The Bigger They Come A. A. Fair, Erle Stanley Gardner, 1952 Meet Donald Lam he s a private detective or at least he is by the end of the book A more unlikely looking P I you ll never meet as he is constantly reminded At 5 and a half feet tall and 127 pounds he s simply not intimidating at all But what he lacks in brawn he more than makes up for in brains a fact that is not lost on his new employer Bertha Cool of the B L Cool Agency was sharp enough to spot Now Bertha Cool is also not the most likely head figure of a detective agency although physically impressive she most certainly is She s sixty something with grey hair sparkling eyes and a grandmotherly expression She weighs in at over 300 pounds and is described as having the majesty of a snow capped mountain and the assurance of a steamroller When Lam gets the job he is put to work immediately because if there s one thing Bertha Cool believes in it s getting her money s worth His first job is to serve divorce papers on Morgan Birks husband of Sandra Birks who claims he has been abusing her It seems a straightforward enough job and it is But it s only after the papers have been served that the real fireworks begin It s in the moments of confusion that quickly follow a seemingly successful job that Lam s genius is uncovered as he works his way through deduction after deduction and then comes up with a brilliant solution that is as impressive in its cunning as it is in its simplicity As the first book of a series of 29 it provides a terrific start combining an interesting duo with a clever mystery With the promise of many more such stories to follow it s bound to leave you begging for more
