Cook, 2021-11-30 A Kildevil Cove Murder Mystery They say it never rains but it pours Royal Newfoundland Constabulary Inspector Danny Quirke would have to agree First someone murders a vulnerable Kildevil Cove man and dumps him in an abandoned well Then the body of a sex trafficking victim washes up on a nearby beach Danny has to get to the bottom of both deaths but with few leads and little support from his superiors he's spinning his wheels in a mud pit of a case Vital resources go missing witnesses disappear and suspects proliferate Each step toward the truth brings him two steps back Help comes in the form of Scottish investigator Martin Belshawe but he may not be who he says he is and someone in the highest echelons of the Newfoundland Constabulary is lying to Danny Even Danny's lover Tadhg Heaney whom he looks to for emotional support seems to know more than he should about the shady characters who keep popping up in the investigation With time running out Danny must decide who if anyone he can trust before the sex traffickers claim their next victims But on an island there's no escaping the tide An Island in the Sky Al Pittman, 2003 This compilation from one of Canada's most acclaimed writers spans four decades and six volumes Often bittersweet and occasionally enigmatic these poems represent Pittman's infinite talent Targeted at a wide circle of readers this book gives poetry back to the people where it truly belongs

Gun Dogs James Langer, 2009-04-01 What is a Gun Dog An uncontrolled creature purportedly under our control These poems strain at the lead The torque is felt in the line the verb the wild thinking in metaphor The maturity of James Langer's vision reveals itself here in the cumulative effect of his rhetoric He won't land on his quarry Love Forgiveness Respect of Place Clarity of Memory He will however attain wisdom within these poems a measured equanimity that can be traced back to the Stoics These lines are like those of Les Murray Seamus Heaney Derek Walcott and Robin Robertson Here is a debut from a genuine fully formed talent whose poems reach the sublime

The Blasty Bough Clyde Rose, 1976-01-01 A Place to Belong Gerald L. Pocius, 2000 A Place to Belong is a profusely illustrated intimate contemporary portrait of Calvert a three hundred year old fishing village on Newfoundland's southern shore Often using its residents own words Gerald Pocius describes in detail the continual creative encounters between past and present between individual and community that make up daily life in Calvert By accepted standards of tradition Calvert's culture is declining Old structures are regularly torn down or renovated antique household items are replaced with modern conveniences Pocius argues however that the tangible expressions of a culture can be misleading Calvert's essence is not in the things owned and used by its residents but in the spaces in which those things abide and in the attitudes values and obligations that delineate the order of those spaces From woodlands water and fields to yards gardens and homes Calvert's physical and social structure is governed by shared concerns about the community's livelihood and welfare As a resident of Calvert puts it Where you're working in the same space with people you know it's just not practical to be falling out with everyone The sense of community that pervades Calvert is best exemplified by its annual draw for fishing berths Because productivity varies among offshore fishing grounds there is no private ownership of fishing rights Rather a lottery instituted in 1919 ensures each family the same chances for periodic access to the best fishing berths The draw continues until all the fishing berths are awarded but it is common for a family to opt out once they have drawn enough good berths There are also instances of the most successful fishing operations sharing their catches From his observations of Calvert's people at work and leisure Pocius provides evidence to confirm the viability and durability of their culture He reveals that standard assumptions about culture are inadequate particularly those based on the primacy of artefacts and on sharp dichotomies between tradition and modernity Calvert he shows belies our notion that declining cultural values and social segmentation are unavoidable side effects of modernisation and a rise in material well being A Place to Belong will promote a constructive scepticism about the ways we perceive and interpret cultures and most important will remind us of what it really means to belong to a place

Dark Mire J.S. Cook, 2021-03-30 A Kildevil Cove Murder Mystery You never know what trouble will rise from the bog When the body of an unidentified woman is found in a Newfoundland bog Inspector Danny Quirke must scramble his team of investigators to find her killer But what initially seems like a straightforward case soon becomes mired in a tangled web of lies and deliberate obfuscation With the strange mutilation of the body one eye gouged out completely evidence seems to lead to a fringe religious group with bizarre beliefs But while the pathologist indicates mushroom poisoning as the cause of death Danny thinks circumstances point to something more sinister especially when he begins to receive anonymous messages with links to horrific pictures of damaged human eyes Three more bodies join the first with seemingly nothing to link them but a little girl in a yellow party dress who flits in and out of the mystery like a creature from the old legends Then an old friend from his childhood reappears and Danny is forced to confront uncomfortable truths about his own nearest and dearest On an island
