The Black Camp:

The Black Camp Lou Cameron,1963 Black Camp 21 Bill Jones,2018-10-04 Shortlisted for the McIlvanney Scottish Crime Debut Prize All over Britain POW camps are filling up with defeated German soldiers Every day thousands more pour in on ships from France But only the most dangerous are sent to Camp 21 black prisoners SS diehards who ve sworn death before surrender Nothing will stop their war unless it s a bullet As one fanatic plots a mass breakout and glorious march on London Max Hartmann dreams of the oath he pledged to the teenage bride he scarcely knows and the child he s never met Where do his loyalties really lie To Hitler or to the life he left behind in the bombed ruins of his homeland Beneath the wintry mountains in the hell of Black Camp 21 suspicion and fear swirl around like the endless snow And while the Reich crumbles and his brutal companions plan their assault Max s toughest battle is only just beginning Inspired by terrifying actual events Black Camp 21 takes readers on a gut wrenching journey from the battlefields of France to its shocking climax in a camp which still stands today The Black Police A. Legendary Boxing Trainer George Washington Kenneth Washington,2022-08-24 As people of color we arrived on a nightmare and never stop praying for the dream George did not fret because of any evildoers neither envious against the workers of iniquities asking God to give him grace to accept with serenity of the things that cannot be changed courage to change the things that should be changed and the wisdom to distinguish the one from the other keeping God first as the head of his life Showing how the God of his weary years the God of his silent tears brought his family thus far He proudly served his county in World War II and the Korean War trying to make a difference for his life and his family s lives always striving for perfection Kenneth Washington shares his experiences knowledge and understanding of being raised by this warrior trainer father mentor man of God friend awesome person and legend Legendary Boxing Trainer George Washington is a great read it will guide you to living life on life s terms and walking by faith not by sight It takes you from childhood to manhood basic training to basic boxing skills leadership and the dedicated life of Brother George Washington Prisoners of the Home Front Martin F. Auger, 2005 Little is known of the internment of German prisoners of war civilians and merchant seamen on Canadian soil during the Second World War In the midst of the most destructive conflict in human history almost 40 000 Germans were detained in twenty five permanent internment camps and dozens of smaller work camps located across Canada Five of these permanent camps were located on the southern shores of the St Lawrence River at Farnham Grande Ligne Ile aux Noix Sherbrooke and Sorel in the province of Quebec Martin Auger s book provides a fascinating insight into the internment operation in southern Quebec The study examines the organization and day to day affairs of internment camps and offers an in depth analysis of the experience of the German prisoners who inhabited these camps The author shows how the pressures of internment such as restricted mobility sexual deprivation social alienation and the lack of material comfort created important psychological and physical strains on inmates In response Canadian authorities introduced labour projects and educational programs to uphold morale to thwart internal turmoil and to prevent escapes These initiatives also aimed to expose German prisoners to the values of a democratic society and prepare their postwar reintegration The author concludes that Canada abided with the provisions of the Geneva Convention and that its treatment of German prisoners was humane Prisoners of the Home Front sheds light on life behind Canadian barbed wire The study fills an important void in our knowledge of the Canadian home front during the Second World War and furthers our understanding of the human experience in times of war Writing the Nation Cynthia Vanden Driesen, 2009-01-01 The time for new approaches to White s work is overdue Central to the present study are Edward Said s ideas about the role of the intellectual and the writer of speaking truth to power and also the importance of tracing the affiliations of a text and its embeddedness in the world This approach is not incompatible with Jung s theory of the great artist and his capacity to answer the deep seated psychic needs of his people White s work has contributed in many different ways to the writing of the nation The spiritual needs of a young nation such as Australia must also comprehend its continual urge towards self definition Explored here is one important aspect of that challenge white Australia s dealings with the indigenous people of the land tracing the significance of the Aboriginal presence in three texts selected from the oeuvre of Patrick White Voss 1957 Riders in the Chariot 1961 and A Fringe of Leaves 1976 Each of these texts interrogates European culture's denigration of the non European Other as embedded in the discourse of orientalism One central merit of White's commanding perspective is the constant close attention he pays to European hubris and to the paramount autonomy of indigenous culture There is evidence even of a project which can be articulated as a search for the possibility of white indigeneity the potential for the white settler's belonging within the land as does the indigene

