Berggren,1997-01-01     Social Constructionist Identity Politics and Literary Studies S. Gupta,2007-01-10 This study presents a critique of social constructionist identity politics which is distinguished from specific identity based political positions from within and with social constructionist commitments Gupta examines the institutionalization of social constructionist identity politics in literary studies considering the notions of canonicity     The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation Kelly Washbourne,Ben Van Wyke,2018-10-10 The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation provides an accessible diverse and extensive overview of literary translation today This next generation volume brings together principles case studies precepts histories and process knowledge from practitioners in sixteen different countries Divided into four parts the book covers many of literary translation s most pressing concerns today from teaching to theorising to translation techniques to new tools and resources Featuring genre studies in which graphic novels crime fiction and ethnopoetry have pride of place alongside classics and sacred texts The Routledge Handbook of Literary Translation represents a vital resource for students and researchers of both translation studies and comparative literature

Teaching with the Norton Anthology of English Literature Sondra M. Archimedes,2006     The First Year English Teacher's Guide to Beartraps Jon Potter,2002-09-05 At some moments new teachers are exhilarated At others they wonder darkly how anyone ever convinced them to try the job Heres help for new English teachers The book is organized into four jargon free sections A Few Basics Theory and Practice School Culture and Personal Survival Within each section there are short focused explanations of how things actually work in high schools and how to avoid the traps of overcommittment classroom management unruly student behavior and school politics There is also an appendix of tried and true recipes approaches to a variety of teaching challenges     The Mind and its Stories Patrick Colm Hogan,2003-09-29 There are profound extensive and surprising universals in literature which are bound up with universals in emotion Hogan maintains that debates over the cultural specificity of emotion are misdirected because they have ignored a vast body of data that bear directly on the way different cultures imagine and experience emotion literature This is the first empirically and cognitively based discussion of narrative universals Professor Hogan argues that to a remarkable degree the stories people admire in different cultures follow a limited number of patterns and that these patterns are determined by cross culturally constant ideas about emotion In formulating his argument Professor Hogan draws on his extensive reading in world literature experimental research treating emotion and emotion concepts and methodological principles from the contemporary linguistics and the philosophy of science He concludes with a discussion of the relations among narrative emotion concepts and the biological and social components of emotion
