The Woman on the Windowsill Sylvia Sellers-Garcia, 2020-02-18 A true story of violence and punishment that illuminates a transformative moment in Guatemalan history On the morning of July 1 1800 a surveyor and mapmaker named Cayetano Diaz opened the window of his study in Guatemala City to find a horrific sight a pair of severed breasts Offering a meticulously researched and evocative account of the quest to find the perpetrator and understand the motives behind such a brutal act this volume pinpoints the sensational crime as a watershed moment in Guatemalan history that radically changed the nature of justice and the established social order Sylvia Sellers Garcia reveals how this bizarre and macabre event spurred an increased attention to crime that resulted in more forceful policing and reflected important policy decisions not only in Guatemala but across Latin America This fascinating book is both an engaging criminal case study and a broader consideration of the forces shaping Guatemala City at the brink of the modern era

Mal-Nutrition Emily Yates-Doerr, 2024-11-12 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Mal Nutrition documents how maternal health interventions in Guatemala are complicit in reproducing poverty Policy makers speak about how a critical window of biological growth around the time of pregnancy called the first 1 000 days of life determines health and wealth across the life course They argue that fetal development is the key to global development In this thought provoking and timely book Emily Yates Doerr shows that the control of mothering is a paradigmatic technique of American violence that serves to control the reproduction of privilege and power She illustrates the efforts of Guatemalan scientists midwives and mothers to counter the harms of such mal nutrition Their powerful stories offer a window into a form of nutrition science and policy that encourages collective nourishment and fosters reproductive cycles in which women children and their entire communities can flourish

Indigenous Cosmolectics Gloria Elizabeth Chacón, 2018-09-28 Latin America s Indigenous writers have long labored under the limits of colonialism but in the late twentieth and twenty first centuries they have constructed a literary corpus that moves them beyond those parameters Gloria E Chac n considers the growing number of contemporary Indigenous writers who turn to Maya and Zapotec languages alongside Spanish translations of their work to challenge the tyranny of monolingualism and cultural homogeneity Chac n argues that these Maya and Zapotec authors reconstruct an Indigenous literary tradition rooted in an Indigenous cosmolectics a philosophy originally grounded in pre Columbian sacred conceptions of the cosmos time and place and now expressed in creative writings More specifically she attends to Maya and Zapotec literary and cultural forms by theorizing kab awil as an Indigenous philosophy Tackling the political and literary implications of this work Chac n argues that Indigenous writers use of familiar genres alongside Indigenous language use of oral traditions and new representations of selfhood and nation all create space for expressions of cultural and political autonomy Chac n recognizes that Indigenous writers draw from universal literary strategies but nevertheless argues that this literature is a vital center for reflecting on Indigenous ways of knowing and is a key artistic expression of decolonization
