Spatial Relations Poems:

Spatial Relations Leonora Smith, 2001 Readable and inviting Spatial Relations reminds us of the power in everyday places and objects and the mysterious space between them Like the fold up shapes in old junior high school aptitude tests they are both concrete and bewildering The characters and personae in these poems including mythologized versions of Smith's parents yearn for big emotions for high living for what they have tasted and touched loved and lost This is a book that will invite you to remember imagine and laugh more often than you might expect The poems in this collection have a rueful lively sense of humor an underlying impatience with social inequity and a willingness to imagine that things might be playing themselves out differently in some parallel universe Like anyone who has narrowly escaped a life of domestic confinement these poems have a wild streak

Yeung, 2015-03-05 Drawing from a broad range of contemporary British poets including Thomas Kinsella Kathleen Jamie and Alice Oswald this study examines the inherently spatial and affective nature of our engagement with poetry Adding to the expanding field of geocritical studies Yeung specifically discusses ideas of space and constructions of voice in poetry

Published Poems Herman Melville, Robert Charles Ryan, Hershel Parker, 2009-07-02 Although he surprised the world in 1866 with his first published book of poetry Battle Pieces and Aspects of the War Herman Melville had long been steeped in poetry This new offering in the authoritative Northwestern Newberry series The Writings of Herman Melville with a historical note by Hershel Parker is testament to Melville the poet Penultimate in the publication of the series Published Poems follows the release of Melville s verse epic Clarel 1876 and with it contains the entirety of the poems published during Melville s lifetime Battle Pieces as well as John Marr and Other Sailors with Some Sea Pieces 1888 and Timoleon Etc 1891 Battle Pieces and Aspects of the War has long been recognized as a great contribution to the poetry of the Civil War comparable only to Whitman s Drum Taps Its idiosyncrasies many of them grounded in British poetry kept it from immediate popularity but it was not the production of a novice Melville had made himself over into a poet in the late 1850s and had tried to publish a previous collection of poetry now lost in 1860 John Marr and Other Sailors is a retrospective nautical book Its portraits of sailors were influenced by Melville s own experience of aging as well as by his long acquaintance with wasted mariners at the Sailors Snug Harbor on Staten Island where his brother was governor The book modulates into Sea Pieces including the grisly Maldivian Shark and To Ned a powerful reflection on how Melville s personal adventures with the Typee islanders in 1842 had accrued rich historical significance over the decades Thematically less unified Timoleon Etc contains poems with many European and exotic settings from ancient to modern times The most famous are After the Pleasure Party and The Age of the Antonines Published in the last year of Melville s life some of the poems were first written many years earlier for example Melville copied The Age of the Antonines out for his brother in law in 1877 describing it as something found in a bundle of old papers One whole section seems to have been almost entirely salvaged from the unpublished 1860 volume of poetry As with the other volumes in the Northwestern Newberry series the aim of this edition of Published Poems is to present a text as close to the author s intention as surviving evidence permits To that end the editorial appendix includes a historical note by Hershel Parker the dean of Melville scholars which gives a compelling in depth account of how one of America s greatest writers grew into the vocation of a poet an essay by G Thomas Tanselle on the printing and publishing history of the works in Published Poems a textual record that identifies the copy texts for the present edition and explains the editorial policy and substantial scholarly notes on individual poems

Iconic Investigations Lars Elleström, Olga Fischer, Christina Ljungberg, 2013-03-28 The contributions to Iconic Investigations deal with linguistic or literary aspects of language While some studies analyze the cognitive structures of language others pay close attention to the sounds of spoken language and the visual characteristics of written language In addition this volume also contains studies of media types such as music and visual images that are integrated into the overall project to deepen the understanding of iconicity the creation of meaning by way of similarity relations Iconicity is a fundamental but relatively unexplored part of signification in language and other media types During the last decades the study of iconicity has emerged as a vital research area with far reaching interdisciplinary scope and the volume should be of interest for students and researchers interested in scholarly fields such as semiotics cognitive linguistics conceptual metaphor studies poetry intermediality and multimodality

The Exercise of the Spatial Imagination in Pre-Modern China Garret Pagenstecher Olberding, 2022-02-07 This volume is distinctive for its extraordinarily interdisciplinary investigations into a little discussed topic the spatial imagination It probes the exercise of the spatial imagination in pre modern China across five general areas pictorial representation literary description cartographic mappings and the intertwining of heavenly and earthly space It recommends that the spatial imagination in the pre modern world cannot adequately be captured using a linear militarily framed conceptualization The scope and varying perspectives on the spatial imagination analyzed in the volume s essays reveal a complex range of aspects that informs how space was designed and utilized Due to the complexity and advanced scholarly level of the papers the primary readership will be other scholars and advanced graduate students in history history of science geography art history religious studies literature and broadly sinology Style in the Renaissance Patricia Canning, 2012-05-24 In a book which brings together language text and context Patricia Canning synthesizes models of contemporary stylistics with both critical and literary historical theory In doing so the author maintains a specific and sustained stylistic focus on the religious political and ideological issues that animated and defined Reformation England Each chapter interrogates the dichotomous concept of word and image by considering the ways in which writers of this period deal with these contentious subjects in their dramatic and poetic works Representation Canning argues is not just as a matter of semiotics but of ideology Whereas stylistics enjoys extensive application in the analysis of contemporary texts it has until now been markedly under used in the exploration of the historical literary genre Addressing this shortcoming squarely and robustly Canning's book is a showcase for the stylistic method Among its many insights this book shows how stylistics can enrich our understanding and critical interpretation of a particular literary genre in its ideological and historical context Literature and Geography Emmanuelle Peraldo, 2016-01-14 In a period marked by the Spatial Turn time is not the main category of analysis any longer Space is It is now considered as a central metaphor and topos in literature and literary criticism has seized space as a new tool Similarly literature turns out to be an ideal field for geography This book examines the cross fertilization of geography and literature as disciplines languages and methodologies In the past two decades several methods of analysis focusing on the relationship and interconnectedness between literature and geography have flourished Literary cartography literary geography and geocriticism Westphal 2007 and Tally 2011 have their specificities but they all agree upon the omnipresence of space place and mapping at the core of analysis Other approaches like ecocriticism Buell 2001 and Garrard 2004 geopoetics White 1994 geography of literature Moretti 2000 studies of the inserted map Ljunberg 2012 and Pristnall and Cooper 2011 and narrative cartography have likewise drawn attention to space Literature and Geography The Writing of Space Throughout History following an international conference in Lyon bringing together literary academics geographers cartographers and architects in order to discuss literature and geography as two practices of space shows that literature along with geography is perfectly valid to account for space Suggestions are offered here from all disciplines on how to take into account representations and discourses since texts including literary ones have become increasingly present in the analysis of geographers The Notion of Turning in Metaphysical Poetry Carmen Dörge, 2018 In Metaphysical Poetry there is an emphasis on religious experience which often touches on diverse kinds of turning Among them are religious conversion a turn to God spatial movement turning in space divine transformation turning from one kind into another musical tuning turning as a requisite for harmony and circular turning Moreover there is a strong link between turning and its realisation through the language of the poems Focusing on John Donne and George Herbert this study explores various aspects of turning as well as their interrelation Dissertation Series Religion and Literature Religion und Literatur Vol 7 Subject Poetry
