Teaching As A Performing Art Workbook:

Teaching as a Performing Art Seymour B. Sarason, 1999 In his most recent work and with his usual perceptiveness Seymour Sarason probes the topic of teaching as a performing art Refreshingly Dr Sarason focuses on the often overlooked role of teachers in galvanizing an audience their students Sarason argues that teachers will better engage learners if they are prepared in the artistry of doing so Sarason sees teachers as actors and thus uses the traditions of stage performance to inspire ways to foster connections between teachers and students Sarason elucidates how the rehearsal processes actors undergo and the direction they receive for example would be similarly beneficial for educators Recognizing that implementing his ideas would require a profound rethinking of teacher training programs Sarason urges why they are crucial to excellence in education As always Sarason s writing is rich with insight garnered from 45 years of teaching and a lifetime devotion to educational issues His book is essential for teachers and teacher educators and an excellent resource for anyone interested in educational topics Once again Sarason like other great teachers and artists has us pause at the moral center of what we thought we knew long enough to recognize truths we might otherwise neglect Just as he guided our understanding of school cultures and school reform this book reshapes what we previously thought of as the art of teaching Jeannie Oakes Professor of Education at University of California Los Angeles Seymour Sarason thinks he has something new to say Indeed he has Furthermore he writes about a domain anyone who has taught in educational institutions identifies with immediately but is almost barren of attention There are insight great writing and passion here but don t look for a repetition of anything Sarason has written before To the thousands of psychologists sociologists and teachers of teachers already nourished by Sarason s writing this book will add the audience of teachers in and out of schools that he has always wanted to reach John Goodlad Co director Center for Educational Renewal University of Washington and President Institute for Educational Inquiry Teaching as a Performing Art Workbook Leon M. & Gillis Lessinger (Don), The Heart of Teaching Stephen Wangh, 2013 The Heart of Teaching is a book about teaching and learning in the performing arts Its focus is on the inner dynamics of teaching the processes by which teachers can promote or undermine creativity itself It covers the many issues that teachers directors and choreographers experience from the frustrations of dealing with silent students and helping young artists unlearn their inhibitions to problems of resistance judgment and race in the classroom Wangh raises questions about what can and what cannot be taught and opens a discussion about the social psychological and spiritual values that underlie the skills and techniques that teachers impart Subjects addressed include Question asking which kinds of questions encourage creativity and which can subvert the learning process Feedback how it can foster both dependence and independence in students Grading its meaning and meaninglessness Power relationships transference and counter transference The pivotal role of listening The Heart of Teaching speaks to experienced teachers and beginning teachers in all disciplines but is particularly relevant to those in the performing arts from which most of its examples are drawn It brings essential insight and honesty to the discussion of how to teach Teaching Art Rhian Brynjolson,2010 This resource is written for classroom teachers art education specialists childcare workers artists working in schools parents who home school their children and school administrators It can also be used as a university textbook for Education students The book provides a framework for teaching art in a way that is integrated with regular classroom practice and mindful of current art curriculum outcomes Although the book focuses on art for primary and middle school students from pre school to grade eight Teaching Art is also useful to art specialists at the high school level who are looking for new strategies or project ideas to add to their established secondary programs Revised and expanded from the author s previous resource Art Illustration This resource integrates new developments in art education The Vocal Arts Workbook David Carey,Rebecca Clark Carey,2021-12-16 Refreshing and imaginative this book teaches through enhanced awareness and instructs through clear and specific exercises Cicely Berry A practical course for actors and other professional voice users to achieve clarity and expressivity with the voice Setting out the fundamental principles of voice training the book provides structured and informed methods for developing vocal power range and flexibility At the heart of the book are practical projects with exercises which enable you to connect your breath with your voice meet the demands of your performance use your voice expressively through fully controlling pitch and range Each chapter consists of an introductory framework explorations exercises follow up work suggested texts and further reading altogether offering a unique student centred approach not found in other voice books This revised edition speaks more directly to the actor rather than the voice teacher through revised terminology and descriptions updated references additional appendices on health and other issues related to trends in contemporary drama and questions of equality diversity and inclusion with respect to vocabulary and suggested texts Includes forewords by Cicely Berry and Fiona Shaw The Clowning Workbook Jon Davison,2023-01-26 Using the techniques and insights of clowning this book draws on original workshops and research to provide practical clowning exercises to develop wider acting practice in innovative ways The book offers guidance and explanation to key concepts in clowning including the dynamics of the clown audience relationship the relationship between script text and improvisation and movement and voice offering fresh and inspiring angles from which to view actor training The Clowning Workbook for Actors and Performers is part of the acclaimed Theatre Arts Workbooks series and features its characteristic blend of student focused exercises with pedagogical tips for teachers Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren,2020-03-20 PURGE the world of dead art imitation artificial art Promote living art anti art promote NON ART REALITY to be grasped by all peoples writes artist George Maciunas in his Fluxus manifesto of 1963 Reacting against an elitist art world enthralled by modernist aesthetics Fluxus encouraged playfulness chance irreverence and viewer participation The diverse collective including George Brecht Robert Filliou Dick Higgins Alison Knowles George Maciunas Yoko Ono Nam June Paik Benjamin Patterson Takako Saito Mieko Shiomi Ben Vautier and Robert Watts embraced humble objects and everyday gestures as critical means of finding freedom and excitement beyond traditional forms of art making While today the Fluxus collective is recognized for its radical neo avant garde works of performance publishing and relational art and its experimental interdisciplinary approach it was not taken seriously in its own time With Fluxus Forms Natilee Harren captures the magnetic energy of Fluxus activities and collaborations that emerged at the intersections of art music performance and literature The book offers insight into the nature of art in the 1960s as it traces the international development of the collective s unique intermedia works including event scores and Fluxbox multiples that irreversibly expanded the boundaries of contemporary art

