have stayed there almost all day in silence until night remembered what belonged to it and its shadows started to take back its own I've found it hard to walk away as starlight infused daisies and the stone itself began to feel like a star so although what I have done with my life may not be much for a while it seemed to be in line The poems of In Late Light situate objects and experiences both large and small concrete and abstract within Brian Swann's perspective of the natural world Sixty-two poems presented in four sections explore his life from early days to the present evoking friends and family on two continents His sharp bright imagery affirms the unique beauty of our world and explores its invisible mysteries Ballyhoo Hastings Hensel, 2019-04-02 A poetry collection that grapples with the tragicomic nature of language memory love work and the performative self Though at times whimsical and witty the poems in Hastings Hensel's Ballyhoo inhabit the world beyond and between the punchline In tightly controlled meditations on language's limits and its necessity as well as on the many forms that humor takes comedy laughter farce clowning parody and more Hensel navigates fine lines between joy and sadness jokes and cruelty reality and illusion and irony and sincerity Universal in scope the 47 poems in Ballyhoo are richly idiomatic and evocative They are also frequently grounded in the southern Atlantic coast with its particular ecology characters history and myth The pleasure in reading these poems comes from the original connections Hensel makes between the literary and the gritty an elegy set in a bait shop Twelfth Night's Feste delivering a monologue in a bar a villanelle about a murder on a cruise ship These intelligent insightful poems remind us of the frail but important relationships between comedy memory and identity Ballyhoo offers a sobering examination of the tragicomic nature of the world Pure Products of America, Inc. John Bricuth, 2015-11-15 The poetic life and times of Big Bubba equal parts charismatic trickster and tent revival preacher This propulsive narrative poem tells the extended story of the popular born again televangelist Ray Bob Elray better known to all his fans as Big Bubba his twin sons Nick and Jesse and his niece and adopted daughter Donna The comic tragedy of Big Bubba's family begins to unfold when he is interviewed by an old friend country radio disc jockey Charlie Printwhistle Bubba has come to Waco Texas to preach a revival but soon reveals to Charlie much about his complicated relationship with his family his ambitions for the ministry his faith healing and his most recent venture with Pure Products of America Inc which produces and endorses anything pure from Bibles to jelly preserves for a whopper of a fee of course Structured as a verse play of two acts composed of three scenes each Pure Products of America Inc follows the unwinding of Bubba's legacy as his heirs fall out and his already slippery relationship with religion is tested by genuine grief Along the way master poet John Bricuth treats readers to a sly sarcastic and sometimes deeply moving look at storytelling old time religion and the American way The Heisenberg Variations John Bricuth, 1988 Winner of the Helen C Smith Memorial Award for the Best Book in Poetry Texas Institute of Letters John Bricuth treats the world with extraordinary wit and subtle humor rare enough qualities in much twentieth century poetry Bricuth writes with gusto on a variety of subjects from the act of writing poetry to the lives of Glenn Miller and Laurel and Hardy His rare command of verse forms and wide range of tone make his work a distinctive addition to contemporary American poetry In Time and Place John Hollander, 1986-10-01 In this major new collection John Hollander displays the elegance versatility and wit that mark him as perhaps the most urbane poet in America In Time and Place features a generous offering of new verse an extended prose piece and a series of prose poems previously available only in a rare privately published edition The tightly rhymed quatrains of the new poems demonstrate once again the freedom Hollander achieves through mastery of form The consummate control with which he writes in memoriam to a lost love and a time of absence gives him opportunities to move through dimensions most poets never see His purgatorial mock journal dwelling on loss and gain on difference and effacement on places and the place of writing leads into a sequence of captivating prose poems where imagination centers on the word and language celebrates its own creation
