Spanish Eyes:

The Dutch Revolt Through Spanish Eyes Yolanda Rodríguez Pérez, 2008 Historical and literary works from the Spanish Golden Age offer a wealth of information about the Spanish view of the conflict in the Netherlands during the Dutch Revolt and the ensuing Eighty Years War 1568-1648. The war in the cold north was to become a fixed component in the lives of the Spaniards of the Golden Age for many years. This book reconstructs the images that the Spanish had of the Netherlands and its inhabitants. These images are inextricably intertwined with the picture that the Spanish constructed of themselves as participants in the conflict. This book follows the developments of these images from the construction of an image of the enemy that reached a climax between 1621 and 1648 and then gradually faded away. Which images and representations circulated the most and where did they come from? Which rhetoric was used to present them to the public and in which genres and contexts were they disseminated and preserved? On the basis of a varied collection of sources: war chronicles and plays as well as pamphlets, poems, historical works and prose writings, the author illustrates the appearance of the Netherlands through Spanish eyes during the course of the Eighty Years War.

The Spanish Eye Robert Havard, 2007 The guiding principle of this title is that the sister arts of painting and poetry are mutually illuminating: their common currency being the visual image. Five masters: El Greco, Velázquez, Goya, Picasso and Dalí are discussed with a view to distinguishing what is peculiarly Spanish in their way of looking at reality.

Mind's Eye Gerardo Marciano, 2011-10-21 Gerardo Marciano is a young writer from New York who draws inspiration from his life to bring you this vulnerable bilingual collection: a journey of self-discovery through assertion, self-identity, love and spirituality. He captures a modern mix of tender romantic poetry with the grit of urban rhymes to invite the reader to see what lies within his mind's eye.

Celia Sánchez Richard Haney, 2005 Fearless and brilliant Celia Sánchez was the dynamo whose Revolution took off while Castro was sweating in prison. Her friends share memories and her own letters to describe her strategies, her relationship with Fidel Castro and her communications with Washington and Moscow.

The Spanish Gypsy George Eliot, 1868 The Spanish Gypsy is a narrative poem set in fifteenth-century Spain and tells the story of a young woman, Fedalma. She was born a gypsy but was taken from her parents by the Spaniards during a raid against the Moors. She was raised in luxury and as a Catholic by her fiancé, Don Silva's family. Her father, a leader of the gypsies, later appears and she must choose between her fiancé and her people.
