The Big Nickel:

The Big Nickel Calder Willingham, 1975 The Big Nickel Jim Szilva, Ted Szilva, 2015 The Big Nickel For 50 years it s been one of Canada s most recognizable landmarks Finally the complete story you ve always wanted to know is ready to be told Straight from the man who started it all Ted Szilva shares his most intimate and personal details about how this incredible monument came to be He s been referred to as the imagination the driving force the builder and the promoter of The Big Nickel This is the only authorized complete account of his truly inspirational journey A story of one man s dream and the obstacles he overcame learning his life s purpose along the way The Big Nickel Colin Clay, 2019-11-01 In the first volume of his autobiographical history Colin Clay shared the events of his early life from 1932 1952 as a schoolboy near London England before and during the second world war and later as a soldier in the Korean war His second volume covering 1952 1959 tells of his life as a student at university and seminary his marriage the births of two children his ordination and parish life near London and the family s emigration to Canada This third volume introduces the reader to their fresh experiences in a new country and Colin s pastoral and academic ministry in Sudbury Ontario The Big Nickel was a centennial project The family settled happily in the parish and social life of the city and Colin added teaching at Laurentian University to his responsibilities Colin Barbara with their four children also traveled extensively across the country and many summer camping adventures are to be found here Significant events that touched the world occurred in the 1960 s and a number of them such as the Cuban missile crisis are appropriately described in this book and will doubtless stir memories among many of its readers A Nation of Steel Thomas J. Misa, 1998-09-04 From the age of railroads through the building of the first battleships from the first skyscrapers to the dawning of the age of the automobile steelmakers proved central to American industry building and transportation In A Nation of Steel Thomas Misa explores the complex interactions between steelmaking and the rise of the industries that have characterized modern America A Nation of Steel offers a detailed and fascinating look at an industry that has had a profound impact on American life The Twenty-first Century African American Novel and the Critique of Whiteness in Everyday Life E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2016-05-25 This book examines the post 9 11 African American novels developing a new critical discourse on everyday discursive practices of whiteness The critique of everyday life in the racial context of post 9 11 American society is important in considering diverse forms of the lived experiences and subjectivities of black people in the novels They help us see that African American representations of the city have political significance in that the neo urban novel explores the possibility of a black dialogic communication to build a transformative social change Since the real power of Whiteness lies in its discursive power the book reveals the urgency to understand not only how whiteness works in everyday life in American society But it also explores how to cultivate new possibilities of configuring and performing Blackness differently as a response to the post 9 11 configurations of the culture of fear to produce new ways of interactional social relations that can eventually open up the space of critical awareness for white people to work against rather than reinforce discursive practices of White supremacy in everyday life This book explores how the multiple subjectivities and transformative acts of blackness can offer ways of subverting the discursive power of the white embodied practices What defines post 9 11 America as a nation that is consumed by the fear of racialized terrorists is its roots in the fear of uncontrollable Blackness as excess and ominous threat in the domestic terrain through which the ideology of White supremacy has constructed for governing through Whiteness African American urban novels published in the twenty first century respond to the discursive power of normative Whiteness that regulates black bodies selves and lives This book demonstrates how black people contest white dominant social spaces as sites of black criminality and exclusion in an attempt to re signify them as the sites of black transformative change through personal and grassroots activism through their performativity of Blackness as an agential identity formation in their interpersonal urban social encounters with white people Hence the vulnerable spaces of Whiteness in interracial urban encounters as it pervasively addresses those moments of transformative change enacted by Black characters in the face of the discursive practices of whiteness in the everyday life These novels celebrate multifarious representations of black individuals who are capable of using their agency to subvert White discursive power in finding ways in their personal and grassroots activism to transform the culture of fear that locates Blackness as such in an attempt to make a difference in the American society at large

Searching for John Ford Joseph McBride,2011-02-11 John Ford s classic films such as Stagecoach The Grapes of Wrath How Green Was My Valley The Quiet Man and The Searchers have earned him worldwide admiration as America s foremost filmmaker a director whose rich visual imagination conjures up indelible deeply moving images of our collective past Joseph

McBride's Searching for John Ford described as definitive by both the New York Times and the Irish Times surpasses all other biographies of the filmmaker in its depth, originality and insight. Encompassing and illuminating Ford's myriad complexities and contradictions, McBride traces the trajectory of Ford's life from his beginnings as Bull Feeney, the nearsighted football playing son of Irish immigrants in Portland, Maine, to his recognition after a long, controversial and much honored career as America's national mythmaker. Blending lively and penetrating analyses of Ford's films with an impeccably documented narrative of the historical and psychological contexts in which those films were created, McBride has at long last given John Ford the biography his stature demands.

Electrorheological Fluids And Magnetorheological Suspensions - Proceedings Of The 10th International Conference On Ermr 2006 Faramarz Gordaninejad, Olivia Graeve, Alan Fuchs, David York, 2007-10-17. ERMR 2006 included invited speakers, technical presentations, poster presentations and a student paper competition. At the conference banquet, Dr. David Carlson of Lord Corporation addressed the conference attendees and gave a stirring speech on the history of ER and MR fluids as well as current and future applications. A unique feature of the ERMR Conferences is that they comprehensively cover issues ranging from physics to chemistry to engineering applications of ER and MR materials, held in a general session to enhance the interaction between the scientists and engineers. The sessions in ERMR 2006 were organized based into two Symposia: a Materials and b Applications. Topics covered in the Materials Symposium included mechanisms, preparation and characterization of ER and MR materials. Topics covered in the Applications Symposium included ER and MR devices, control systems, system integration and applications. This structure was implemented in order to enable interaction between attending scientists and engineers in both the Materials Symposium and the Applications Symposium and to enhance the free flow of ideas and the potential collaborative research opportunities.

Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975. Sudbury C.M. Wallace, 1996-07-25. At the turn of the century, Sudbury was a town set on the railway line with a population of about 2,000. The community was smaller than Sault Ste Marie and Copper Cliff to the west and to the east, North Bay and Pembroke. Now, nearly 100 years later, Sudbury is the largest city in northeastern Ontario; it is also the centre of many governmental, business, social, educational, media, medical and other professional services in the region. Sudbury: Rail Town to Regional Capital, which honours the centenary of the community's incorporation as a town in 1893, analyses Sudbury decade by decade, describing the ongoing changes in the community and their impact on citizens. The book also examines the forces that shaped the city's destiny and argues that Sudbury is far more than a single industry town based on mining. Grounded in new research and written in an accessible style by a team of local scholars, the book, with numerous maps and photographs, will appeal to urban historians as well as the general reader both within and beyond the city.
