Breaking the Boundaries B. Sanyal, 2013-03-09 Exploring the complex arena of international planning for development has until now been uniquely the privilege of influential senior western planners This book calls into question many of their hallowed principles and much of the conventional wisdom still evident in the halls of academe At a time of increasing enrollment of foreign students in North American planning programs the emergence of a new voice has coincided with a growing skepticism worldwide about old notions of planning and development in poorer and ex colonial countries Now there is a need for brave innovations to reshape our understanding of the global crisis and the potential for progressive and democratic local solutions in both rich and poor nations alike This new voice is given expression by academics and professionals from Third World nations who received their planning education in the west and who now hold posts in major western planning schools Breaking the Boundaries presents their views and those of concerned colleagues about the need for a radically changed curriculum based on a comparative one world approach to planning education Their personal experiences as young expatriate scholars and later as teachers of both Third World and First World students in western planning schools are seen as crucial to this need for change Through candid reflections and perceptive critiques of their own field the spatial environmental social design and communications disciplines the contributors explore crucial issues in development planning from theoretical and professional practice perspectives Professional Writing Guide Roslyn

Petelin,2023-04-14 The Professional Writing Guide is for people who wish to improve the quality of their documents and the efficiency of their writing Busy executives and other writers in organisations who may spend between 30 and 80 per cent of their working time writing will find it invaluable because it clearly outlines the principles that underlie effective documents This book will enable executives to write confidently competently and persuasively High quality output is crucial to a company s image and to a professional s own career advancement Errors in a document can prove expensive The Professional Writing Guide is an indispensable and accessible reference tool as well as a comprehensive style manual for writers who wish to avoid those expensive mistakes and make a positive impression Written by two long term professional writing educators with extensive experience of consulting to Australian business and industry this lively and highly practical book features workable reliable and powerful strategies that can be used to systematically eliminate the writing problems of organisational writers Composition Theory for the Postmodern Classroom Gary A. Olson,Sidney I.

Dobrin,1994-01-01 Composition Theory for the Postmodern Classroom is a collection of the most outstanding articles published in the Journal of Advanced Composition over the last decade Together these essays represent the breadth and strength of composition scholarship that has fruitfully engaged with critical theory in its many manifestations In drawing on the critical discourses of philosophers feminists literary theorists African Americanists cultural theorists and others these compositionists have enriched discourse in the field broadened intellectual conceptions of the multiple roles and functions of discourse and opened up an infinite number of questions and new possibilities for composition theory and pedagogy

Disrupting the Center Rebecca Hallman Martini,2022-04-15 Strategic partnership offers writing centers a framework for responding to disruptive innovations in higher education Through partnership writing centers can simultaneously secure resources and support the practice of tutoring writing in ways that enable moments of resistance where writing consultants and students can tactically challenge the corporate university through their methods of practice Disrupting the Center

explicates analyzes and critiques one particular writing center's partnership approach to collaboration with disciplinary faculty and upper administrators across the curriculum Using on site research and critical ethnographic study from one university writing center Rebecca Hallman Martini establishes an innovative cross disciplinary partnership approach to writing instruction in which peer tutoring plays an integral curricular role Case studies detail three partnerships that respond directly to existing or potential disruptive innovations in higher education and showcase important concepts mapping mutual benefit and stakeholder engagement in an online studio hybrid first year writing program partnership in response to online education creating negotiated space to work through ethical issues involved when working with a public private partnership to develop a required extracurricular portfolio project in a business school and building transformational partnerships through establishing a writing in the professions curriculum in the College of Engineering in response to career readiness initiatives Disrupting the Center uses interviews observations focus groups analysis of consultations meetings and shared documents such as annual reports budgets assessment data assignments and syllabi to generate a wide view of how systems work Writing centers are flexible university wide service spaces where students go for one on one and group writing support that can become dynamic spaces for writing pedagogy by disrupting revitalizing and reinventing the epistemic foundations of current rhetoric and composition landscapes and traditional approaches to writing Teaching

Intercultural Rhetoric and Technical Communication Barry Thatcher, Kirk St. Amant, Charles Sides, 2017-03-02 In today's integrated global economy technical communicators often collaborate in international production teams work with experts in overseas subject matter or coordinate documentation for the international release of products Working effectively in such situations requires technical communicators to acquire a specialized knowledge of culture and communication This book provides readers with the information needed to integrate aspects of intercultural communication into different educational settings

The Theory of Linguistic Channels in Alphabetical Texts Emilio Matricciani, 2023-12-15 This book is a collection of papers on a mathematical statistical theory concerning the deep language structure of alphabetical texts The theory does not follow the actual paradigm of linguistic studies which consider neither Shannon's communication theory nor the fundamental connection that some linguistic parameters have with the reading skill and short term memory capacity of readers The book proposes to young researchers and students in the fields of cognitive psychology theory of communication information theory phonics and linguistics history of modern and ancient literatures and stylometry a possible theoretical framework which could allow one to further research the fundamental mathematical structure of human language This research might enable academics to devise a mathematical theory that includes meaning the great absent element since Shannon's times in our mathematical theories of human communication
