Latin Elegy and the Space of Empire Sara H. Lindheim, 2021 This book explores the ways in which Latin poets of the late Republic and the Augustan Age participate in a new cultural preoccupation with the dramatically expanding geographical space of empire

Space and Society in the Greek and Roman Worlds Michael Scott, 2013 An interdisciplinary study of the dynamic relationship between space and society through case studies across the ancient Greek and Roman worlds

Space in the Roman World Richard J. A. Talbert, Kai Brodersen, 2004 How was space perceived and presented in the Roman world While it is tempting to assume that any modern historical atlas with its maps of the world as the Romans saw it gives a sufficient answer to these questions recent research has suggested that the issue is more complex than this To follow up such questions in more detail the five original contributions to this volume by leading experts from Britain Germany the United States and Switzerland discuss the tradition of scientific geography Roman itinerary literature and the Tabula

Peutingeriana Space, Time and Language in Plutarch Aristoula Georgiadou, Katerina Oikonomopoulou, 2017-10-10 Space and time have been key concepts of investigation in the humanities in recent years In the field of Classics in particular they have led to the fresh appraisal of genres such as epic historiography the novel and biography by enabling a close focus on how ancient texts invest their representations of space and time with a variety of symbolic and cultural meanings This collection of essays by a team of international scholars seeks to make a contribution to this rich interdisciplinary field by exploring how space and time are perceived linguistically codified and portrayed in the biographical and philosophical work of Plutarch of Chaeronea 1st 2nd centuries CE The volume's aim is to show how philological approaches in conjunction with socio cultural readings can shed light on Plutarch's spatial terminology and clarify his conceptions of time especially in terms of the ways in which he situates himself in his era's fascination with the past The volume's intended readership includes Classicists intellectual and cultural historians and scholars whose field of expertise embraces theoretical study of space and time along with the linguistic strategies used to portray them in literary or historical texts The Augustan Space Monica R.

Gale, Anna Chahoud, 2024-06-27 A wide ranging exploration of the construction and representation of space and monumentality in central texts of the Augustan period Roman Empire Sven Günther, 2025-05-19 The Roman Empire is the paradigmatic empire of world history Its rise stability and prosperity but also decline and fall has impressed and fascinated people around the world and throughout times The book written by eminent scholars of the field brings the features structures and powers of this empire to light and comprehensively presents the subject with a global perspective
