Conflicted Health Care Ester Carolina Apesoa-Varano,Charles S. upon the ranking of each group's knowledge base. They manifest in efforts to work as a team or set limits on practitioner responsibilities and in differing views on unionization.

Teamwork Models and Experience in Education Howard G. Garner, 1995 Experts note that in the 1990s teamwork is emerging as the preferred means of organizing and managing businesses, schools, childcare organizations and other human services programs. Drawing upon the expertise and insights of professionals who have directly implemented the team approach in education and child care, this timely guide provides a comprehensive view of teamwork in education and child care settings. Chapter authors touch upon both theory and practice as they outline the benefits and limitations of various models and discuss the process of implementing them in many different educational and child care settings.
