Spanish Catalan And Galician Literary Authors Of The Eighteenth And Nineteenth Centuries:

Spanish, Catalan, and Galician Literary Authors of the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Centuries David S. Zubatsky, 1995

Spanish, Catalan, and Galician Literary Authors of the Twentieth Century David S. Zubatsky, 1992 Provides a comprehensive index to published bibliographies that list a literary author's works and/or critical studies about the works. In addition to novelists, playwrights, poets, and short story writers, the guide also covers bibliographies for linguists, literary critics, and historians.

A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent, 2008 The Spanish novel in a turbulent century. This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political, cultural, and ideological history. It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant Garde to the Postmodern age. While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers, others are of a broader nature, grouping lesser-known writers under certain literary tendencies: the metaphysical novel, the urban novel, recuperative accounts of the Civil War, feminine first-person narrations, and the rise of the popular detective, historical, and erotic novels. Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan, Basque, and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns. Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction; are not forgotten. The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology, while all titles and quotations are translated into English. Contributors: Marta E. Altisent, Katarzyna Olga Beilin, Ramon Buckley, Jos F. Colmeiro, Stacey Dolgin, Casado Sebastiaan, Faber David, K. Herzberger, Carlos Alex Longhurst, Kathleen N. March, Cristina Martinez Carazo, Alfredo Martinez Expósito, Nina L. Molinaro, Gonzalo Navajas, Mari Jose Olaziregi, Janet D. Perez, Randolph D. Pope, Josep Miquel Sobrer, H. Rosi Song.

The Literature of Spain and Latin America Britannica Educational Publishing, 2010-04-01 From the whimsical idealism of Miguel de Cervantes' Don Quixote to the magical realism of Gabriel García Márquez's 100 Years of Solitude, Spanish language literature has substantially enriched the global literary canon. This volume examines the vibrant prose and dynamic range of both Spanish and Latin American authors whose narratives are informed as much by their imaginations as the turbulent histories of these native lands. Influenced by a plethora of diverse cultures, these tales truly tell a global story.

Walford's Guide to Reference Material: Generalia, language and literature, the arts Albert John Walford, Marilyn Mullan, Priscilla Schlicke, Library Association, 1996 From its first edition, the purpose of Walford has been to identify and evaluate the widest possible range of reference materials. No rigid definition of reference is applied. In addition to the expected bibliographies, indexes, dictionaries, encyclopaedias, and directories, a number of important textbooks and manuals of general practice are included. While the majority of the items are books, Walford is a guide to reference material.

Thus periodical articles microforms online and CD ROM sources are all represented In this volume a particular effort has been made to improve coverage of the latter two categories

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza,Anxo Abuín Gonzalez,César Domínguez,2010-05-26 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained
