North, 2020-03-02 This book addresses student passivity in teacher education Using a developed metaphor the author critically examines the use of authentic learning to design and implement learning experiences for preservice teachers and reveals the opportunities and limitations of a focus on authenticity This book prepares teachers for outdoor education using practice based exemplars of applied teaching theories Focusing on authentic pedagogies it applies to all teacher educators who seek to engage in high impact learning for their students and is relevant for in service educators preservice teachers and researchers in the field of self study

Teacher Education through Active Engagement Lori Beckett, 2013-12-04 Teacher Education through Active Engagement identifies and addresses a contemporary issue the ways in which teaching and teacher education are articulated by politicians civil servants business leaders and educational entrepreneurs intent on profit making in the current global neoliberal policy context This is often characterised by narrow and ill conceived ideas about teacher characteristics and competences recruiting and fast tracking graduates from elsewhere into the profession the reform of teacher training with less emphasis on theory and academic study a narrow focus on teachers core skills and the promotion of training in model teaching schools In this book contributors challenge this conceptualisation and demonstrate practitioners necessary intellectual activity to wrest back professional control By drawing on practice focused research carried out in sites of educational policy and practice each chapter exemplifies for teachers student teachers and teacher educators the sort of knowledge work to coordinate a professional reply to non educationalists who dictate the terms of teaching and teacher education The book provides directions for encouraging critical thinking analytical skills and political activism which consider the needs and interests of diverse children and young people in real classrooms real schools and real communities Illustrated throughout with practice focused research and drawing on the historical case of Winifred Mercier and her colleagues at the City of Leeds training college who challenged the establishment to leave a legacy of professional control the book will appeal to practitioners academics and researchers in the fields of teacher education and education studies

Seeking Integrity in Teacher Education Ann Katherine Schulte, 2008-11-01 In this book a teacher educator examines her practice as a way of learning about teaching as well as challenging teacher education It is about how one teacher educator sought to transform the perspectives of her student teachers in order to better prepare them to teach diverse populations of students while challenging her own beliefs about how best to do that The author seeks integrity in her practice defined as her ability to enact what she teaches

preservice teachers to do In particular this book is a self study that contributes to understanding the broader question How much can one affect and change the discourse within education when one also inhabits the characteristics that are privileged by the institution The teacher education literature supports the need to study this type of self reflection Other researchers have pointed out that the role of teacher educators cultural identities in reforming education has been largely ignored in the literature This book offers a unique perspective on the analogous relationship involved when a teacher educator teaches teachers how to examine the impact of their own identities on their teaching while examining that herself Teaching Teachers Angi Malderez, Martin Wedell, 2007-05-31 This book is a rich resource for all those who support the learning of teachers These teachers of teachers ToTs may find themselves Being responsible for staff development within the context of a school Running a one off workshop or a longer in service programme Teaching university based elements of an initial teacher preparation ITP programme or Mentoring a trainee during the classroom based elements of their ITP or as part of an ongoing programme of inservice provision Based on many years of experience in the field as ToTs and researchers the authors provide strategies which support the following processes and practices Designing and planning effective programmes to support teacher learning Planning sessions or sequences of sessions on such programmes Engaging in a one to one mentoring process Assessing teachers and their learning Managing your personal development as a ToTs

Navigating Teacher Education in Complex and Uncertain Times Carmen I. Mercado, 2019-04-04 Carmen I Mercado draws on four decades of seminal research and theory on how American children who come from homes where languages other than English are spoken learn to read and to write in school to reveal aspects of locally responsive planning and adaptations that should be central to any teacher education program that hopes to serve its unique local population base responsibly Mercado uses a range of theoretical lenses particularly those surrounding critical theory the approach designed to deconstruct power relationships in society to capture and explain the complexities of the teaching learning process making visible institutional social and political influences clear She explores an extensive collection of tools and resources for teaching to explore how educators can inform their thinking and shape their own practices to broaden access to people and resources and to influence classroom instruction as school populations becomes increasingly diverse on a global scale through immigration Mercado also shows how self study has been a key aspect of her program s evolution suggesting that teacher education should be informed by teacher educators own investigations into their own programs and processes that each teacher educator ought to be an active reinventor of her own program based on reflection on current data Mercado sensitively draws together the technical and emotional dimensions of learning to teach acknowledging that critical theory can bring up deep often uncomfortable feelings of anger guilt resentment and other responses to unfair conditions However since schools are designed as places of opportunity facing these responses is essential at a time with the feelings of antagonism that characterize the present day world and its conflictual social groups Mercado offers the opportunity to address these
