Roy B. Zuck, 1993-05-01 The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation

Cleophus J. LaRue, Luiz C. Nascimento, 2020-08-03 Christianity is turning brown and moving south The Christianity the West has known is in recession and has all but dwindled out of recognition in the opening years of the twenty first century Well over half of the world's Christians now live in the Global South Africa Asia and Latin America They are according to Aberdeen missiologist Andrew Walls the new Representative Christians What they think about Christianity will matter more and more and what North America thinks about Christianity will matter less and less This massive shift in geography and theological point of departure will have a major impact on Christian preaching now and into the future The Future Shape of Christian Proclamation seeks to begin the conversation about how preaching in the Global South will inform the whole of Christian preaching in the coming years Theological Interpretation of Culture in Post-Communist Context Dr Ivana

Noble, 2013-06-28 Twenty years after the fall of Communism in Central and East Europe is an occasion to reevaluate the cultural and theological contribution from that region to the secularization post secularization debate Czech theologian Ivana Noble develops a Trinitarian theology through a close dialogue with literature music and film which formed not only alternatives to totalitarian ideologies but also followed the loss and reappearance of belief in God Noble explains that by listening to the artists the churches and theologians can deal with questions about the nature of the world memory and ultimate fulfilment in a more nuanced way Then as partakers in the search undertaken by their secular and post secular contemporaries theologians can penetrate a new depth of meaning sending out shoots from the stump of Christian symbolism Drawing on the rich cultures of Central and East Europe and both Western and Eastern theological traditions this book presents a theological reading of contemporary culture which is important not just for post Communist countries but for all who are engaged in the debate on the boundaries between theology politics and arts Herald of Gospel Liberty, 1909

This is Not Just a Painting Bernard Lahire, 2019-04-15 In 2008 the Musée des Beaux Arts de Lyon acquired a painting called The Flight into Egypt which was attributed to the French artist Nicolas Poussin Thought to have been painted in 1657 the painting had gone missing for more than three centuries Several versions were rediscovered in the 1980s and one was passed from hand to hand from a family who had no idea of its value to gallery owners and eventually to the museum A painting that had been sold as a decorative object in 1986 for around 12 000 euros was acquired two decades later by the Mus e des Beaux Arts de Lyon for 17 million euros What does this remarkable story tell us about the nature of art and the way that it is valued How is it that what seemed to be just an ordinary canvas could be transformed into a masterpiece that a decorative object could become a national treasure This is a story permeated by social magic the social alchemy that transforms lead into gold the ordinary into the extraordinary the profane into the sacred Focusing on this extraordinary case Bernard Lahire lays bare the beliefs and social processes that underpin the creation of a masterpiece Like a detective piecing together the clues in an unsolved mystery he carefully reconstructs the steps that led from the same material object being treated as a copy of insignificant value to being endowed with the status of a highly prized painting commanding a record breaking price He thereby shows that a painting is never just a painting and is always more than a piece of stretched canvass to which brush strokes of paint have been applied this object and the value we attach to it is also the product of a complex array of social processes with its distinctive institutions and experts that lies behind it And through the history of this painting Lahire uncovers some of the fundamental structures of our social world For the social magic that can transform a painting from a simple copy into a masterpiece is similar to the social magic that is present throughout our societies in economics and politics as much as art and religion a magic that results from the spell cast by power on those who tacitly recognize its authority By following the trail of a single work of art Lahire interrogates the foundations on which our perceptions of value and our belief in institutions rest and exposes the forms of domination which lie hidden behind our admiration of works of art

Dunbar,2009-05-22 The geographical extent of the orient and occident is a validation of the cultural and ideological differences that have existed with constancies between the two hemispheres throughout the ions of time Ideological pluralism has been the common practice of the inhabitants of both spheres but with unique manifestations Christianity along with other religions are warmly embraced and pragmatically characterized by the orientals and occidentals with reserved peculiarities Oriental Christians viewed pneumatology as being a significant particle of their theological and liturgical lives while Occidental Christians see Christology as the primal substance in Christianity Although both groups have a history of singling out this distinction over the years theologians and theology have helped both sides understand the importance of both pneumatology and Christology in Christianity It is concertedly understood that neither of the two can be studied or taught without the other Their inseparable existence makes Christianity a complete whole The authors exploration and literary expedition through myriad of sources allow him to compile data relevant to understanding the importance of the Holy Ghost and Spiritual gifts within the Christian community Whether a secular or non secular intellectual you will find the information in this book to be rewarding resourceful and informative You will come across comments from some of humanitys

