Ex Auditu - Volume 17 Klyne Snodgrass, 2004-06-23      Horizons, 1966      The Bible and the Anointing of the Sick (A Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments) Michael Patrick Barber, 2025-07-22 The Catholic Biblical Theology of the Sacraments series provides readers with a deeper appreciation of God's gifts and call in the sacraments through a renewed encounter with God's Word. In this addition to the series Michael Barber offers a biblical approach to anointing of the sick drawing from both the Old and New Testaments. This book unpacks the riches of the Scriptures to explain what true healing in Christ involves. In addition Barber demonstrates how an exegetical approach to the sacrament can advance our understanding of it. Topics include the biblical significance of oil, the relationship of physical healing and spiritual healing including the forgiveness of sins, sin and death, Christ as the New Adam, the continuation of Jesus's ministry in the church, the power of sacral anointing, Christ's fulfillment of messianic hopes and participation in Christ's royal priestly and prophetic mission. The book is suitable for classroom use and parish ministry. Series editors Timothy C. Gray and John Sehorn teach at the Augustine Institute Graduate School of Theology and Gray is also president of the Augustine Institute.      Poverty in the Theology of John Calvin Bonnie L. Pattison, 2006-11-01 It is the thesis of this study that in Calvin's theology poverty and affliction, not splendor and glory, mark and manifest the kingdom of God on earth. Poverty makes the kingdom visible to the eyes and therefore recognizable as divine. Poverty acts to reveal or disclose that which is spiritual or that which is of God in the Christian faith. This does not mean that Calvin sees the condition of physical poverty as revelatory in and of itself. Rather, poverty and affliction function as agents of divine revelation. They are a condition or a chosen instrument God uses to disclose to humanity the nature of true spirituality, godliness, and poverty of spirit. How this is demonstrated in Calvin's thought depends upon the specific doctrine under examination. This study explores three particular areas in Calvin's theology where his theological understanding of spiritual poverty and physical poverty or affliction intersect: his Christology, his doctrine of the Christian life, and his ecclesiology.      Women, Religion and Education in Early Modern England Kenneth Charlton, 2002-01-04 Women, Religion and Education in Early Modern England is a study of the nature and extent of the education of women in the context of both Protestant and Catholic ideological debates. Examining the role of women both as recipients and agents of religious instruction, the author assesses the nature of power endowed in women through religious education and the restraints and freedoms this brought.      Handbook of the Christian Religion for the Use of Advanced Students and the Educated Laity Wilhelm Wilmers, 1891      Theological Dictionary of the New Testament Gerhard Kittel, Gerhard Friedrich, Geoffrey W. Bromiley, 1985-07-10 Geoffrey W. Bromiley has abridged this monumental theological dictionary into a convenient one-volume edition that is accessible to all readers.      Nicene and Post-Nicene Fathers: First Series, Volume IV St. Augustine: The Writings Against the Manichaeans, and Against the Donatists Philip Schaff, 2007-05-01 The Council of Nicaea in 325 AD marked the beginning of a new era in Christianity. For the first time doctrines were organized into a single creed The Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers did most of their writing during and after this important event in Church history Unlike the previous era of Christian writing the Nicene and Post Nicene era is dominated by a few very important and prolific writers In Volume IV of the 14 volume collected writings of the Nicenes and Post Nicenes first published between 1886 and 1889 readers will find Augustines writings defending the Catholic church against the Manichaeans and the Donatists Manichaeism was a religion developed in Persia by the prophet Mani According to this religion creation has two parts darkness and light Light is God and has ten attributes Opposing this and coeternal with it is darkness and its five attributes Saint Augustine was originally a Manichaean so his defense of Christianity against this religion comes from a deep understanding of its nature Donatists were a group of believers who refused to forgive those who had renounced their faith during a time of persecution which caused a schism in Christianity In opposing these men Augustine attempted to mend the rift Those with an interest in ancient religions will find Augustines writings on Manichaeism one of the most important historical records of that religions practices The Living Church ,1945
