and Landscape Architecture Joachim

Wolschke-Bulmahn, Hubertus Fischer, Sarah Ozacky-Lazar, 2014-03-21 Volume 18 in the CGL Studies series entitled Environmental Policy and Landscape Architecture is the result of an international symposium held in Jerusalem in March 2011 which was organised by the Van Leer Jerusalem Institute in collaboration with the Centre of Garden Art and Landscape Architecture The symposium focused on how the many different facets of landscape architecture could help towards solving environmental problems Sustainable Development and Landscaping Environmental Policy and the Contribution of Landscape

Architecture at a Local Level Designing Public Open Spaces and Social Sustainability Spatial Planning and Landscape Architecture in Israel Palestine and Water and Soil Crisis and Conservation are the key chapters in this volume The authors address a wide range of issues including the significance of religions in ideas about environmentalism in historical and current debates how Palestinian society can meet challenges posed by the dynamic development of urban structures through capacity building in landscape architecture and economically meaningful strategies for soil conservation in arable fields as part of agricultural sustainability in semi arid areas A key objective of the symposium was also to determine opportunities for cooperation in the field of environment and landscaping for Israelis Palestinians Muslims Jews and Christians in a region marked by huge tension and conflicts The authors are scholars of various disciplines such as landscape architecture urban planning technology assessment philosophy of science environmental communication and ecology and come from Israel Palestine USA Norway and Germany