Army Reserve Magazine, 1989 Emily Hobhouse and the Reports on the Concentration Camps during the Boer War, 1899-1902 Birgit Seibold, 2011-11-01 The black spot the one very black spot in the picture is the frightful mortality in the Concentration Camps I entirely agree with you in thinking that while a hundred explanations may be offered and a hundred excuses made they do not really amount to any adequate defence I should much prefer to say at once so far as the Civil authorities are concerned that we were suddenly confronted with a problem not of our making with which it was beyond our power properly to grapple And no doubt its vastness was not realised soon enough It was not till six weeks or two months ago that it dawned on me personally I cannot speak for others that the enormous mortality was not merely incidental to the first formation of the camps and the sudden inrush of thousands of people already sick and starving but was going to continue The fact that it continues is no doubt a condemnation of the Camp system The whole thing I think now has been a mistake Alfred Milner to Joseph Chamberlain December 7th 1901 The British scorched earth policy during the last phase of the Anglo Boer War of 1899-1902 led to the burning of farms the destruction of homesteads harvests and livestock and to the internment of the civil population in the so called concentration camps There people mainly women and children died of malnutrition and diseases such as measles pneumonia and typhoid The death rate in the camps was so high nearly 28 000 white Boers succumbed that the English population renowned for its gallantry and chivalry was consternated Lloyd George blamed his government for its policy of extermination Campbell Bannerman spoke of methods of barbarism and philanthropic institutions protested led by Emily Hobhouse who was the first civilian to investigate the conditions of the camps The government reacted and sent a ladies commission under the leadership of Millicent Garrett Fawcett to South Africa Birgit Seibold's study is the first to compare the unofficial and the official report on the camps and to give an insight into conditions in each of the thirty three white concentration camps Based on first hand research among the Hobhouse manuscripts this book is both scholarly and compulsively readable

War Epidemics Matthew Smallman-Raynor, Andrew Cliff, 2004-06-17 Down the ages war epidemics have decimated the fighting strength of armies caused the suspension and cancellation of military operations and have brought havoc to the civil populations of belligerent and non belligerent states alike This book examines the historical occurrence and geographical spread of infectious diseases in association with past wars It addresses an intrinsically geographical question how are the spatial dynamics of epidemics influenced by military operations and the directives of war

The term historical geography in the title indicates the authors primary concern with qualitative analyses of archival source materials over a 150 year time period from 1850 and this is combined with quantitative analyses less frequently associated with historical studies Written from the viewpoints of historical geography epidemiology and spatial analysis this book examines in four parts the historical occurrence and geographical spread of infectious diseases in association with wars Part I War and Disease surveys war disease associations from early times to 1850 Part II Temporal Trends studies time trends since 1850 Part III A Regional Pattern of War Epidemics examines grand themes in the war disease complex Part IV Prospects considers a series of war related issues of epidemiological significance in the twenty first century

Mississippi Bishop William Henry Elder and the Civil War Ryan Starrett ,2019 Conquest War Famine Death During the Civil War all Four Horsemen circled the flock of William Henry Elder the third bishop of Natchez Elder was a hopeful unionist turned secessionist whose diocese encompassed the entirety of Mississippi Consequently he witnessed many of the pivotal moments of the Civil War the capitulation of Natchez the Siege of Vicksburg the destruction of Jackson and the overall desolation of a state And in the midst of the conflict Bishop Elder went about his daily duties of baptizing teaching praying preaching performing marriages confirming comforting and burying the dead Join author Ryan Starrett on this moving account of Elder and the heroics of this wartime bishop

