Labunski takes us inside the sweltering converted theater in Richmond where for three grueling weeks the soft spoken Madison and the charismatic Patrick Henry fought over whether Virginia should ratify the Constitution The stakes were enormous If Virginia voted no George Washington could not become president New York might follow suit and reject the Constitution and the young nation would be thrust into political chaos But Madison won the day by a handful of votes mollifying Anti Federalist fears by promising to add a bill of rights to the Constitution To do this Madison would have to win a seat in the First Congress Labunski shows how the vengeful Henry prevented Madison s appointment to the Senate and then used his political power to ensure that Madison would run against his good friend Revolutionary War hero James Monroe in a House district teeming with political enemies Overcoming great odds Madison won by a few hundred votes allowing him to attend the First Congress and sponsor the Bill of Rights Packed with colorful details about life in early America this compelling and important narrative is the first serious book about Madison written in many years It will return this under appreciated patriot to his rightful place among the Founding Fathers and shed new light on a key turning point in our nation s history
