The Blockade Busters:

The Blockade Busters Ralph Barker,1976 The Blockade Busters Ralph Barker,2005-05-19 A detailed history of three British World War II blockade runs to get vital supplies from Sweden past the Germans The Blockade Busters recounts one of the greatest sea stories of World War II It is the story of how George Binney a thirty nine year old civilian working in neutral Sweden when Norway was overrun by the Germans in 1940 He set about running vital cargoes of Swedish ball bearings and special steels to Britain through the blockaded Skagerrak where German air strength was dominant and where the Royal Navy dare not trespass Despite Admiralty gloom and in the face of political objections that were overcome by Binney s persistence five ships carrying a year s supply of valuable materials for the expanding British war industries were successfully sailed to Britain in January 1941 The following attempt was not as successful and ended when six ships were sunk or scuttled But then came the saga of the Little Ships the motor gunboats flying the Red Duster that operated out of the Humber to and from the Swedish coast in the winter of 1943 44 defying the strengthened German defences and the wrath of severe weather

Blockade Busters Ralph Barker,2005 Recounts one of the greatest sea stories of World War II It is the story of how George Binney a 39 year old civilian working in neutral Sweden when Norway was overrun by the Germans in 1940 set about running vital cargoes of Swedish ball bearings and special steels to Britain through the blockaded Skagerrak where German air strength was dominant and where the Royal Navy dare not trespass Despite Admiralty gloom and in the face of political objections that were overcome by Binney s persistence five ships carrying a year s supply of valuable materials for the expanding British war industries were successfully sailed to Britain in January 1941 A following attempt was not as successful and ended when six ships were sunk or scuttled But then came the saga of the Little Ships the motor gunboats flying the Red Duster that operated out of the Humber to and from the Swedish coast in the winter of 1943 44 defying the strengthened German defenses and the wrath of severe weather

The Cockleshell Raid Ken Ford,2011-12-20 On the night of December 7 1942 five canoes were launched off the mouth of the Gironde river each containing a pair of British commandoes tasked with slipping into the port of Bordeaux and destroying as many of the merchant ships as possible Only two of the canoes made it to the target but it was enough Five enemy ships were badly damaged in the attack It then became a game of cat and mouse for the surviving commandoes in their attempt to get back to Britain Some of the men made it to Gibraltar others were caught and executed Author Ken Ford gives a blow by blow account of one of the most daring raids of World War II which badly upset the flow of material into Germany and which gave the British public a much needed victory

nuclear submarine learn what a submariner's daily life is like discover what we may find in the vast unexplored regions of the ocean and much much more Discover the secret underwater world of submarines and submersibles From Servants of the Empire to Everyday Heroes Tobias Harper, 2020-02-13 In the twentieth century the British Crown appointed around a hundred thousand people military and civilian in Britain and the British Empire to honours and titles For outsiders and sometimes recipients too these jumbles of letters are tantalizingly confusing OM MBE GCVO CH KB or CBE Throughout the century this system expanded to include different kinds of people while also shrinking in its imperial scope with the declining empire Through these dual processes this profoundly hierarchical system underwent a seemingly counter intuitive change it democratized Why and how did the British government change this system And how did its various publics respond to it This study addresses these questions directly by looking at the history of the honours system in the wider context of the major historical changes in Britain and the British Empire in the twentieth century In particular it looks at the evolution of this hierarchical deferential system amidst democratization and decolonization It focuses on the system's largest and most important components the Order of the British Empire the Knight Bachelor and the lower ranks of other Orders By creatively analysing the politics and administration of the system alongside popular responses to it in diaries letters newspapers and memoirs Tobias Harper shows the many different meanings that honours took on for the establishment dissidents and recipients He also shows the ways in which the system succeeded and failed to order and bring together divided societies

Ice Steel and Fire Linda Parker, 2013-07-19 The generation that reached maturity in the inter war years had grown up in the shadow of the heroic age of Polar exploration and the sacrifices of a generation in the Great War Their own adventures were to prove as astonishing and heroic as those of a previous generation The members of the British Arctic air route expedition to Greenland including Martin Lindsay Quintin Riley and Freddie Spencer Chapman were to pioneer the weather research methods necessary for Trans Atlantic Flight The university expeditions to Spitsbergen led by George Binney in the 1920s and Sandy Glen in the 1930s traversed and surveyed unexplored ground and contributed to developments in polar flight and radar Glen's expeditions added to the knowledge of Arctic conditions by over wintering Other pre war exploits of these adventurers included a voyage around the world the wrong way and participation in the British Graham Land Antarctic expedition Peter Fleming brother to the creator of James Bond Ian Fleming spent the 1930s exploring Brazil China and Tartary Fleming's exploits are recounted in detail in this book The character skills and endurance obtained in these years set these adventurers and explorers apart as men who were to play a distinguished and heroic role in the Second World War Their expertise in Arctic conditions small boat handling and exploring in all climatic conditions resulted in their participation in all aspects of warfare and arenas of battle particularly as exponents of special operations and as key members of Britain's first special forces Their war service took them from the fjords of Norway and Spitsbergen to the jungles of Burma and Malaya and the beaches of Normandy and Italy They were involved in blockade running covert operations in Yugoslavia

Corsica and France and took part in major initiatives such as Ian Fleming's Intelligence gathering force No 30 Assault unit and the raid on St Nazaire. Most of these men had known each other before war came in 1939. In some cases they ended up serving alongside one another in wartime. The intertwined stories of these characters in peace and war are examples of how the spirit of adventure shown by men in the inter-war years contributed to Britain's outstanding role in the Second World War. Linda Parker has written an important study that is equally relevant to both the history of British exploration and the genesis and early days of Britain's special forces 1939-45, a quite unique and hitherto unexamined relationship. Linda Parker combines teaching History on a part-time basis with her writing and is currently completing a PhD at Birmingham University. Her main areas of interest are 20th Century Military History, Church History and the History of Polar exploration. She is a member of the Western Front Association. She was born and educated in Wales but now lives in Oxfordshire with her husband and their dog. She enjoys walking and travelling ideally together and her ambition is to visit Antarctica. Her first book published by Helion was The Whole Armour of God: Anglican Army Chaplains in the Great War 2009.