Bound Labor in the Turpentine Belt Thomas Aiello,2024-11-19 In this book Thomas Aiello takes a close look at the Deep South s dependence on systems of bound labor during the post Reconstruction era through the story of a labor camp in Georgia drawing attention to the injustices and abuses of misdemeanor convict leasing

Rhetorics of empire Martin Thomas,Richard Toye,2017-08-31 Stirring language and appeals to collective action were integral to the battles fought to defend empires and to destroy them These wars of words used rhetoric to make their case That rhetoric is the subject of this collection of essays exploring the arguments fought over empire in a wide variety of geographic political social and cultural contexts Why did imperialist language remain so pervasive in Britain France and elsewhere throughout much of the twentieth century What rhetorical devices did political leaders administrators investors and lobbyists use to justify colonial domination before domestic and foreign audiences How far did their colonial opponents mobilize a different rhetoric of rights and freedoms to challenge them These questions are at the heart of this collection Essays range from Theodore Roosevelt s articulation of American imperialism in the early 1900s to the rhetorical battles surrounding European decolonization in the late twentieth century

We Fought the Road Christine McClure,Dennis McClure,2017-10-15 We Fought the Road is the story of the building of the Alaska Canada Highway during World War II More than one third of the 10 607 builders were black thought to be incapable of performing on a war front by many of their white commanding officers Their task which required punching through wilderness on a route blocked by the Rocky Mountains and deadly permafrost during the worst winter on record has been likened to the building of the Panama Canal Unlike most accounts that focus on the road s military planners We Fought the Road is boots on the ground and often personal based in part on letters from the Three Cent Romance the successful courtship via mail discovered in the authors family papers

The History of Discovery in Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand William Howitt,1865 The History of Discovery in Australia, Tasmania, and New Zealand William Howitt,2011-06-23 First published in 1865 this two volume history describes the European exploration and settlement of Australia and New Zealand The New Deal's Forest Army Benjamin F.

Alexander,2018-02-01 How the Civilian Conservation Corps constructed rejuvenated and protected American forests and parks at the height of the Great Depression Propelled by the unprecedented poverty of the Great Depression President Franklin D Roosevelt established an array of massive public works programs designed to provide direct relief to America s poor and unemployed The New Deal s most tangible legacy may be the Civilian Conservation Corps s network of parks national forests scenic roadways and picnic shelters that still mark the country s landscape CCC enrollees most of them unmarried young men lived in camps run by the Army and worked hard for wages most of which they had to send home to their families to preserve America s natural treasures In The New Deal s Forest Army Benjamin F Alexander chronicles how the corps came about the process applicants went through to get in and what jobs they actually did He also explains how the camps and the work sites were run how enrollees spent their leisure time and how World War II brought the CCC to its end Connecting the story of the CCC with the Roosevelt administration s larger initiatives Alexander describes how FDR s policies constituted a mixed blessing for African Americans who even while singled out for harsh treatment benefited enough from the New Deal to become an increasingly strong part of the electorate behind the Democratic Party The CCC was the only large scale employment program whose existence FDR foreshadowed in speeches during the 1932 campaign and the dearest to his heart throughout the decade that it lasted Alexander reveals how the work itself left a lasting imprint on the country s terrain as the enrollees planted trees fought forest fires landscaped public parks restored historic battlegrounds and constructed dams and terraces to prevent floods A uniquely detailed exploration of life in the CCC The New Deal s Forest Army compellingly demonstrates how one New Deal program changed America and gave birth to both contemporary forestry and the modern environmental movement Paddy Cahill of Oenpelli Derek John Mulvaney,2004 Paddy Cahill of Oenpelli is the story of a unique twentieth century Territorian At times a racehorse owner and jockey a buffalo hunter and pastoralist Paddy Cahills contribution to Northern Territory life also includes farming on his Oenpelli property Here he experimented in growing a range of fruit and vegetables while employing Aboriginal workers farming and helping run the property A colourful writer his letters to Baldwin Spencer from which Spencer drew much information for his own now famous writings form the basis for this examination of a rugged frontiersman including his relationship with the Northern Territory Aboriginal peoples their languages and culture
