Teaching Buddhism Todd Lewis,Gary DeAngelis,2016-09-01 Buddhist studies is a rapidly changing field of research constantly transforming and adapting to new scholarship This creates a problem for instructors both in a university setting and in monastic schools as they try to develop a curriculum based on a body of scholarship that continually shifts in focus and expands to new areas Teaching Buddhism establishes a dialogue between the community of instructors of Buddhism and leading scholars in the field who are updating revising and correcting earlier understandings of Buddhist traditions Each chapter presents new ideas within a particular theme of Buddhist studies and explores how courses can be enhanced with these insights Contributors in the first section focus on the typical approaches figures and traditions in undergraduate courses such as the role of philosophy in Buddhism Nagarjuna Yogacara Buddhism tantric traditions and Zen Buddhism They describe the impact of recent developments like new studies in the cognitive sciences on scholarship in those areas Part Two examines how political engagement and ritual practice have shaped the tradition throughout its history Focus then shifts to the issues facing instructors of Buddhism dilemmas for the scholar practitioner in the academic and monastic classroom the tradition s possible roles in teaching feminism and diversity and how to present the tradition in the context of a world religions course In the final section contributors offer stories of their own experiences teaching paying particular attention to the ways in which American culture has impacted them They discuss the development of courses on American Buddhism using course material on the family and children the history and trajectory of a Buddhist Christian dialog and Buddhist bioethics environmentalism economic development and social justice In synthesizing this vast and varied body of research the contributors in this volume have provided an invaluable service to the field

So What Makes Our Teaching Christian?

Robert W. Pazmino,2008-09-22 This work explores a perennial question that Christians who are called to teach must consider So what makes our teaching Christian It considers the essential and distinctive elements of Christian teaching by examining the apostles teaching ministry in the Book of Acts and aspects of Jesus s own teaching in the Gospel of John It proposes how teaching in the name spirit and power of Jesus relates to the teaching ministries of Christians today For example an in depth look at Jesus s teaching of both Nicodemus and the Samaritan woman known in Christian tradition as Photini provides insights for transformative teaching of both insiders and outsiders in a Christian community This work is a theological pastoral and educational exploration of Christian teaching that has implications for both laity and clergy in their ministries

Memoirs and Sermons Emory Miller,1911 The Chaiselongue Momo Pete,2025-05-19 This tropical South Sea novella tells the story of a disciple s relationship with a real Maha Siddha the Guru of all Gurus the Master of all Masters Turaga Dau Loloma Vunirarama in an epic poetic form based on the historical yet fictional character of the servant Ratu Gus Ratu Gus lives his past present and future lives in conscious simultaneity All the wheels of fate interlock and overlap as they do for every human being until the moment when fate presents the protagonist with a chaiselongue in the middle of a South Seas paradise that is not free from fraud The tropical capital of Fiji Suva becomes the catalyst and supernova of his realisation process Far away from the trouble spots of this world and the virtual influencer streets of consumer prostitution Ratu Gus s spiritual ecstasy and heartfelt impulse pull him beyond the apparent world and his body mind anchoring him in the fire of the here and now Embraced and guided by the blessing presence and eternal relationship with his Heart Master Turaga Dau Loloma Vunirarama the ancient spiritual path of a Master Devotee relationship is revealed step by step The enfolding process of Perfect Realisation in the relationship with his Heart Master progresses relentlessly and mercilessly No failure is too unworthy of Gus No offence unfounded No path too far for him to take a shortcut The patterns and habits of an illusory egoic life fall away In the perpetual tropical heat of frustrations and tragedies of a freebooting life in tune with his Heart Master Turaga Dau Loloma Vunirarama there can only be one conclusion for Ratu Gus We have always already been free The Schooled Heart Michael D. Beaty,Douglas V. Henry,2007 The Schooled Heart addresses a basic question about the nature of the university should moral education figure among the university s purposes This volume offers an affirmative response to that question A central purpose of the university is the moral formation of students what Beaty and Henry call the schooling of the heart
