The Birth To Presence Meridian Crossing Aesthetics:

The Birth to Presence Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The epoch of representation is as old as the West Indeed representation is the West understood as what at once designates and expands its own limits But what comes after the West What comes after representation s disclosure of its own limit The central problem posed in these essays collected from over a decade of work is how in the wake of Western ontologies to conceive the coming the birth that characterizes being We are now at the limit of representation where objects as we experience them have been show to be merely objects of representation or rather of presentation since there is nothing to re present The first part of this book Existence asks how today one can give sense of meaning to existence as such arguing that existence itself as it comes nude into the world must now be our sense In examining what this birth to presence might be we should not ask what presence is rather we should conceive presence as presence to someone including to presence itself This birth is not the constitution of an identity but the endless departure of an identity from and from within its other or others Its coming is not desire but jouissance the joy of averring oneself to be continually in the state of being born a rejoicing of birth a birth of rejoicing The second section Poetry asks What art exposes this In writing in the voice in painting And what if art is exposed to it How does it inscribe or rather exscribe in a term the book develops the coming existence as such The author s trajectory in this book crosses those of Hegel Schlegel Baudelaire Nietzsche Freud and Heidegger in their comments on art and politics existence and corporeality everyday life and its modes of existence and ecstasy An analysis that dares this crossing involves all the varied accounts of existence political as well as philosophical and all the realms of poverty

Being Singular Plural Jean-Luc Nancy, 2000 This book by one of the most innovative and challenging contemporary thinkers rethinks community and the very idea of the social Nancy s fundamental argument is that being is always being with that I is not prior to we that existence is essentially co existence

The Decision Between Us John Paul Ricco, 2014-03-31 The Decision Between Us combines an inventive reading of Jean Luc Nancy with queer theoretical concerns to argue that while scenes of intimacy are spaces of sharing they are also spaces of separation John Paul Ricco shows that this tension informs our efforts to coexist ethically and politically an experience of sharing and separation that informs any decision Using this incongruous relation of intimate separation Ricco goes on to propose that decision is as much an aesthetic as it is an ethical construct and one that is always defined in terms of our relations to loss absence departure and death Laying out this theory of unbecoming community in modern and contemporary art literature and philosophy and calling our attention to such things as blank sheets of paper images of unmade beds and the spaces around bodies The Decision Between Us opens in 1953 when Robert Rauschenberg famously erased a drawing by Willem de Kooning and Roland Barthes published Writing Degree Zero then moves to 1980 and the neutral mourning of Barthes Camera Lucida and ends in the early 1990s with installations by Felix Gonzalez Torres Offering surprising new considerations of these and other seminal works of art and theory by Jean Genet Marguerite Duras and Catherine Breillat

The Decision Between Us is a highly original and unusually imaginative exploration of the spaces between us arousing and evoking an infinite and profound sense of sharing in scenes of passionate erotic pleasure as well as deep loss and mourning

The Muses Jean-Luc Nancy,1996 Jean Luc Nancy s probing analysis of art and the sensible presentation of an idea examines why there are several arts and not just one He uses Hegel s conclusions in Aesthetics and the Phenomenology of Spirit as support for his theory

Chaucer and the City Ardis Butterfield,2006 Presenting essays exploring Chaucer s identity as a London poet and the urban context for his writings this volume addresses the centrality of the city in Chaucer s work and the importance of Chaucer to a literature and a language of the city

The Church of the Dead Jennifer Scheper Hughes,2023-07-11 In 1576 a catastrophic epidemic devastated Indigenous Mexican communities and left the colonial church in ruins With its horrific final symptom of hemorrhage from the nose the unfamiliar disease which the Nahua named cocoliztli took almost two million lives In the crisis and its immediate aftermath Spanish missionaries and surviving pueblos de indios held radically different visions for the future of church in the Americas

