The Boundary Politics Of Independent Africa:

The Boundary Politics of Independent Africa Saadia Touval, 1972 The Boundary Politics of Independent Africa brings insights not only to Africanists but also to students of international relations and more specifically of conflict The African states that gained independence during the 1950s and 1960s emerged within the boundaries established by their colonial rulers Both African leaders and outside observers believed then that bitter conflicts would erupt over these borders This has not happened There have been numerous conflicts but only a very few have been major disruptions The prediction of boundary and territorial conflict Saadia Touval explains stemmed from the false assumption based on the European experience of irredentism and secession that the tribes and ethnic groups divided by boundaries would seek to unite to become members of the same state or to form a state of their own and therefore would challenge the boundaries dividing them Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved

Bondage of Boundaries and Identity Politics in Postcolonial Africa
Ndlovu-Gatsheni, Sabelo J., Mhlanga, Brilliant, 2013-10-20 What has confounded African efforts to create cohesive prosperous and just states in postcolonial Africa What has been the long term impact of the Berlin Conference of 1884 5 on African unity and African statehood Why is postcolonial Africa haunted by various ethno national conflicts Is secession and irredentism the solution Can we talk of ethno futures for Africa These are the kinds of fundamental questions that this important book addresses Sabelo J Ndlovu Gatsheni and Brilliant Mhlanga s book introduces the metaphor of the northern problem to dramatise the fact that there is no major African postcolonial state that does not enclose within its borders a disgruntled minority that is complaining of marginalization domination and suppression The irony is that in 1963 at the formation of the OAU postcolonial African leaders embraced the boundaries arbitrarily drawn by European colonialists and institutionalised the principle of inviolability of bondage of boundaries thereby contributing to the problem of ethno national conflicts The successful struggle for independence of the Eritrean people and the secession of South Sudan in 2011 have encouraged other dominated and marginalised groups throughout Africa to view secession as an option Ndlovu Gatsheni and Mhlanga successfully assembled competent African scholars to deal exhaustively with various empirical cases of ethno national conflicts throughout the African continent as well as engaging with such pertinent issues as Pan Africanism as a panacea to these problems This important book delves deeper into complex issues of space languages conflict security nation building war on terror secession migration citizenship militias liberation violence and Pan Africanism
