Wolfe,2021-04-30 Winner of the Ralph J Gleason Music Book Award Winner of the ASCAP Deems Taylor Award On November 28 1925 a white bearded man sat before one of Nashville radio station WSM s newfangled carbon microphones to play a few old time fiddle tunes Uncle Jimmy Thompson played on the air for an hour that night and throughout the region listeners at their old crystal sets suddenly perked up Back in Nashville the response at the offices of National Life Insurance Company which owned radio station WSM We Shield Millions was dramatic phone calls and telegrams poured into the station many of them making special requests It was not long before station manager George D Hay was besieged by pickers and fiddlers of every variety as well as hoedown bands singers and comedians all wanting their shot at the Saturday night airwaves We soon had a good natured riot on our hands Hay later recalled And thus the Opry was born Or so the story goes In truth the birth of the Opry was a far more complicated event than even Hay the solemn old Judge remembered The veteran performers of that era are all gone now but since the 1970s pioneering country music historian Charles K Wolfe has spent countless hours recording the oral history of the principals and their families and mining archival materials from the Country Music Foundation and elsewhere to understand just what those early days were like The story
