Children's Literature Research Collections, 1992 Shattered Arthur Boers, 2023-05-09 A sensitive and penetrating reflection on coming of age in a Dutch immigrant family scarred by violence Arthur Boers's earliest memory was of shattered glass His father threw a potted plant at his mother and she ducked as the plant crashed through a window of the family home His mother cleaned up the shards that day later in life he would find himself called upon to pick up the pieces as well In Shattered Boers reflects on coming of age in a family scarred by violence The son of Dutch immigrants Boers illuminates the generational trauma of the Nazi occupation of Holland refracted in vignettes of his boyhood in postwar Canada His hard working Calvinist family is endearing but ultimately unable to address the insidious cycle of abuse that passed father to son Breaking with this silence and complicity Boers reflects candidly and empathetically on his tumultuous relationship with his father Intertwined with this narrative is his emerging vocation to ministry more mystical and expressive than the Reformed tradition in which he was raised Fortright and authentic Boers extends a hand in solidarity to readers who have been wounded by those who were meant to protect them the most With Shattered he charts a path toward healing through faith
