Ross, 2022 A Handbook on early modern women s writing that combines new developments in historical and critical research with theoretical and conceptual approaches The Month ,1919 Holy Daring Tessa Bielecki, 2016-10-17 This new edition of Holy Daring revised and updated for new readers in honor of the 500th Anniversary of St Teresa s birth will be an abiding source of inspiration to all who want a fuller deeper meaningful and balanced life Tessa Bielecki shows how Teresa s vibrant natural life was the foundation of her mystical one rekindling St Teresa s outrageous spiritual impulse The Month ,1954 Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics: Mundas-Phrygians James Hastings, 1951 St. Teresa of Jesus of the Order of Our Lady of Carmel Saint Teresa (of Avila), 1911 God in the Dark Susan R. Pitchford, 2011-04-01 Contemporary Christianity is afflicted with two problems First our spiritual life is often bland and lukewarm Distracted and fragmented by our lives and malnourished on conventional piety we feel out of touch with the God described in the Bible as a consuming fire Second we don t know how to make sense of suffering especially the pain of spiritual darkness and aridity The answer to both of these problems is passion In God in the Dark Susan Pitchford explores the two faces of passion desire the mutual attraction between the soul and God and suffering especially our confusion and grief when we find ourselves in dark places We often misinterpret times of darkness assuming we ve fabled and God has abandoned us Pitchford suggests that darkness is not a place of abandonment but a place of intimacy and a special call to a deeper relationship with the God who desires us Once we understand this we will not have to fear the dark and when the night closes in around us we can experience it as an embrace At the Crossroads John F. Desmond, 1997 The Living Church ,1947 Spanish Prose and Poetry Old and New ,1920 The Life of St. Teresa of Jesus ... Written by Herself. Translated from the Spanish by D. Lewis Saint Teresa (of Avila), 1870 George Eliot: Critical essays on individual works Stuart Hutchinson, 1996 Three Lectures on St. Theresa James Maurice Wilson, 1912 Transformations of Love Frances Harris, 2003-01-30 The most controversial episode in the life of the seventeenth century virtuoso and diarist John Evelyn has always been his passionate complex friendship with the Restoration maid of honour Margaret Blagge afterwards Mrs Godolphin His Life of Mrs Godolphin written after her early death in childbirth exalted the friendship and represented her as effectively a saint They saw their intense friendship as platonic spiritual mentoring Yet it is sometimes argued that what took place between them was actually a kind of seduction on Evelyn s part that far from trying to overcome her religious scruples about marriage to a young man she deeply loved as he afterwards claimed he secretly encouraged them in order to keep her in his power and even falsified some documents to conceal this from her husband whose patronage he sought Was Evelyn in his way as much a sexual predator as the Restoration rakes he professed to despise or does the episode provide a window on an unexplored aspect of early modern spirituality Undoubtedly there was more to the friendship than Evelyn publicly admitted but it remains a puzzle still to be interpreted This new study is based on Evelyn s papers now fully accessible for the first time and on important and hitherto unknown correspondence between Margaret Blagge and her future husband It situates the episode fully within the pre and post Reformation debates concerning marriage and friendship the latter seen by some as more a sacrament than marriage and the long traditions of platonic love and intense friendships between men and women in religious contexts Its diverse and vividly realized settings include the glamorous disreputable public household of the Restoration court and the great gardens of the day at once little worlds in microcosm and recreations of paradise on earth
