The New Biographical Dictionary of Film David Thomson, 2010 Thomson independent scholar writing of The Biographical Dictionary of Film aka A Biographical Dictionary of the Cinema 1975 edition described it as a personal opinionated and obsessive biographical dictionary of the cinema Thirty five years and several editions later that description still holds true of this expanded work The new dictionary summarizes salient facts about its subjects lives and discusses their film credits in terms of the quality of the filmmakers work In ambition it has competitors including Leslie Halliwell's various editions of Halliwell's Filmgoers Companion 12th ed 1997 and Halliwell's Who's Who in the Movies edited by John Walker 4th ed rev and updated 2006 which cover films and technical terms categories not included in Thomson's but whose entries are neutral and exceedingly brief Additionally Francophile Richard Roud's edited Cinema A Critical Dictionary The Major Filmmakers 2 v 1980 is as passionate a work as Thomson's but narrower in scope with entries written by various experts rather than only by Roud Finally the multivolume magnum opus The International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers 4th ed 2000 ed by T Pendergast and S Pendergast 2nd ed ed by N Thomas v 1 CH May 91 1st ed ed by C Lyon v 1 2 CH Jan 85 v 3 CH Apr 87 v 4 5 CH Jun 88 covers everything films directors actors writers and production artists with generous measured scholarly entries and lavish illustrations However it looms large and heavy unlike the handy one volume work by Thomson Arguably Thomson's work for its scope is the most fun the most convenient and the most engaging title All libraries supporting people interested in film should buy it It will get lots of use and provide very good value for the money Summing Up Highly recommended Lower level undergraduates and above general readers General Readers Lower division Undergraduates Upper division Undergraduates Graduate Students Researchers Faculty Professionals Practitioners Reviewed by C Hendershott

"Have You Seen . . . ?" David Thomson,2008-10-14 In 1975 David Thomson published his Biographical Dictionary of Film and few film books have enjoyed better press or such steady sales Now thirty three years later we have the companion volume a second book of more than 1 000 pages in one voice that of our most provocative contemporary film critic and historian Juxtaposing the fanciful and the fabulous the old favorites and the forgotten this sweeping collection presents the films that Thomson offers in response to the question he gets asked most often What should I see This new book is a generous history of film and an enticing critical appraisal written with as much humor and passion as historical knowledge Not content to choose his own top films though they are here Thomson has created a list that will surprise and delight you and send you to your best movie rental service But he also probes the question after one hundred years of film which ones are the best and why Have You Seen suggests a true canon of cinema and one that s almost completely accessible now thanks to DVDs This book is a must for anyone who loves the silver screen the perfect confection to dip into at any point for a taste of controversy little known facts and ideas about what to see This is a volume you ll want to return to again and again like a dear but argumentative friend in the dark at the movies The Films of Delmer Daves Douglas Horlock,2022-03-25 Delmer Daves 1904 1977 was an American screenwriter director and producer known for his dramas and Western adventures most notably Broken Arrow and 3 10 to Yuma Despite the popularity of his films there has been little serious examination of Daves s work Filmmaker Bertrand Tavernier has called Daves the most forgotten of American directors and to date no scholarly monograph has focused on his work In The Films of Delmer Daves Visions of Progress in Mid Twentieth Century America author Douglas Horlock contends that the director s work warrants sustained scholarly attention Examining all of Daves s films as well as his screenplays scripts that were not filmed and personal papers Horlock argues that Daves was a serious distinctive and enlightened filmmaker whose work confronts the general conservatism of Hollywood in the mid twentieth century Horlock considers Daves s films through the lenses of political and social values race and civil rights and gender and sexuality Ultimately Horlock suggests that Daves s work through its examination of bigotry and irrational fear and depiction of institutional and personal morality and freedom presents a consistent innovative and progressive vision of America
