The All-American Girls Professional Baseball League Record Book W.C. Madden, 2015-08-13 For a dozen years during the 1940s and 1950s more than 600 women played professional baseball in the All American Girls Professional Baseball League Some of these women compiled some eye popping statistics unequaled by their male counterparts Sophie Kurys swiped 200 bases in one season Joanne Winter hurled 63 consecutive scoreless innings pitcher Jean Faut sported a 910 winning percentage one season Few know that Joanne Weaver was the last professional baseball player to hit 400 in a season 429 in 1954 This reference book contains the hitting fielding and pitching records of all women who played in the AAGPBL during its 12 year history The book also contains all of the team and individual playoff records of the league compiled for the first time Included herein are rosters of the all star teams as well as a listing of all pitching and batting champions A brief history of the league is recounted Complementing the statistics are photos of the league championship teams and key players

The International League Marshall D. Wright, 2024-10-14 From 1884 to 1953 the International League enjoyed a measure of stability that was the envy of many other minor leagues With franchises located in cities along the East Coast and Canada including Newark Toronto Baltimore Montreal and Providence the circuit produced a brand of baseball that was only a bit below that of the majors This is the complete year by year team by team statistical history of the first 70 years of the International League from its beginnings with the Eastern League in 1854 to 1953 when longtime member Baltimore was forced to relocate its franchise to make way for a major league team For each season there is a brief essay that covers the league s highlights and its champion Full rosters for each team are then provided with complete statistics for all players

The Tobacco State League Chris Holaday, 2016-12-18 The Tobacco State League played an important role in eastern North Carolina for five summers 1946 1950 giving small town communities a chance to be a part of professional baseball and offering a return to normalcy after World War II Years later the players names were spoken with reverence their exploits the subject of impassioned discussion This book tells the story of the short lived league and the clubs who entertained fans on dusty ball fields under dim lights including the Lumberton Auctioneers Rockingham Eagles Warsaw Red Sox Sanford Spinners and Wilmington Pirates

The South Atlantic League, 1904-1963 Marshall D. Wright, 2010-03-08 This book presents season by season information for the original South Atlantic Baseball League which operated for 60 years in the Carolinas Georgia and Florida In 1963 with the collapse of the Southern Association the league was promoted to Double A status and renamed the Southern League Each chapter opens with a season summary and is followed by league standings team records and rosters and statistics for each player

The Texas League in Baseball, 1888-1958 Marshall D. Wright, 2024-10-11 For over 100 years the Texas League has been one of the top minor leagues in the Southwest This work is a statistical history of the Texas League from its inception in 1888 through 1958 when Houston Fort Worth and Dallas left for higher aspirations in Triple A and major league baseball The book is arranged by year and each chapter begins with a short introduction that also highlights a player team or aspect of the game that season The teams are then presented in standings order and the author provides statistics for each player games at bats runs hits runs batted in doubles triples home runs walks strikeouts stolen bases and batting average and each team wins loses winning percentage and games behind first place For pitchers the statistics provided here include wins and losses winning percentage games games started complete games shutouts innings pitched hits allowed walks strikeouts and earned run averages
