Spanish Church And The Papacy In The Thirteenth Century:

The Spanish Church and the Papacy in the Thirteenth Century Peter Linehan, 2005-11-24 Against the background of the struggle between Christianity and Islam for the control of the Spanish Peninsula this book examines the internal condition of the Spanish Church in the thirteenth century its relations with the Christian kings and with a succession of great popes Concentrating upon Aragon and Castile the author examines the reaction and resistance of the Church to the reforming decrees of the 1215 Fourth Lateran Council and illustrates the attempts made by the papacy to wrest control of the Church from the crown By using hitherto untouched Spanish sources as well as material from the Vatican Dr Linehan is able to throw new light on economic and social problems and to challenge effectively the conception that the Spanish Church was wealthy and influential As well as being important for scholars of medieval Spain this book provides essential comparative material for all historians of the medieval Church

Robert Grosseteste and the 13th-Century Diocese of Lincoln Philippa Hoskin, 2019-01-07 In this book Philippa Hoskin offers an account of the pastoral theory and practice of Robert Grosseteste bishop of Lincoln 1235-1253 within his diocese Grosseteste has been considered as an eminent medieval philosopher and theologian and as a bishop focused on pastoral care but there has been no attempt to consider how his scholarship influenced his pastoral practice Making use of Grosseteste's own writings philosophical and theological as well as pastoral and administrative Hoskin demonstrates how Grosseteste's famous interventions in his diocese grew from his own theory of personal obligation in pastoral care as well as how his personal involvement in his diocese could threaten well developed clerical and lay networks

On the Social Origins of Medieval Institutions, 2021-09-20 A collection of essays celebrating the career of Joseph F O Callaghan a noted historian of Spanish history Written by his students and colleagues they explore the relationship between human society and the institutions it produces The first part of the book The Influence of Law on Society contains essays exploring the laws and customs regarding such social institutions as marriage the care of the sick and Jews The second part The Relationship between Government and War focuses on the institutional and technological innovations that the crown and parliament in Spain and England developed to wage war

Bishops in the Political Community of England, 1213-1272 S. T. Ambler, 2017 This volume explores the role of bishops at the heart of thirteenth century English politics examining their culture and political theology Under King John and Henry III the bishops acted as peacemakers supporting royal power when it was threatened but between 1258 and 1265 led by Simon de Montfort they became partisans helping to overturn royal power

Past and Present in Medieval Spain Peter Linehan, 2024-10-28 The studies included in this selection the opening two being published for the first time are concerned with various aspects of the history of Christian Spain between the 6th century and the 14th A recurrent theme is that of the invention of the past of the manner in which for reasons which have seemed good to them at different times and places from Toledo in the 1240s to Cambridge in the 1920s men have sought to appropriate and recolonise that past Three more technical articles on the subject of 13th century papal diplomatic in a Spanish setting illustrate the related activity of the invention of the future as reflected in the activity of the agents or proctors and others whose services were retained in order to ensure that it was their employer's particular view of the present that prevailed. Les tudes comprises dans cette s lection dont deux paraissent ici pour la premi re fois traitent des diff rents aspects de l histoire de l Espagne chr tienne entre le 6e et le 14e si cle. Un th me fr quent est celui de l invention du pass la fa on dont diff rentes poques et diff rents endroits de Tol de en 1240. Cambridge en 1920 et pour des raisons qui lui semblent tre les bonnes l tre humain s est efforc de s approprier et de reconqu rir le pass. Trois articles d ordre plus techniques sur la diplomatie papale au 13e si cle dans un cadre espagnol illustrent l activit attenante qu tait l invention de l avenir telle qu elle se traduisait au travers de l action d agents de fond s de pouvoir et autres dont les services taient requis afin que la vision du pr sent de leurs employeurs pr vale.

The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity John Arnold, 2014. The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Christianity takes as its subject the beliefs, practices and institutions of the Christian Church between 400 and 1500AD. It addresses topics ranging from early medieval monasticism to late medieval mysticism, from the material wealth of the Church to the spiritual exercises through which certain believers might attempt to improve their souls. Each chapter tells a story but seeks also to ask how and why Christianity took particular forms at particular moments in history, paying attention to both the spiritual and otherworldly aspects of religion and the material and political contexts in which they were often embedded. This Handbook is a landmark academic collection that presents cutting edge interpretive perspectives on medieval religion for a wide academic audience, drawing together thirty key scholars in the field from the United States, the UK and Europe. Notably, the Handbook is arranged thematically and focusses on an analytical rather than narrative approach, seeking to demonstrate the variety, change and complexity of religion throughout this long period and the numerous different ways in which modern scholarship can approach it. While providing a very wide ranging view of the subject, it also offers an important agenda for further study in the field.

Possessing the Land Stalls, 2022-02-22. Possessing the Land is the first comprehensive treatment of Christian Aragon's expansion under Alfonso I 1104-1134 into a major arena of medieval Christian-Islamic contact: the Islamic Ebro River march of Aragon. Based on an extensive examination of primary and secondary sources, the book's insights into the social and political processes of Christian settlement and the fate of post-conquest Islam are of particular importance. Its conclusions that the freeholding of land characterized the Ebro's Christian settlement and not heavy seignorialization and that Christian settlement relied on the Muslim infrastructure challenge significantly the neo-Marxist thesis of the feudalization of twelfth-century Christian Iberian society and the corresponding Christian break with Iberia's Islamic Past. This book constitutes a fundamental work in Iberian frontier studies.

Pope Innocent III and his World John Moore, 2016-12-05. The year 1998 was the 800th anniversary of the election of Lotario dei Conti di Segni as Pope. At 37 he was one of the youngest men ever to hold that office and he was to become one of the most important popes in the entire history of Christianity Together with Gregory VII he was one of the two most important popes of the Middle Ages In his efforts to promote Christianity and defend it from its enemies Innocent played a role in the history of almost every part of Europe and its environs He initiated both the ill fated Fourth Crusade that ended up sacking the Greek Christian city of Constantinople and the Albigensian Crusade that devastated major parts of Southern France and led to its submission to the French crown He promoted the crusades that accomplished the conquest and conversion of the pagans of the south Baltic coast These papers are taken from the interdisciplinary conference Pope Innocent III and his World held in May 1997 at the Hofstra University Cultural Center New York The Processes of Politics and the Rule of Law Peter

Linehan,2024-10-28 This third volume of essays by Peter Linehan deals with matters of perennial interest to all historians of medieval Church and State and in particular to students of the history of medieval Spain and Portugal and of the papacy in the 12th and 13th centuries Amongst those discussed and explored are the question of feudalism in the 11th and 12th century the rise and fall of a royal capital the city of Le n the ritual of king making focusing on Castile and Portugal the interplay of royal influence and papal authority and the impact of the mendicant orders A previously unpublished study provides a cautionary tale of a particular bishop in politics Four essays are devoted to the investigation of individuals and issues central to the history of late 13th century papal Rome while two look at medieval and modern historiography

Historical Memory and Clerical Activity in Medieval Spain and Portugal Peter Linehan,2018-02-06 This fourth Variorum collection of articles by Peter Linehan comprises items largely from the past decade The studies represent further investigation of themes broached in earlier works in particular the latest report on the movements of Cardinal John of Abbeville and the related subjects of historiography and historians the interplay of history and government and aspects of sacral monarchy Articles on Zamora s frustrated legal history and Zamora s cardinal extend the Castilian theme across the territorial frontier into the kingdom of Portugal and two other items explore English ramifications and developments in papal procedures
