An Object of Seduction Xiaolin Duan, 2022-02-07 The first book length English language study focusing on the early modern export of Chinese silk to New Spain from the sixteenth to the seventeenth century An Object of Seduction compares and contrasts the two regions from perspectives of the sericulture development the widespread circulation of silk fashion and the government attempts at regulating the use of silk Xiaolin Duan argues that the increasing demand for silk on the worldwide market on the one hand contributed to the parallel development of silk fashion and sericulture in China and New Spain and on the other hand created conflicts on imperial regulations about foreign trade and hierarchical systems Incorporating evidence from local gazetteers correspondence manual books illustrated treatises and miscellanies this book explores how the growing desire for and production of raw silk and silk textiles empowered individuals and societies to claim and redefine their positions in changing time and space thus breaking away from the traditional state control

Enjoying the Song of Phrase: An Mental Symphony within Spaniards Seduction

In some sort of taken by screens and the ceaseless chatter of fast connection, the melodic splendor and psychological symphony produced by the prepared word frequently diminish in to the background, eclipsed by the constant noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. However, located within the pages of Spaniards Seduction a marvelous fictional value overflowing with organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Crafted by an outstanding composer of language, that interesting masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental journey, well unraveling the hidden tunes and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths of this touching review, we shall examine the book is main harmonies, analyze its enthralling publishing fashion, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
