Peterson,1999 The explosive development of interactive multimedia products on CD ROM and the Internet via the WWW has generated immense interest in this field The approach to producing interactive multimedia mapping products is quite unique and there has been an upsurge of interest in developing methodologies that best exploit both the technology and communication effectiveness of multimedia mapping This book is addressed to professional cartographers interested in moving into multimedia mapping for cartographers already involved in this field who wish to discover the approaches that other practitioners in multimedia cartography have already taken and for students and academics in the mapping sciences and related geographic fields wishing to update their knowledge of cartographic design and production Living with Nature Frank Fischer, Maarten A. Hajer, 1999 This text aims to place the question of the dynamics of environmental crisis in a socio cultural dimension of the existing economic and political institutions It argues for a need to find a balance between theoretical analysis of the debate and an appreciation of local circumstances and knowledge The Statecraft of Consensus Democracies in a Turbulent World José Magone, 2016-12-19 Drawing on the work of Arend Lijphart this book focuses on consensus democracies These democracies entail a complex set of democratic institutional and conventional arrangements and can be regarded as a product of path dependent development towards a national culture of compromise and bargaining Taking a multi dimensional and multi spatial approach this book examines the West central European consensus democracies of Austria Belgium Luxembourg Netherlands and Switzerland over the past 40 years Magone examines how these democracies have been transformed by Europeanization thrusts and global turbulence yet are able to maintain political stability It provides historical context including the different phases of transformation the golden period 1945 1979 disorganised capitalism 1979 1993 and re equilibration 1993 It includes chapters on political culture government parliament the rise of populism and political parties subnational government and the political economy and concludes deliberating on the relevance of consensus democracies experiences for the future of European and global governance Based on original research this book will be of strong interest to students and scholars of comparative politics European government West European politics the politics of small states in Europe and those with a particular interest in the politics of Austria Belgium the Netherlands Luxembourg and Switzerland Encyclopedia of Nanoscience and Society David H. Guston, 2010-07-14 Labeled either as the next industrial revolution or as just hype nanoscience and nanotechnologies are controversial touted by some as the likely engines of spectacular transformation of human societies and even human bodies and by others as conceptually flawed These challenges make an encyclopedia of nanoscience and society an absolute necessity Providing a guide to what these understandings and challenges are about the Encyclopedia of Nanoscience and Society offers accessible descriptions of some of the key technical achievements of nanoscience along with its history and prospects Rather than a technical primer this encyclopedia instead focuses on the efforts of governments around the world to fund nanoscience research and to tap its potential for economic development as well as to assess how best to regulate a new technology for the environmental occupational and consumer health and safety issues related to the field Contributions examine and analyze the cultural significance of nanoscience and nanotechnologies and describe some of the organizations and their products that promise to make nanotechnologies a critical part of the global economy Written by noted scholars and practitioners from around the globe these two volumes offer nearly 500 entries describing the societal aspects of nanoscience and nanotechnology Key Themes Art Design and Materials Bionanotechnology Centers Context Economics and Business Engagement and the Public Environment and Risk Ethics and Values Geographies and Distribution History and Philosophy Integration and Interdisciplinarity Nanotechnology Companies Nanotechnology Organizations Informing and Civilization Prof. Dr. Andrew Targowski, 2016 The aim of this book is to synthesize the role of information throughout the history of civilization's development This will be defined through the convergence of a the cumulative evolution and revolution of the intellect cognition as data information concepts knowledge and wisdom b labor and c politics which seek to control the environment society and the world applying culture and infrastructure as tools Whereas researchers reveal the myriad of dimensions of the social order and its historiography this book provides a synthesis of the relations which is limited to information and its informing systems and civilization within the context of historiosophie history with judgment The method presented in this book the architectural approach to the dynamics of civilizational development is a new layer over the quantitative history based on statistical data In an architectural synthesis of civilization we seek a big picture of civilization waves in order to develop some criteria oriented views of the world and its future predictability To understand the crises and conflicts of civilization which are driven by technology in recent centuries such a synthesis as well as optimism for human proactive adaptation survival and development must be undertaken This approach to civilizational development should allow humans to eventually reinvent the future in a continuous manner We in due course should be able to predict the rate of change and provide civilization bridging solutions based on original thinking It is important to remind ourselves that information is as old as our world about 15 billion years because plants and trees and in general non human nature produces all sorts of information for example the changing colors of plants and trees which is associated with the different seasons When the first living organisms appeared on our planet they had ability to inform as well by changing forms colors signals and so on The first signs of life on our planet came into being about 3.85 billion years ago Therefore organism based life on the Earth actually came to be over a period of just 130 million years Hominids diverged from apes some 10.6 million years ago instinct driven info communication i.e. behavior less controlled by cognition and the first humans bipeds with large brains who could use tools and sound driven info communication took form around 6.25 million years ago in Southeast Africa Homo symbolicus who could skillfully use language appeared about 60,000 years ago The origin of civilization some 6,000 years ago marks the beginning of the first advanced info communication systems applied by humans who could even record information

Under Surveillance Randolph Lewis, 2017-11-01 An engaging alarming and enlightening book one that is certain to be among the most important books on surveillance in the twenty first century Siva Vaidhyanathan author of Antisocial Media Never before has so much been known about so many CCTV cameras TSA scanners NSA databases big data marketers predator drones stop and frisk tactics Facebook algorithms hidden spyware and even old fashioned nosy neighbors surveillance has become so ubiquitous that we take its presence for granted While many types of surveillance are pitched as ways to make us safer almost no one has examined the unintended consequences of living under constant scrutiny and how it changes the way we think and feel about the world In Under Surveillance Randolph Lewis offers a highly original look at the emotional ethical and aesthetic challenges of living with surveillance in America since 9 11 Taking a broad and humanistic approach Lewis explores the growth of surveillance in surprising places such as childhood and nature He traces the rise of businesses designed to provide surveillance and security including those that cater to the Bible Belt's houses of worship And he peers into the dark side of playful surveillance such as eBay's online guide to Fun with Surveillance Gadgets A worried but ultimately genial guide to this landscape Lewis helps us see the hidden costs of living in a control society in which surveillance is deemed essential to governance and business alike Written accessibly for a general audience Under Surveillance prompts us to think deeply about what Lewis calls the soft tissue damage inflicted by the culture of surveillance A sprightly tour down some of the surveillance society's most claustrophobic corridors Cory Doctorow New York Times bestselling author

Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons Alyssa G. Bernstein, 2024-06-16 Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons examines the evolution and changes within the Palestinian Prisoners Movement and the structural opportunities and constraints that inform collective resistance today Drawing on observation based fieldwork and over 40 interviews with ex prisoners and additional interviews with lawyers and advocates this book presents a sociological account of Palestinian prisoners in Israel an important reflection of the wider Israeli Palestinian conflict The Oslo Accords the peace agreements between the Palestinian Liberation Organization and Israel transformed not only Palestinian politics but the entire prison environment By exploring issues including the specific characteristics of women's resistance the effects of the Islamicization new hunger strike strategies consumerism within the prison parenting children and escapes Palestinian Political Organizations in Israeli Prisons offers a fresh analysis of political resistance in Israeli prisons Applying a social movement approach and drawing comparisons to other politically motivated prisoner groups the book traces the effects of changes from the Oslo Accords through to today including the Second Intifada the split between Hamas and Fatah the co option of the Palestinian Authority and increasingly systematic prison management explaining how these factors have affected life for Palestinian prisoners in Israeli prisons and influence conflicts today