The Imperial Messenger Belen Fernandez, 2011-11-01. Factual errors, ham-fisted analysis and contradictory assertions compounded by a penchant for mixed metaphors and name-dropping distinguish the work of Pulitzer Prize-winning New York Times columnist and author Thomas Friedman. The Imperial Messenger reveals the true value of this media darling: a risible writer whose success tells us much about the failures of contemporary journalism. Belen Fernandez dissects the Friedman corpus with wit and journalistic savvy to expose newsroom practices that favor macho rhetoric over serious inquiry, a pacified readership over an empowered one, and reductionist analysis over integrity. The Imperial Messenger is polemic at its best, relentless in its attack on this apologist for American empire and passionate in its commitment to justice. About the series: Counterblasts is a new Verso series that aims to revive the tradition of polemical writing inaugurated by Puritan and leveller pamphleteers in the seventeenth century when, in the words of one of them, Gerard Winstanley, the old world was running up like parchment in the fire. From 1640 to 1663, a leading bookseller and publisher, George Thomason, recorded that his collection alone contained over twenty thousand pamphlets; such polemics reappeared both before and during the French, Russian, Chinese, and Cuban revolutions of the last century. In a period of conformity where politicians, media barons, and their ideological hirelings rarely challenge the basis of existing society, it's time to revive the tradition. Verso's Counterblasts will challenge the apologists of Empire and Capital.

World War II in Europe David T. Zabecki, 2015-05-01. World War II defined the 20th century and shaped many events, from the decolonization of Africa to the rise and fall of the Berlin Wall. This encyclopedia offers a focused overview of this complex and volatile era: the circumstances that led up to war, the underlying causes, its unfolding, and consequences. Organized for quick and precise access, more than 1300 entries by 150 experts are arranged in six sections for easy reference and consultation. All the key ideas, events, actions, weapons, individuals, and organizations that played vital roles in the war are covered, from the Axis Pact to the Arab League, from the OSS to the Africa Corps, from the Chetniks to the

Jedburghs from the battle of Kursk to Operation Mincemeat from Bill Donovan to Otto Skorzeny from Gestapo to SMERSH from Georgi Zhukov to Jean Leclerc from the 88 gun to the Norden Bombsight Covers important neglected subjects The Encyclopedia puts special emphasis on the often neglected operations in Eastern Europe and Russia A key section inspects and rates all the major weapons with handy tables for easy comparison And in recognition of the first large scale participation of women in the war the volume thoroughly documents their individual and unit contributions to the Allied effort Finally the encyclopedia discusses battlefield realities that explain for example why the airborne drops at Normandy succeeded and the ones at Arnheim failed A bibliography glossary maps photographs and weapons and data tables enhance the coverage Also includes 16 maps

Principles of Maritime Power Bruce A. Elleman, 2022-03-14 Maritime powers dominate the planet from the British empire of the 19th century to the American post World War II domination of global affairs To a large degree their control of the globe is based on control of the seas This book seeks to examine the strengths and weaknesses of maritime power including specific chapters on mutiny blockades coalitions piracy expeditionary warfare commerce raiding and soft power operations but with larger discussion of such sea power characteristics as sea control sea denial and the competition between land powers and sea powers The conclusions will discuss how many other countries including Russia during the Cold War and the PRC today have or are seeking to use sea power to claim regional and then eventually global hegemony

Germany and the Second World War Bernhard R. Kroener, Rolf-Dieter Müller, Hans Umbreit, 2000-08-03 This is part one of the fifth volume in the comprehensive and authoritative series Germany in the Second World War It deals with developments in wartime administration economy and manpower resources in Germany and its occupied territories from 1939 1941 Series description This is the fifth in the magisterial ten volume Germany and the Second World War The six volumes so far published in German take the story to 1943 and have achieved international acclaim as a major contribution to historical study Under the auspices of the Militärgeschichtliches Forschungsamt Research Institute for Military History a team of renowned historians has combined a full synthesis of existing material with the latest research to produce what will be the definitive history of the Second World War from the German point of view The comprehensive analysis based on detailed scholarly research is underpinned by a full apparatus of maps diagrams and tables Intensively researched and documented Germany and the Second World War is an undertaking of unparalleled scope and authority It will prove indispensable to all historians of the twentieth century

Sabotage and Subversion: Classic Histories Series Ian Dear, 2016-10-06 During the Second World War daring and highly unusual missions were mounted by the Special Operations Executive SOE formed on Churchill's orders to set Europe ablaze and its American counterpart the Office of Strategic Services OSS In sixteen separate chapters the author describes how the fearless individuals in these clandestine organisations were recruited trained and armed and examines some of their guerrilla operations in Europe Africa and the Far East such as the raid on Fernando Po the destruction of the Gorgopotamos Bridge in Greece and the strike against Japanese shipping in Singapore harbour Also covered are the means SOE and OSS used to subvert the enemy by employing black propaganda forgery pornography and black market currency manipulation It may well read like fiction but the stories are fact and shows to what lengths the Allies were prepared to go to crush the Axis powers The Merchant Seamen's War
