The Birth Of Pleasure A New Map Of Love:

The Birth of Pleasure Carol Gilligan, 2003-08-12 The author of the classic In a Different Voice offers a brilliant provocative book about love that has powerful implications for the way we live and love today Compelling A thrilling new paradigm The Times Literary Supplement Carol Gilligan whose In a Different Voice revolutionized the study of human psychology now asks Why is love so often associated with tragedy Why are our experiences of pleasure so often shadowed by loss And can we change these patterns Gilligan observes children at play and adult couples in therapy and discovers that the roots of a more hopeful view of love are all around us She finds evidence in new psychological research and traces a path leading from the myth of Psyche and Cupid through Shakespeare's plays and Freud's case histories to Anne Frank's diaries and contemporary novels

A Phenomenology of Love and Hate Peter Hadreas, 2016-03-23 Using phenomenology to uncover the implicit logic in personal love sexual love and hatred Peter Hadreas provides new insights into the uniqueness of the beloved and offers fresh explanations for some of the worst outbreaks of violence and hatred in modern times Topics discussed include the value and subjectivity of personal love nudity and the temporality of sexual love the connection between personal sexual love and the incest taboo the development of group focused hatred from individual focused hatred and prejudicial discrimination The work encompasses analysis of philosophers and writers from ancient times through to the present day and examines such episodes as the Oklahoma City Federal Building bombing and the Columbine High School massacre

You Don't Really Know Me Terri Apter, 2015-05-27 Understand what your teenage daughter really means and learn to use your arguments to strengthen your bond with her Mothers and teenage daughters argue more than any other child parent pair on average every two and a half days These quarrels Terri Apter shows are attempts to negotiate changes in a relationship that is valued by both mothers and daughters A daughter often feels her mother doesn't know or understand her and by fighting hopes to force her mother into a new awareness of who she really is how she has changed and what she is now capable of doing and understanding But mothers often misinterpret their daughter's outbursts as signs of rejection and they may pull back feeling hurt and confused Through case studies and conversations between mothers and daughters Apter shows mothers how to interpret the meanings behind a daughter's angry words and how to emerge from arguments with a new closeness

Living on the Other Side Lisa M. Hess, 2025-05-15 Living on the Other Side recounts and aims to redress the unspoken largely unconscious abandonment of the Feminine in ecclesial and academic settings through an economic trinity of voices a feminist with a forgiveness problem a conscious feminine theologian serving in academic and ecclesial environments unconsciously hostile to the Feminine and a preacher's wife coming to voice about the realities of congregational Christianity held redemptively in covenantal love Fruit of decades in theological education these pages demonstrate the necessity of sacred bewilderment for deepening spiritual maturity the purposes of rage becoming holy when able to acknowledge its limitation and an unexpected freedom that arises when forgiveness finds us in faith renewed in the Body of Humanity Current and prospective students in theology and religion seasoned pastors and willing congregations will find a compelling narrative and theological sense making of one woman's life in the Spirit disrupted so to become regrounded in a renewed and renewing trinitarianism arising out of historic Christian traditions

Are You Not a Man of God? Tova Hartman, Charlie Buckholtz, 2014-04 Are You Not a Man of God challenges the accepted readings of several iconic supporting characters from canonical stories of Jewish tradition These characters have been appropriated throughout history to represent and reinforce central cultural values the binding of Isaac and the religious value of sacrificing relationship for a higher purpose the biblical Hannah appropriated by the rabbis as an archetype of the spirit and practice of prayer the Talmudic Beruriah and the significance of women's learning and knowledge and the struggle for intellectual autonomy of the rabbis of the Talmudic story known by its tag line It is not in heaven Tova Hartman and Charlie Buckholtz make use of religious psychological philosophical and literary perspectives to bring these characters to life in their multiple incarnations examining the varied symbolic uses to which they have been put and their cultural impact These are all texts that have been studied widely and characters that are well known This study shows however that the dominant interpretations have served to mask darker more insightful and ultimately more critical dimensions of these important figures Hartman and Buckholtz discover muted voices of personal betrayal and criticism that resonate as damning social critiques of the rabbis themselves These critiques often highlight the ways in which cultural authorities use and abuse their power and the implications of these systemic moral failings for their legitimacy as communal leaders In these voices of social criticism the rabbis evince an awareness of their own vulnerability to such abuses and failings as well as their hurtful marginalizing effects on members of less powerful social groups

Erich Fromm and the Quest for Solidarity argues that Fromm s humanistic ethics provides a framework for the analysis of alienation in affluent societies and his exploration of the social forces capable of challenging that alienation It examines his work on authoritarianism the experience of work the struggle against patriarchy the dangers of consumerism and the manipulation of needs the urgent need to revive democracy and the challenge of the emerging one world Never losing sight of the ancient dream of human solidarity Fromm s explicitly ethical approach exerts a compelling relevance to a range of issues in contemporary social and political theory Re-visioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Pamela Sue Anderson,2017-10-24 A passion for justice and truth motivates the bold challenge of Revisioning Gender in Philosophy of Religion Unearthing the ways in which the myths of Christian patriarchy have historically inhibited and prohibited women from thinking and writing their own ideas this book lays fresh ground for re visioning the epistemic practices of philosophers Pamela Sue Anderson seeks both to draw out the salient threads in the gendering of philosophy of religion as it has been practiced and to re vision gender for philosophy today The arguments put forth by contemporary philosophers of religion concerning human and divine attributes are epistemically located yet the motivation to recognize this locatedness has to come from a concern for justice This book presents invaluable new perspectives on the philosopher s ever increasing awareness of his or her own locatedness on the gender often unwittingly given to God the ineffability in both analytic and Continental philosophy the still critical role of reason in the field the aims of a feminist philosophy of religion the roles of beauty and justice the vision of love and reason and a gendering which opens philosophy of religion up to diversity