The Bible and Art, Perspectives from Oceania Caroline Blyth,Nasili Vaka'uta,2017-02-09 This volume takes readers on a fascinating journey through the visual arts of Aotearoa New Zealand Australia and the Pacific Islands contemplating the multivocal dialogues that occur between these artistic media and the texts and traditions of the Bible With their distinctively antipodean perspectives contributors explore the innovative ways that both creators and beholders of Oceanic arts draw upon their contexts and cultures in order to open up creative engagements with the stories themes and theologies of the biblical traditions Various motifs weave their way throughout the volume including antipodean landscapes and ecology post colonialism philosophy Oceanic spiritualities and the often contested engagements between western and indigenous cultures Within this weaving process each essay invites readers to contemplate these various forms of visual culture through Oceanic eyes and to appreciate the fresh insights that this process can bring to reading and interpreting the biblical traditions The result is a rich and interdisciplinary array of conversations that will capture the attention of readers within the fields of biblical reception studies cultural studies theology and art history

Foundations for Sociorhetorical Exploration Vernon K. Robbins,Robert H. von Thaden Jr.,Bart B. Bruehler,2016-09-02 Engaging resources for understanding the importance of bodies and spaces in producing and interpreting persuasive language This volume collects essays that represent intellectual milestones that are informing sociorhetorical interpretation during the twenty first century The essays are arranged into five parts 1 Topos 2 Cultural Geography and Critical Spatiality 3 Rhetorolects and Conceptual Blending 4 Rhetography and 5 Rhetorical Force Features Tools for integrating multiple approaches to biblical interpretation Resources that emphasize the importance of language that prompts mental pictures in effective rhetoric Essays from classicists rhetoricians and biblical scholars

'Imagining' Biblical Worlds David M. Gunn,Paula McNutt,2002-12-01 The essays in this volume address the interface between biblical studies archaeology sociology and cultural anthropology celebrating the pioneering work of James Flanagan In particular this collection explores various ways in which the real ancient world is constructed by the modern critical reader with the aid of various theoretical and practical tools The contributors to this volume have all been involved with Flanagan and his projects during his academic career and the essays carry forward the important interdisciplinary agendas he has encouraged Part One deals with his recent interest in spatiality and Part Two with social and historical constructs This book in James Flanagan's honour represents a significant statement of research in an area of biblical and historical research that is increasingly important yet surprisingly under represented

The Work of Fire Maurice Blanchot, 1995 Maurice Blanchot is arguably the key figure after Sartre in exploring the relation between literature and philosophy Blanchot developed a distinctive limpid form of essay writing these essays in form and substance left their imprint on the work of the most influential French theorists The writings of Barthes Foucault and Derrida are unimaginable without Blanchot Published in French in 1949 The Work of Fire is a collection of twenty two essays originally published in literary journals Certain themes recur repeatedly the relation of literature and language to death the significance of repetition the historical personal and social function of literature and simply the question what is at stake in the fact that something such as art or literature exists Among the authors discussed are Kafka Mallarmé Hölderlin Baudelaire Rimbaud Sartre Gide Pascal Valéry Hemingway and Henry Miller

The Experience of Freedom Jean-Luc Nancy, 1993 The most systematic radical and lucid treatise on freedom that has been written in contemporary Continental philosophy this book combats the renunciation of freedom attested in modern history by articulating the experience of freedom at work in thought itself

On the Name Jacques Derrida, 1995 The name What does one call thus What does one understand under the name of name And what occurs when one gives a name What does one give then One does not offer a thing one delivers nothing and still something comes to be which comes down to giving that which one does not have as Plotinus said of the Good What happens above all when it is necessary to surmount renaming there where precisely the name comes to be found lacking What makes the proper name into a sort of surmount pseudonym or cryptonym at once singular and singularly untranslatable Jacques Derrida thus poses a central problem in contemporary language ethics and politics which he addresses in a linked series of the three essays Passions An Oblique Offering is a reflection on the question of the response on the duty and obligation to respond and on the possibility of not responding which is to say on the ethics and politics of responsibility Sauf le nom Post Scriptum considers the problematics of naming and alterity or transcendence raised inevitably by a rigorous negative theology Much of the text is organized around close readings of the poetry of Angelus Silesius The final essay Khôra explores the problem of space or spacing of the word khôra in Plato's Timaeus Even as it places and makes possible nothing less than the whole world khôra opens and dislocates displaces all the categories that govern the production of that world from naming to gender In addition to readers in philosophy and literature Khôra will be of special interest to those in the burgeoning field of space studies architecture urbanism design
