Spacks Street Barry Spacks, 1982 An extraordinary thoroughfare Spacks Street weaves in and out of the heart mind and irrepressible spirit of one of America's most original poets Poetry Words Brushed by Music John T. Irwin, 2004-10-06 A collection of poems by various authors originally featured in the Johns Hopkins Poetry and Fiction series over the last twenty five years The Khayyam Suite Charles Martin, 2025-03-04 A rich collection of poems inspired by the Persian lyric tradition In The Khayyam Suite acclaimed poet Charles Martin explores both the profound and the personal in verse that celebrates the spectrum of human experience At the heart of this collection is a study of the Rubaiyat the renowned poem cycle attributed to the Persian poet Omar Khayyam Martin pays homage to Khayyam's classical Persian poetic form the ghazal by infusing it with contemporary sensibilities creating a rich tapestry of contemplation and artistry By seamlessly blending Eastern and Western poetic traditions Martin offers a unique and thought provoking perspective on timeless questions that have captivated philosophers and poets throughout the ages Each long poem consists of forty quatrains mirroring those of Khayyam's Martin's verses reflect on modern existential dilemmas environmental crises and the intricacies of personal relationships From the haunting feeling of On the Coming Extinctions to the stark socioeconomic commentary in On Capital each poem invites the reader into a contemplative dialogue with the self Martin's poems are both a mirror and a window to the soul reflecting personal histories and illuminating the universal human condition This collection imbued with the lyrical charm and intellectual depth of Martin's writing is a profound commentary on love loss and the fleeting nature of life In Time and Place John Hollander, 1986-10-01 In this major new collection John Hollander displays the elegance versatility and wit that mark him as perhaps the most urbane poet in America In Time and Place features a generous offering of new verse an extended prose piece and a series of prose poems previously available only in a rare privately published edition The tightly rhymed quatrains of the new poems demonstrate once again the freedom Hollander achieves through mastery of form The consummate control with which he writes in memoriam to a lost love and a time of absence gives him opportunities to move through dimensions most poets never see His purgatorial mock journal dwelling on loss and gain on difference and effacement on places and the place of writing leads into a sequence of captivating prose poems where imagination centers on the word and language celebrates its own creation In a Prominent Bar in Secaucus X. J. Kennedy, 2007-09 Kennedy has long occupied a unique place in American poetry In a Prominent Bar in Secaucus now offers the first comprehensive collection to span his entire career In Late Light Brian Swann, 2013-05-15 From a stone to fireflies from childhood to growing old Brian Swann's poems contemplate the moments and individual objects that create a whole life and our relationship to them There is a clearing by a certain stone where images flow and are worth stopping for I have stayed there almost all day in silence until night remembered what belonged to it and its shadows started to take back its own I've found it hard to walk away as starlight infused daisies and the stone itself began to feel like a star so although what I have done with my life may not be much for a while it seemed to be in line The poems of In Late Light situate objects and experiences both large and small concrete and abstract within Brian Swann's perspective of the natural world Sixty two poems presented in four sections explore his life from early days to the present evoking friends and family on two continents His sharp bright imagery affirms the unique beauty of our world and explores its invisible mysteries
