

Inspiring Children towards a Life-Long Love of Learning by Promoting Self-Expression through Arts

Observe children closely and you will notice how they love to make the most of every moment. Whether it is drawing, playing with dough, or any other activity, they are so immersed in the process that they are not concerned about the outcome. This valuable skill of living in the moment and expressing themselves needs to be nurtured as it gradually expands their ability to connect with the world around, which in turn paves way for a new skill – that of healthy self-expression.

Most toddlers and preschoolers aren't focussed on creating a finished product, which parents find worrisome. However, Aurora is an early childhood learning center firmly believes that instead of defining the parameters of creativity and clipping their wings of self-expression and enjoyment let them enjoy the moment and express themselves.

Why Is Self-Expression Important?
