The Black Poetry Of Thought:

New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement Lisa Gail Collins, Margo Natalie Crawford, 2006-05-16 During the 1960s and 1970s a cadre of poets playwrights visual artists musicians and other visionaries came together to create a renaissance in African American literature and art This charged chapter in the history of African American culture which came to be known as the Black Arts Movement has remained largely neglected by subsequent generations of critics New Thoughts on the Black Arts Movement includes essays that reexamine well known figures such as Amiri Baraka Larry Neal Gwendolyn Brooks Sonia Sanchez Betye Saar Jeff Donaldson and Haki Madhubuti In addition the anthology expands the scope of the movement by offering essays that explore the racial and sexual politics of the era links with other period cultural movements the arts in prison the role of Black colleges and universities gender politics and the rise of feminism color fetishism photography music and more An invigorating look at a movement that has long begged for reexamination this collection lucidly interprets the complex debates that surround this tumultuous era and demonstrates that the celebration of this movement need not be separated from its critique

TIMES AND THOUGHTS OF AFRICAN POLITICAL THINKERS Godfrey O. Ozumba & Elijah Okon John (Edited), 2017-01-07 This book is aimed principally at assessing the political theories of some of the most prominent African political philosophers and nationalists who from diverse perspectives responded to the African Black Man's predicament The contributors who are seasoned scholars drawn from different universities and disciplines have made their marks in their various assessments of the positions of these political thinkers I strongly recommend this book to students of philosophy history sociology and political science It is a must for human rights organizations all those who are interested in redressing the African predicament and the reading public Endorsed by Edioms Research and Innovation Centre E RIC

Black Talk, Blue Thoughts, and Walking the Color Line Erin Aubry Kaplan, 2011 This lively and thoughtful book explores what it means to be black in an allegedly postracial America Into a Light Both Brilliant and Unseen Malin Pereira, 2010 Pereira's collection of interviews with leading contemporary African American poets Wanda Coleman Yusef Komunyakaa Thylias Moss Harryette Mullen Cornelius Eady Elizabeth Alexander Rita Dove and Cyrus Cassells offers an in depth look at the cultural and aesthetic perspectives of the post Black Arts Movement generation African Thoughts on Colonial and Neo-Colonial Worlds Anaïs Angelo, Paulina Aroch-Fugellie, Lena Dallywater, Lutz Diegner, Myra Ann Houser, Janine Kläge, Sara Marzagora, Felix Müller, Arno Sonderegger, Ninja Steinbach-Hüther, Joanna Tegnerowicz, 2015-10-16 This book shows the many facets of African engagements with the world It starts from the premise that current global asymmetries ascribing Africa to a marginalized position are the effects of colonial and imperial pasts still lingering on The decolonization process of the post war structure which privileges the West in both political and economic terms While new dependencies emerged several old bonds were maintained and continue to influence African affairs quite strikingly It is appropriate then to call these continued unequal relations between Africa and the West frankly neo colonial This designation applies all the more as the post colonial states of Africa inherited a complex legacy of foreign rule colonial frontiers colonial languages colonial infrastructure and authoritarian institutions as well as the social intricacies and imbalances so characteristic of the colonial situation The contributions to this volume look at various aspects of these complex processes from intellectual history perspectives The topics dealt with are manifold Contributions deliberately attack key themes ideas and discourses of an intellectual history of Africa state modernity development dependency art etc and introduce important engaged public intellectuals from Africa and the African diaspora What is Africa and how is she related to the rest of the world How can she overcome her internal problems and her external dependencies These are perennial questions critically tackled by Africans throughout the 20th century Dealing with various cases looked at from a variety of perspectives the contributions to this book offer original insights into the intellectual history of Africa The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study

Encyclopedia of African-American Literature Wilfred D. Samuels, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on African American literature providing profiles of notable and little known writers and their works literary forms and genres critics and scholars themes and terminology and more Black Intellectual Thought in Education Carl A. Grant, Keffrelyn D. Brown, Anthony L. Brown, 2015-09-25 Black Intellectual Thought in Education celebrates the exceptional academic contributions of African American education scholars Anna Julia Cooper Carter G Woodson and Alain Leroy Locke to the causes of social science education and democracy in America By focusing on the lives and projects of these three figures specifically it offers a powerful counter narrative to the dominant established discourse in education and critical social theory helping to better serve the population that critical theory seeks to advocate Rather than attempting to rescue a few African American scholars from obscurity or marginalization this powerful volume instead highlights ideas that must be probed and critically examined in order to deal with prevailing contemporary educational issues Cooper Woodson and Locke's history of engagement with race democracy education gender and life is a dynamic demanding and authentic narrative for those engaged with these important issues Biko Lives! A. Mngxitama, A. Alexander, N. Gibson, 2008-07-07 This collection looks at the on going significance of Black Consciousness situating it in a global frame examining the legacy of Steve Biko the current state of post apartheid South African politics and the culture and history of the anti apartheid movements      The Cultural Cold War and the Global South Kerry Bystrom, Monica Popescu, Katherine Zien, 2021-07-27 This volume investigates the cultural sites where the global Cold War played out It brings to view unpredictable encounters that arose as writers artists filmmakers and intellectuals from or aligned with the Third World navigated the ideological and material constraints set by superpowers and emerging regional powers Often these encounters generated communitas and solidarity while at times they fed old and new conflicts Pushing forward recent scholarship that tracks the Cold War in the Global South and draws on postcolonial approaches our contributors use archival secondary and ethnographic sources to trace the afterlives and memories of key figures and to explore meetings that performed cultural diplomacy Our focus on sites of encounter or exchange underscores the situated interpersonal and embodied dimensions through which much of the cultural Cold War was experienced While the global conflict divided citizens along ideological fault lines it also linked people through circulating media novels film posters journals and theatre and multinational conferences that brought artists intellectuals and political activists together Such contacts introduced new axes of solidarity and hierarchies of exclusion Examining these connections and disjunctures this new and necessary mapping of the cultural Cold War highlights under addressed locations in Asia Africa and Latin America

Amiri Baraka and Edward Dorn Claudia Moreno Pisano, 2013-12-01 From the end of the 1950s through the middle of the 1960s Amiri Baraka b 1934 and Edward Dorn 1929-99 two self consciously avant garde poets fostered an intense friendship primarily through correspondence The early 1960s found both poets just beginning to publish and becoming public figures Bonding around their commitment to new and radical forms of poetry and culture Dorn and Baraka created an interracial friendship at precisely the moment when the Civil Rights Movement was becoming a powerful force in national politics The major premise of the Dorn Jones friendship as developed through their letters was artistic but the range of subjects in the correspondence shows an incredible intersection between the personal and the public providing a schematic map of what was so vital in postwar American culture to those living through it Their letters offer a vivid picture of American lives connecting around poetry during a tumultuous time of change and immense creativity Reading through these correspondences allows access into personal biographies and through these biographies profound moments in American cultural history open themselves to us in a way not easily found in official channels of historical narrative and memory