Between the Menorah and the Cross Stephen Beebe, 2008-05-27 In the first century of Christianity the church lived a precarious existence in Palestine Externally it faced the oppression of Rome and the opposition of an orthodox Jewish majority Internally the Gospel writers struggled to consolidate a congregation of Jewish converts with stubbornly ingrained Judaic traditions By reading the Gospels with this historical perspective we can see the day to day trials of the early church and how the church fathers faced up to the challenges of traditions that contradicted the teachings of the new faith In comparison to the Jewish tradition into which Jesus was born one of the most radical Christian teachings was associated with the nature of the human soul and its continuing existence after death The Old Testament is not explicit about an afterlife and a firm belief in an eternal soul did not form a part of traditional Judaism When Jesus spoke of eternal life this was a challenge to His audience and even His own followers had difficulty assimilating this concept Another concept that was perhaps even more challenging for early Jewish Christians was the position of Jesus as One at the right hand of God and a Spirit that existed from the very dawn of creation To the Jews this teaching violated the sacrosanct principle of monotheism a principle that was inherited from Abraham and that was at the very center of Jewish consciousness Between the Menorah and the Cross takes a fresh look at the differences between Christianity and Judaism examining the teachings of Jesus that contrasted markedly with the orthodox Jewish view Reflecting on this dimension offers a new perspective on the mission of Christ in the first century While we are familiar with the clashes between Jesus and the scribes and Pharisees it seldom occurs to us that the issues at the center of those conflicts were also issues to be dealt with between the church fathers and their Jewish Christian congregations For while the Jewish Christians had accepted Jesus as Messiah other points of Christian doctrine were slow to be assimilated Thus the church fathers struggled to deepen their congregations in the subtleties of the Message of Jesus But more significant still is the fact that their experience colored the way that they wrote the Gospels the vocabulary that they chose and the nuances that they embedded in the text In other words the way we read the Gospels today is influenced by the experience of Christians in the first century Only by reexamining their experience and their historical context can we really appreciate the message in the Gospels Chapter 1 Jacobs pillow A scientific materialist reconciles with Christianity This chapter describes the authors early sense of discomfort with Jesus and with Christianity in general Rebelling against his traditional family religion he ran the gauntlet from skeptic to atheist to scientific materialist When finally he became a member of the Bah Faith he still had not reconciled with Christianity much less did he feel at ease with the Jesus that he had known through Christianity The author had to overcome that sense of discomfort by understanding better the milieu in which the Gospels were written which in turn reveals the underlying intentions of the Gospel writers with regard to Jesus Chapter 2 From Abraham to Jesus The building blocks of faith Surveying the broad sweep of Judeo Christian history from Abraham to Jesus we find an evolution of concepts and a maturation of faith Abraham was the source of monotheism and monotheism in turn led to the law and ethics of Moses What did Jesus contribute to this process Until Jesus appeared there was very little said in the Bible about life after death nor about an immortal human soul It was Jesus who introduced a firm concept of the eternal indestructible human soul This represented a milestone in hum

develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Appropriate Christianity Charles H. Kraft, 2005-06-01 Appropriate Christianity consists of 28 chapters by 18 authors approaching contextualization in three dimensions truth allegiance and spiritual power Over the years there have been quite a number of helpful discussions of the contextualization of theological truth Though we have been helped greatly by them it is high time we began to deal also with allegiance and spiritual power two additional dimensions that Jesus considered of great importance Any adequate and appropriate treatment of the contextualization of biblical Christianity needs to deal with all three of these crucial dimensions For allegiance to Christ is the basis for all we do that makes us Christian and Jesus was very much into spiritual power If we are to be truly biblical we must deal also with these areas This book is not a festschrift even though it is dedicated to Dr Dean

S Gilliland who joined the faculty of Fuller s School of Intercultural Studies in 1977 and has since been developing an emphasis on teaching and research concerning contextualized theology This is a new textbook aimed at expanding our understanding of contextualization and better enabling us to e ectively and appropriately communicate biblical Christianity
