

Patria mía terrestre y ciega como nacidos aguijones de la arena, para tí toda la fundación de mi alma, para tí los perpetuos párpados de mi sangre, para tí de regreso mi plato de amapolas.

*Dame de noche, en medio de las plantas terrestres la huraña rosa de rocío que duerme en tu bandera, dame de luna o tierra tu pan espolvoreado con tu temible sangre oscura bajo tu luz de arena no hay muertos, sino largos ciclos de sal, azules

purview the full seventeenth century 1603 1700 this volume re draws the existing literary historical map and expands upon recent rethinking of the canon Placing the revolutionary years at the centre of a century of poetic transformation and putting the Restoration back into the seventeenth century the volume registers the transformative effects on poetic forms of a century of social political and religious upheaval It considers the achievements of a number of women poets not yet fully integrated into traditional literary histories It assimilates the vibrant literature of the English Revolution to what came before and after registering its long term impact It traces the development of print culture and of the literary marketplace alongside the continued circulation of poetry in manuscript It places John Milton Andrew Marvell Margaret Cavendish and Katherine Philips and other mid century poets into the full century of specifically literary development It traces continuity and change imitation and innovation in the full century trajectory of such poetic genres as sonnet elegy satire georgic epigram ode devotional lyric and epic The volume s attention to poetic form builds on the current upswing in historicist formalism allowing a close focus on poetry as an intensely aesthetic and social literary mode Designed for maximum classroom utility the organization is both thematic and in the authors section chronological After a comprehensive Introduction organizational sections focus on Transitions Materiality Production and Circulation Poetics and Form Genres and Poets English

Translations Alexander Chalmers, 1810 The Oxford History of Poetry in English Julia Boffey, Anthony Stockwell Garfield Edwards, 2023 This volume explores a range of English verse from 1400 to 1500 It studies specific genres and modes of fifteenth century verse the contexts for its creation the material forms of its transmission and some of its individual practitioners Transnationalism and Translation in Modern Chinese, English, French and Japanese Literatures

Ryan Johnson, 2020-12-15 The theory of literary worlds has become increasingly important in comparative and world literatures But how are the often contradictory elements of Eastern and Western literatures to cohere in the new worlds such contact creates Drawing on the latest work in philosophical logic and analytic Asian philosophy this monograph proposes a new model of literary worlds that is best suited to comparative literature dealing with Western and East Asian traditions Unlike much discussion of world literature anchored in North American traditions featured here is the transnational work of artists philosophers and poets writing in English French Japanese and Mandarin in the twentieth century Rather than imposing sharp borders this book suggests that vague boundaries link Eastern and Western literary works and traditions and that degrees of distance can better help us to see the multiple dimensions that both distinguish and join together literary worlds East and West As such it enables us to grasp not only how East Asian and Western writers translate one another s works into their own languages and traditions but also how modern writers East and West modify their own traditions in order to make them fit in the new constellation of literary worlds brought about by the complex flow of literary information across twentieth century Eurasia Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation Robin Healey, 2019-03-14

Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature
