over 1.2 billion viewers CCTV is a powerhouse in conveying Chinese news and entertainment. The hybrid nature of the network has also transformed it into an unexpected site of discourse in a country that has little official space for negotiation. While CCTV programming is state sponsored and censored, the popularity and profit of the station are determined by the people. And as the Chinese Communist Party seeks to exert its own voice on domestic and international affairs, the prospect of finding an amenable audience becomes increasingly paramount. Through a series of interviews with a fascinating cast of power players including a director of a special topic program that incited the 1989 student movement, current and past presidents of CCTV and producers at the frontline of the network's rapidly evolving role in Chinese culture, celebrated media analyst Ying Zhu unlocks a doorway to political power that has long been shrouded in mystery. An indispensable guide to the Chinese media landscape. The New Inquiry. Up until Two Billion Eyes, the view of Chinese media has often been limited. Ying Zhu expands the periphery of our vision. Los Angeles Review of Books     Navy Medicine, 2002     Real Time Graphics, 2001

Churchill's Navy Brian Lavery, 2016-06-02 In this remarkable book now reissued in paperback, Brian Lavery examines every aspect of the Royal Navy both ashore and at sea during the Second World War and casts a lucid eye over the strengths and weaknesses of an organisation that was put under acute strain during the period yet rose to the challenge with initiative and determination. Divided into twelve sections, the book delves into the structure of naval power from the Board of Admiralty and shore commands to officers and crews, their recruitment and training, daily life and discipline. The roles of the Reserves, Merchant Navy, Royal Marines and Wrens within this structure are also explained. Developments in ship design and technology as well as advances in intelligence, sensors and armament are all discussed and set in context. The different divisions are dealt with one by one, including the Submarine Service, Fleet Air Arm, Coastal Forces and Combined Operations. The text is complemented by over 300 illustrations and the personal accounts of those who served.     The World Book Year Book 2002, 2002     The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English Tom Dalzell, Terry Victor, 2015-06-26 Booklist Top of the List Reference Source The heir and successor to Eric Partridge's brilliant magnum opus The Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English, this two-volume New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English is the definitive record of post-WWII slang.
