Uno de los aspectos más valiosos de este libro es que comienza enlazando a través de los dos primeros artículos la educación universitaria con su nivel inmediatamente anterior: la escuela de secundaria, una conexión que a menudo se olvida con serios resultados para ambos. En este sentido, Benito Camacho Martín, el autor de uno de los artículos, realiza un análisis leído y en cierto modo dogmático sobre el declive de la enseñanza de literatura en las escuelas de secundaria tanto en horas dedicadas como en conocimientos adquiridos. Los otros artículos, algunos en inglés y otros en castellano, tratan distintos aspectos de la enseñanza de literatura norteamericana con un énfasis manifiesto en materiales del siglo XX y sobre todo en la literatura afroamericana; de hecho, el libro resultará particularmente útil para los profesores de este último. The Norton Anthology of American Literature - Post-1865

Robert S. Levine, Michael A. Elliott, Lisa Siraganian, Amy Hungerford, GerShun Avilez, 2022-01-03 Richard Wright Kenneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04. African American writer Richard Wright 1908-1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son. By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris. But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes. He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers. This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays, books, and articles from 1983 through 2003. Arranged alphabetically by author, within years are some 8320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book-length studies of African American literature and literary criticism. Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author's earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982. This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics. Teaching Olaudah Equiano's Narrative Eric D. Lamore, 2012-11-30. The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano, or Gustavus Vassa the African, Written by Himself 1789 is one of the most frequently and heatedly discussed texts in the canon of eighteenth-century transatlantic literature written in English. Equiano's Narrative contains an engrossing account of the author's experiences in Africa, the Americas, and Europe as he sought freedom from bondage and became a leading figure in the abolitionist movement. While scholars have approached this sophisticated work from diverse critical and historical biographical perspectives, there has been until now little written about the ways in which it can be successfully taught in the twenty-first-century classroom. In this collection of essays, most of them never before published, sixteen teacher-scholars focus explicitly on the various classroom contexts in which the Narrative can be assigned and various pedagogical strategies that can be used to help students understand the text and its complex cultural, intellectual, literary, and historical implications. The contributors explore topics ranging from the religious dimensions of Equiano's rhetoric and controversies about his origins, specifically whether he was actually born in Africa and endured the Middle Passage to considerations of the Narrative's place in American Literature survey courses and how it can be productively compared to other texts including captivity narratives and modern works of fiction They not only suggest an array of innovative teaching models but also offer new readings of the work that have been overlooked in Equiano studies and Slavery studies With these two dimensions this volume will help ensure that conversations over Equiano's eighteenth century autobiography remain relevant and engaging to today's students ERIC D LAMORE is an assistant professor of English at the University of Puerto Rico at Mayagüez A contributor to The Greenwood Encyclopedia of American Poets and Poetry he is also the coeditor with John C Shields of New Essays on Phillis Wheatley Teaching with the Norton Anthology of World Literature Paula S. Berggren, 2002-01-01 Teaching African American Women's Writing G. Wisker, 2010-09-29 The essays in Teaching African American Women's Writing provide reflections on issues problems and pleasures raised by studying the texts They will be of use to those teaching and studying African American women's writing in colleges universities and adult education groups as well as teachers involved in teaching in schools to A level
