Brand Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics Rossolatos, George, 2014-01-01 Brand Equity Planning with Structuralist Rhetorical Semiotics furnishes an innovative conceptual model and methodology for brand equity planning with view to addressing a crucial gap in the existing marketing and semiotic literatures concerning how advertising multimodal textual elements may be transformed into brand associations with an emphasis on rhetorical relata as modes of connectivity between a brand s surface and depth grammar The scope of this project is inter disciplinary spanning research areas such as brand equity structuralist semiotics textual semiotics visual and film semiotics multimodal rhetoric Film theory psychoanalysis The proposed connectionist model of the brand trajectory of signification is operationalized through a methodological framework that encompasses a structuralist semiotic interpretative approach to the textual formation of brand equity supported by quantitative content analysis with the aid of the software Atlas ti and the application of multivariate mapping techniques

The Legacy of Elise Hall Kurt Bertels, Adrienne Honnold, 2024-03-01 The saxophone is a globally popular instrument often closely associated with renowned players such as Charlie Parker John Coltrane or more recently Kenny G Less well known however is the historical presence of women saxophonists in the nineteenth century shortly after the instrument s invention Elise Hall 1853 1924 a prominent wealthy socialite in Boston at the turn of the twentieth century defied social norms by mastering the saxophone an unconventional instrument for a woman of her time Despite her career s profound impact Elise Hall remains relatively obscure in broader music communities Her untiring work as an impresario patron and performer made a significant mark on the history of the instrument Yet these contributions have been historically undervalued largely due to gender bias This collection of essays written by mainly women saxophonists scholars re evaluates Elise Hall s legacy beyond a discrete history updating the narrative by highlighting the ways in which her identity and the saxophone itself have influenced historical accounts By analyzing the sociocultural factors surrounding this innovative musician through a contemporary lens the contributors challenge previously held narratives shaped by patriarchal structures and collectively affirm her place as one of the pioneers in the history of the saxophone

Through the Healing Glass John Stanislav Sadar, 2016-02-12 In the mid 1920s a physiologist a glass chemist and a zoo embarked on a project which promised to turn buildings into medical instruments The advanced chemistry of Vita Glass mobilised theories of light and medicine health practices and glassmaking technology to compress an entire epoch s hopes for a healthy life into a glass sheet yet it did so invisibly To communicate its advantage Pilkington Bros spared no expense as they launched the most costly and sophisticated marketing campaign in their history Engineering need for Vita Glass employed leading edge market research evocative photography and vanguard techniques of advertising psychology accompanied by the claim Let in the Health Rays of Daylight Permanently through Vita Glass Windows This is the story of how despite the best efforts of two glass companies the leading marketing firm of the day and the opinions of leading medical minds Vita Glass failed. However, it epitomised an age of lightness and airiness: sleeping porches, flat roofs and ribbon windows. Moreover, through its remarkable print advertising, it strove to shape the ideal relationship between our buildings and our bodies. Marketing Information Guide, 1965

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