concerned about the future of democracy in the US and elsewhere This book offers a bold and original thesis and explains why feminism joining men and women is the key to resistance Holding a Mirror up to Nature James Gilligan, David A.J. Richards, 2021-12-02 Shakespeare reveals the causes and consequences of violence more profoundly than any social or behavioural scientist has ever done Rebels with a Cause Niobe Way, 2024-07-09 From NYU professor of developmental psychology Niobe Way an in depth exploration about what boys and young men teach us about themselves us and the toxic culture we have created one in which we value money over people toys over human connection and academic achievement over kindness Based on her longitudinal and mixed method research over thirty five years Rebels with a Cause is a true call to action to change the culture so that we stop the vicious cycle of violence and blame Dr Niobe Way has spent her career researching social and emotional development and finds that boys and young men desperately want and need the same thing as everyone else close friendships Yet they and we grow up in a stereotyped boy culture one that devalues and mocks those relationships rather than recognizing that they re necessary for human survival In Rebels with a Cause Way takes her message one step beyond her previous book Deep Secrets which was the inspiration for an Oscar nominated film Close to reveal how these rebels as she calls the boys and young men in her research and in her classrooms teach us about their and our crisis of connection evidence of which is visible in our soaring rates of depression anxiety loneliness suicide and mass violence They also teach us about the solutions to the crisis which is to care to listen with curiosity and to take individual and collective responsibility for the damage we have done to them to ourselves and to the world around us Way provides us not only with data driven insight into the roots and consequences of this crisis of connection but also offers us concrete and empirically tested strategies for creating a culture that better aligns with our human nature and our human needs Her book reminds us that it s not the rebels who cause the troubles of the world it s the troubles that cause the rebels The time to listen to and act on what young rebels have been telling us for almost a century is now On Matricide Amber Jacobs, 2007-09-04 Despite advances in feminism the law of the father remains the dominant model of Western psychological and cultural analysis and the law of the mother continues to exist as an underdeveloped and marginal concept In her radical rereading of the Greek myth Oresteia Amber Jacobs hopes to rectify the occlusion of the mother and reinforce her role as an active agent in the laws that determine and reinforce our cultural organization According to Greek myth Metis Athena s mother was Zeus s first wife Zeus swallowed Metis to prevent her from bearing children who would overthrow him Nevertheless Metis bore Zeus a child Athena who sprang forth fully formed from his head In Aeschylus s Oresteia Athena s motherless status functions as a crucial justification for absolving Orestes of the crime of matricide In his defense of Orestes Zeus argues that the father is more important than the mother using Athena s motherless birth as an example Conducting a close reading of critical works on Aeschylus s text Jacobs reveals that psychoanalytic theorists have unwittingly reproduced the denial of Metis in their own critiques This repression which can be found in the work of Sigmund Freud and Melanie

Klein as well as in the work of more contemporary theorists such as Andr  Green and Luce Irigaray has resulted in both an incomplete analysis of Oresteia and an inability to account for the fantasies and unconscious processes that fall outside the oedipal patricidal paradigm By bringing the story of Athena s mother Metis to the forefront Jacobs challenges the primacy of the Oedipus myth in Western culture and psychoanalysis and introduces a bold new theory of matricide and maternal law She finds that the Metis myth exists in cryptic forms within Aeschylus s text uncovering what she terms the latent content of the Oresteian myth and argues that the occlusion of the law of the mother is proof of the patriarchal structures underlying our contemporary social and psychic realities Jacobs s work not only provides new insight into the Oresteian trilogy but also advances a postpatriarchal model of the symbolic order that has strong ramifications for psychoanalysis feminism and theories of representation as well as for clinical practice and epistemology

The Annual of Psychoanalysis, V. 32 Jerome A. Winer, James W. Anderson, 2013-05-13 Psychoanalysis and Women Volume 32 of The Annual of Psychoanalysis is a stunning reprise on theoretical developmental and clinical issues that have engaged analysts from Freud on It begins with clinical contributions by Joyce McDougall and Lynne Layton two theorists at the forefront of clinical work with women Jessica Benjamin Julia Kristeva and Ethel Spector Person from their respective vantage points all engage the issue of passivity which Freud tended to equate with femininity Employing a self psychological framework Christine Kieffer returns to the Oedipus complex and sheds new light on the typically Pyrrhic oedipal victory of little girls Section III broadens the historical context of contemporary theorizing about women by offering the personal reminiscences of Nancy Chodorow Carol Gilligan Brenda Solomon and Malkah Notman A final section dedicated to women who shared psychoanalysis features historical essays on Ida Bauer Freud s Dora Anna Freud Dorothy Burlingham Edith Jacobson and Therese Benedek along with Linda Hopkins s revealing interview of Marion Milner Of special note is Marian Tolpin s examination of three women Bauer Helene Deutch and Anna Freud who helped shape Freud s notion of the female castration complex and Elisabeth Young Bruehl s exploration of how two women Anna Freud and Dorothy Burlingham developed parent infant observation Psychoanalysis and Women is an extraordinary chronicle of the distance traveled since Freud characterized women s sexual life as the dark continent The contributors vitalize a half century of theory with the lessons of biography and they broaden clinical sensibilities by drawing on recent developmental gender related and socio psychological research In doing so they attest to the ongoing reconfiguration of Freud s dark continent and show the psychoanalytic psychology of women to be very much a revolution in progress
