Whitney-Brown, 2019-10-16 Jean Vanier s spiritual vision and sense of humour shaped L Arche but the organization was also informed by its surprising history with the United Church of Canada In Tender to the World Carolyn Whitney Brown explores the connections between the two organizations through diverse critical insights from Julia Kristeva Doreen Massey and Mikhail Bakhtin as well as Vanier s controversial articulation of the gift of weakness Tracing the five decade relationship between L Arche and the United Church alongside evolving disability theories Whitney Brown examines both the fundamental importance of stories and the agency of people with intellectual disabilities Inversion a transformative overturning of expectations in social interactions can be upsetting or exciting challenging or inspiring she argues This book offers a fresh look at how L Arche and the United Church have worked to break down walls of difference illuminating how each tenders something unexpected to the other and to the world At a time when many are seeking new visions for society the long and complex relationship between Canada s largest Protestant denomination and L Arche offers both encouragement and a deeper way to approach questions of living in diverse communities The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva

Sara G. Beardsworth, 2020-08-18 The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva is the latest addition to the highly acclaimed series The Library of Living Philosophers The book epitomizes the objectives of this acclaimed series it contains critical interpretation of one of the greatest philosophers of our time and pursues more creative regional and world dialogue on philosophical questions The format provides a detailed interaction between those who interpret and critique Kristeva s work and the seminal thinker herself giving broad coverage from diverse viewpoints of all the major topics establishing her reputation. With questions directed to the philosopher while they are alive the volumes in The Library of Living Philosophers have come to occupy a uniquely significant place in the realm of philosophy. The inclusion of Julia Kristeva constitutes a vital addition to an already robust list of thinkers. The Philosophy of Julia Kristeva exemplifies world class intellectual work closely connected to the public sphere. Kristeva has been said to have inherited the intellectual throne left vacant by Simone de Beauvoir and has won many awards including the Hannah Arendt Prize for Political Thought. Julia Kristeva's autobiography provides an excellent introduction to her work situating it in relation to major political intellectual and cultural movements of the time. Her upbringing in Soviet dominated Bulgaria her move to the French intellectual landscape of the 1960s her visit to Mao's China her response to the fall of the Berlin Wall her participation in a papal summit on humanism her appointment by President Chirac as President of the National Council on Disability and her setting up of the Simone de Beauvoir prize honoring women in active and creative fields are all major moments of this fascinating life. The major part of the book is comprised of thirty six essays by Kristeva's foremost interpreters and critics together with her replies to the essays. These encounters cover an exceptionally wide range of theoretical and literary writing. The strong international and multidisciplinary focus includes authors from over ten countries and spans the fields of philosophy semiotics literature psychoanalysis feminist thought political theory art and religion. The comprehensive bibliography provides further access to Kristeva's writings and thought. The preparation of this volume the thirty sixth in the series was supported by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities.

Marking Short Lives Ewan R. Kelly, Ewan Kelly, 2007 This book explores theologically the practice of hospital chaplains seeking to meet the spiritual needs of parents bereaved by baby death in utero. The lived experience of bereaved parents gathered through a series of in depth interviews informs such an exploration. Parents describe the trauma of late miscarriage and stillbirth as still being shrouded by silence myth and misunderstanding in contemporary society. Up to date theoretical understandings of grief are also re examined in light of parents' stories of living with baby death. This book offers suggestions as to how the actual spiritual needs of parents may be met and their grief sensitively facilitated through the sharing of rituals co constructed by parents and chaplain which seek to have theological integrity yet be relevant in our postmodern age. In our prevalent culture of caring where increasingly ongoing professional and personal development are regarded as normative recommendations are made which may aid reflection on current or shape future practice for chaplains pastors students and various healthcare professionals.

Enabling Grace Susan Mathew,2025-07-31 People with disabilities can face unique challenges across the globe particularly in places where there is a lack of awareness and community support for them and their families Dr Susan Mathew a distinguished biblical scholar and mother of a child with special needs presents this disability reading of the Pauline letters with a focus on 2 Corinthians 12 7b 10 in which the apostle presents a paradox of healing as he asserts that God s grace and power are made sufficient in the face of human weakness In this timely work Dr

Mathew explores the theme of disability emphasizing the enabling and transformative power of grace in the lives of persons with disabilities She brings thorough biblical exegesis and theological insight together with her extensive experience in the ministry of support care and empowerment of children with special needs to present a new understanding of power in weakness Moving towards a holistic vision of grace in the context of affliction and disability Dr Mathew s reading provides encouragement to those with disabilities and their caregivers as well as highlighting the importance of our mutual response and responsibility as the church and in society The Beautiful Risk James H. Olthuis,2006-03-01 The heart is too much a mystery for us to approach its healing as a simple matter of finding and fixing the problem Methods alone cannot meet the deep aching need of souls that cry not for solutions but for connection The Beautiful Risk encourages us to trade cure for care expertise for partnership and mastery for love With perspective shifting insights and examples Dr James Olthuis helps us both counselors and those who come for counsel to move beyond control and technique and join in a risky but glorious dance of relationship love and healing

Canadian Poets, 1960-1973 George Woodcock, 1976-01-01 Compiled in 1976 by George Woodcock this book lists works by 600 poets in 1200 books and booklets during the era leading up to Canada's literary coming of age This listing of the writings in verse of Canadian poets between 1960 and 1973 came into existence because I was invited by Carl F Klinck the General Editor of the Literary History of Canada to write for a new edition of that work the chapter covering poetry published in Canada since 1960 It was obvious that my first need was an adequate list for I very soon realized that in quantity even more than in character the poetry published in Canada during the past decade has differed radically from what had appeared at any other time in the literary progress of our country Introductory note by George Woodcock
