Space By The Tale:

Tale of Space and Time Annotated H. G. Wells, 2021-08-23 Tales of Space and Time is a fantasy and science fiction collection of three short stories and two novellas written by the English author H G Wells between 1897 and 1898 It was first published by Doubleday McClure Co in 1899 Scribes of Space Matthew Boyd Goldie, 2019-03-15 Scribes of Space posits that the conception of space the everyday physical areas we perceive and through which we move underwent critical transformations between the thirteenth and fifteenth centuries Matthew Boyd Goldie examines how natural philosophers theologians poets and other thinkers in late medieval Britain altered the ideas about geographical space they inherited from the ancient world In tracing the causes and nature of these developments and how geographical space was consequently understood Goldie focuses on the intersection of medieval science theology and literature deftly bringing a wide range of writings scientific works by Nicole Oresme Jean Buridan the Merton School of Oxford Calculators and Thomas Bradwardine spiritual poetic and travel writings by John Lydgate Robert Henryson Margery Kempe the Mandeville author and Geoffrey Chaucer into conversation This pairing of physics and literature uncovers how the understanding of spatial boundaries locality elevation motion and proximity shifted across time signaling the emergence of a new spatial imagination during this era

Medieval Spaces in Comics Elizabeth Allyn Woock, 2024-11-12 This book proposes a conceptual framework for analyzing and discussing narrative space in comics Building on Mieke Bal s phenomenological approach to cultural analysis 2002 Gaston Bachelard s Poetics of Space 1996 and Geraint D Arcy s use of the mise en scene to describe space in the comics format 2020 this book layers in a nuanced approach to the depiction of medieval environments through affect theory and poetics to interrogate the staging of ideas which are associated with the medieval period Considering the action setting and story as well as affect atmosphere and mood medieval space is contextualized as an ethically complex poetic image This book also explores the communicative possibilities of the comics format and seeks to show rather than just tell the methodologies of space in comics based research through illustrating key sections of the text Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual s self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women s movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen s activities at various sites
