El cine por regiones Juan Felipe Leal, 2021-03-31 El cine por regiones es el título del segundo volumen que dedica Juan Felipe Leal al año de 1909 el primero lo consagró a la Ciudad de México En él divide el autor el territorio nacional en ocho áreas geográficas en las que agrupa la información que recogió en diversos archivos y hemerotecas acerca de las actividades cinematográficas que se llevaron a cabo en ese espacio de tiempo Hay que decir que Leal seleccionó dichas áreas de una manera relativamente arbitraria con propósitos meramente operativos stas fueron el Golfo

schools in the early 1970s These responses were sparked by the effort of the Houston Independent School District to circumvent a court order for desegregation by classifying Mexican American children as white and integrating them with African American children leaving Anglos in segregated schools Gaining legal recognition for Mexican Americans as a minority group became the only means for fighting this kind of discrimination The struggle for legal recognition not only reflected an upsurge in organizing within the community but also generated a shift in consciousness and identity In Brown Not White Guadalupe San Miguel Jr astutely traces the evolution of the community's political activism in education during the Chicano Movement era of the early 1970s San Miguel also identifies the important implications of this struggle for Mexican Americans and for public education First he demonstrates the political mobilization in Houston underscored the emergence of a new type of grassroots ethnic leadership committed to community empowerment and to inclusiveness of diverse ideological interests within the minority community Second it signaled a shift in the activist community's identity from the assimilationist Mexican American Generation to the rising Chicano Movement with its nationalist ideology Finally it introduced Mexican American interests into educational policy making in general and into the national desegregation struggles in particular This important study will engage those interested in public school policy as well as scholars of Mexican American history and the history of desegregation in America
