The Prize Winner of Defiance, Ohio Terry Ryan, 2005-09-02 The Prize Winner of Defiance Ohio introduces Evelyn Ryan an enterprising woman who kept poverty at bay with wit poetry and perfect prose during the contest era of the 1950s and 1960s Stepping back into a time when fledgling advertising agencies were active partners with consumers and everyday people saw possibility in every coupon Terry Ryan tells how her mother kept the family afloat by writing jingles and contest entries Mom's winning ways defied the Church her alcoholic husband and antiquated views of housewives To her flouting convention was a small price to pay when it came to securing a happy home for her six sons and four daughters Evelyn who would surely be a Madison Avenue executive if she were working today composed her jingles not in the boardroom but at the ironing board By entering contests wherever she found them TV radio newspapers direct mail ads Evelyn Ryan was able to win every appliance her family ever owned not to mention cars television sets bicycles watches a jukebox and even trips to New York Dallas and Switzerland But it wasn't just the winning that was miraculous it was the timing If a toaster died one was sure to arrive in the mail from a forgotten contest Days after the bank called in the second mortgage on the house a call came from the Dr Pepper company Evelyn was the grand prize winner in its national contest and had won enough to pay the bank Graced with a rare appreciation for life's inherent hilarity Evelyn turned every financial challenge into an opportunity for fun and profit From her frenetic supermarket shopping spree worth 3 000 today to her clever entries worthy of Erma Bombeck Dorothy Parker and Ogden Nash the story of this irrepressible woman whose talents reached far beyond her formidable verbal skills is told in The Prize Winner of Defiance Ohio with an infectious joy that shows how a winning spirit will triumph over the poverty of circumstance

Entrepreneurial Suicide Khalil Abdul-Karim, 2022-05-04 Entrepreneurial Suicide Khalil Abdul Karim Why are you not growing your business Why are you generating the same amount of money each year The answer is usually right in the mirror This book challenges entrepreneurs and business owners to look within themselves and seek out what is preventing them from achieving continued success The premise of this book is that the reader has already experienced some level of success as a business owner Your business is profitable You have a nice house A couple of cars And your family and friends respect you as a self made successful business owner Let's say your business generates 5 million a year in revenue and you've been generating this amount for the past three years Let's compare that to Corporate America and up the stakes so that the point hits home If a CEO for a Fortune 500 company generated revenues of 50 million for three consecutive years he or she would be fired Reason being zero profit Therefore the shareholders would be both disappointed and concerned They would cite the CEO as being a poor manager and leader resulting in dismissal As a small business owner you don't have that much pressure However Entrepreneurial Suicide: The Birth Life and Death of a Business Owner helps to identify common traits within us that hold us back Whether it be ego emotion poor communication skills lack of drive or poor decision making skills this book will help its reader uncover what the root problem is and how to overcome it As the author I have written this book based on over two decades of working with entrepreneurs and business owners both as an entrepreneur and as a corporate professional I have never understood how talented well educated and self educated people hold their own selves back It's the most bizarre thing to watch It is also what motivated me to write this book To help kick start the process of looking in the mirror and breaking out of the self destructive behaviors that are preventing you from reaching bigger and more rewarding goals