Arts Integration in Education Yvonne Pelletier Lewis, Gail Humphries Mardirosian, 2016 Arts Integration in Education is an insightful even inspiring investigation into the enormous possibilities for change that are offered by the application of arts integration in education Presenting research from a range of settings from preschool to university and featuring contributions from scholars and theorists educational psychologists teachers and teaching artists the book offers a comprehensive exploration and varying perspectives on theory impact and practices for arts based training and arts integrated instruction across the curriculum

A Charter School Principal's Story Barbara Smith, 2017-12-05 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change takes time findings it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what s worth fighting for in schools Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores This book speaks about how a budget reveals school values and by shifting resources to support staff and student development a school coping with regular turnover can be filled with more confident and capable community members A school crawling with leaders emerged as more student teacher and non instructional staff were supported in new roles aimed at building an inspired culture with the talent and capacity to move others to action The old ways of doing school do not address the needs of the 21st century learner and while many forces with limited views of education were at play this story does provide an example of what promising things can and should happen to increase engagement and learning in more charter schools across America Dr Barbara Smith s narrative of her times in public charter schools offers all of us insights into the struggle to create schools of high academic quality and compassionate care worthy of her educational mandate and mission David Booth Professor Emeritus The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education University of Toronto Dr Smith s message inspires me to be an advocate for education and her work will inspire you as well Jalen Rose Chair of Board of Directors Jalen Rose Leadership Academy Detroit Michigan ESPN Commentator This inside look provides an opportunity for innovation in a field that has held to aging standards for far too long Diane C Manica Former Director Leadership and Accreditation University of Detroit Mercy

Who's Who in Research: Performing Arts Intellect Books,2013-01-01 Increasingly academic communities transcend national boundaries Collaboration between researchers across space is clearly increasing as well as being increasingly sought after noted the online magazine Inside Higher Ed in a recent article about research in the social sciences and humanities Even for those scholars who don't work directly with international colleagues staying up to date and relevant requires keeping up with international currents of thought in one's field But when one's colleagues span the globe it's not always easy to keep track of who's who or what kind of research they're conducting That's where Intellect's new series comes in A set of worldwide guides to leading academics and their work across the arts and humanities Who's Who in Research features comprehensive profiles of scholars in the areas of cultural studies film studies media studies performing arts and visual arts Who's Who in Research Performing Arts includes concise yet detailed listings include each academic's name institution biography and current research interests as well as bibliographic information and a list of articles published in Intellect journals The volumes in the Who's Who in Research series will be updated each year providing the most current information on the foremost thinkers in academia and making them an invaluable resource for scholars hiring committees academic libraries and would be collaborators across the arts and humanities A Vocal Advocate: an Arts Advocacy

Workbook Susan Riley,2012-02-05 This workbook has been developed specifically for arts area teachers visual art music drama and dance as a way to learn how to advocate the importance of their individual programs within the school community This interactive book focuses on developing relationships with the school staff students parents and local community as well as using social media traditional media avenues and networking through conferences and professional development If you're looking for positive techniques that will showcase your program and advocate for its rightful position at the local bargaining table during these difficult budget times this is the book for you Teaching for Learning and Learning for Teaching Christopher Klopfer,Steve Drew,2015-10-30 Teaching for Learning and Learning for Teaching focuses on the emerging global governmental and institutional agenda about higher education teaching quality and the role that peer review can play in supporting improvements in teaching and student outcomes This agenda is a pervasive element of the further development of higher education internationally through activities of governments global agencies institutions of higher education discrete disciplines and individual teachers Many universities have adopted student evaluations as a mechanism to appraise the quality of teaching These evaluations can be understood as providing a customer centric portrait of quality and when used as the sole arbiter of teaching performance they do not instil confidence in the system of evaluation by academic teaching staff Providing peer perspectives as counterpoint whether in a developmental or summative form goes some way to alleviating this imbalance and is the impetus for the resurgence of interest in peer review and observation of teaching This book seeks to recognise cases of peer review of teaching in Higher Education to affirm best practices and identify areas that require improvement in establishing local national and international benchmarks of teaching quality Performing Arts as

High-Impact Practice Michelle Hayford, Susan Kattwinkel, 2018-05-21 This book investigates how the performing arts in higher education nationally contribute to the high impact practices as identified by the Association of American Colleges and Universities AACU Using the well known map of the HIPs for illustrating the centrality of performing arts practices in higher education the editors and authors of this volume call for increased participation by performing arts programs in general education and campus initiatives with specific case studies as a guide Performing arts contribute to the efforts of their institution in delivering a strong liberal arts education that uniquely serves students to meet the careers of the future This is the first book to explicitly link the performing arts to the HIPs and will result in the implementation of best practices to better meet the educational needs of students At stake is the viability of performing arts programs to continue to serve students in their pursuit of a liberal arts education
