The Image of the Black in Western Art David Bindman, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), Karen C. C. Dalton, 2010 A history of the representation of African people people of African descent in Classical Western art these new editions update the magisterial project begun by Dominique de Menil The Invention of Race in the European Middle Ages Geraldine Heng, 2018-03-08 This book challenges the common belief that race and racism are phenomena that began only in the modern era A Pilgrimage to Eternity Timothy Egan, 2019-10-15 From the world's greatest tour guide a deeply researched captivating journey through the rich history of Christianity and the winding paths of the French and Italian countryside that will feed mind body and soul New York Times What a wondrous work This beautifully written and totally clear eyed account of his pilgrimage will have you wondering whether we should all embark on such a journey either of the body the soul or as in Egan's case both Cokie Roberts Egan draws us in making us feel frozen in the snow covered Alps joyful in valleys of trees with low hanging fruit skeptical of the relics of embalmed saints and hopeful for the healing of his encrusted toes so worn and weathered from their walk The Washington Post Moved by his mother's death and his Irish Catholic family's complicated history with the church Timothy Egan decided to follow in the footsteps of centuries of seekers to force a reckoning with his own beliefs He embarked on a thousand mile pilgrimage through the theological cradle of Christianity to explore the religion in the world that it created Egan sets out along the Via Francigena once the major medieval trail leading the devout to Rome and travels overland via the alpine peaks and small mountain towns of France Switzerland and Italy accompanied by a quirky cast of fellow pilgrims and by some of the towering figures of the faith Joan of Arc Henry VIII Martin Luther The goal walking to St Peter's Square in hopes of meeting the galvanizing pope who is struggling to hold together the church through the worst crisis in half a millennium A thrilling journey a family story and a revealing history A Pilgrimage to Eternity looks for our future in its search for God Holy People of the World Phyllis G. Jestice, 2004-12-15 A cross cultural encyclopedia of the most significant holy people in history examining why people in a wide range of religious traditions throughout the world have been regarded as divinely inspired The first reference on the subject to span all the world's major religions Holy People of the World A Cross Cultural Encyclopedia examines the impact of individuals who through personal charisma and inspirational deeds served both as glorious examples of human potential and as envoys for the divine Holy People of the World contains nearly 1 100 biographical sketches of venerated men and women Written by religious studies experts and historians each article focuses on the basic question How did this person come to be regarded as holy In addition the encyclopedia features 20 survey articles on views of holy people in the major religious traditions such as Islam Buddhism and African religions as well as 64 comparative articles on aspects of holiness and veneration across cultures such as awakening and conversion experiences heredity gender asceticism and persecution Whether exploring by religion culture or historic period this extensively cross referenced resource offers a wealth of insights into one of the most revealing and least explored

common denominators of spiritual traditions A Cultural History of Race in the Middle Ages Thomas Hahn, 2023-06-01 This volume presents a comprehensive and collaborative survey of how people individually and within collective entities thought about experienced and enacted racializing differences Addressing events texts and images from the 5th to the 16th centuries these essays by ten eminent scholars provide broad multi disciplinary analyses of materials whose origins range from the British Isles Western Iberia and North Africa across Western and Eastern Europe to the Middle East These diverse communities possessed no single word equivalent to modern race a term raza for genetic religious cultural or territorial difference that emerges only at the end of the medieval period Chapter by chapter this volume nonetheless demonstrates the manifold beliefs practices institutions and images that conveyed and enforced difference for the benefit of particular groups and to the detriment of others Addressing the varying historiographical self consciousness concerning race among medievalist scholars themselves the separate analyses make use of paradigms drawn from social and political history religious environmental literary ethnic and gender studies the history of art and of science and critical race theory Chapters identify the eruption of racial discourses aroused by political or religious polemic centered upon conversion within and among Jewish Christian and Islamic communions and inspired by imagined or sustained contact with alien peoples Authors draw their evidence from Hebrew Latin Arabic and a profusion of European vernaculars and provide searching examinations of visual artefacts ranging from religious service books to maps mosaics and manuscript illuminations Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace Scott Oldenburg, Kristin M. S. Bezio, 2021-10-28 Religion and the Medieval and Early Modern Global Marketplace brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines to examine the intersection conflict and confluence of religion and the market before 1700 Each chapter analyzes the unique interplay of faith and economy in a different locale Syria Ethiopia France Iceland India Peru and beyond In ten case studies specialists of archaeology art history social and economic history religious studies and critical theory address issues of secularization tolerance colonialism and race with a fresh focus They chart the tensions between religious and economic thought in specific locales or texts the complex ways that religion and economy interacted with one another and the way in which matters of faith economy and race converge in religious images of the pre and early modern periods Considering the intersection of faith and economy the volume questions the legacy of early modern economic and spiritual exceptionalism and the ways in which prosperity still entangles itself with righteousness The interdisciplinary nature means that this volume is the perfect resource for advanced undergraduates postgraduates and scholars working across multiple areas including history literature politics art history global studies philosophy and gender studies in the medieval and early modern periods Race-ing Art History Kymberly N. Pinder, 2013-04-15 Race ing Art History is the first comprehensive anthology to place issues of racial representation squarely on the canvas Art produced by non Europeans has naturally been compared to Western art and its study which refers to a binary way of viewing both Each essay in this collection is a response to this vision to the distant mirror of looking at the other Germany and the Black Diaspora Mischa Honeck, Martin Klimke, Anne Kuhlmann, 2013-07-01 The rich history of encounters prior to World War I between people from German speaking parts of Europe and people of African descent has gone largely unnoticed in the historical literature not least because Germany became a nation and engaged in colonization much later than other European nations This volume presents intersections of Black and German history over eight centuries while mapping continuities and ruptures in Germans perceptions of Blacks Juxtaposing these intersections demonstrates that negative German perceptions of Blackness proceeded from nineteenth century racial theories and that earlier constructions of race were far more differentiated The contributors present a wide range of Black German encounters from representations of Black saints in religious medieval art to Black Hessians fighting in the American Revolutionary War from Cameroonian children being educated in Germany to African American agriculturalists in Germany's protectorate Togoland Each chapter probes individual and collective responses to these intercultural points of contact

Sainthood and Race Molly H. Bassett, Vincent W. Lloyd, 2014-09-04 In popular imagination saints exhibit the best characteristics of humanity universally recognizable but condensed and embodied in an individual Recent scholarship has asked an array of questions concerning the historical and social contexts of sainthood and opened new approaches to its study What happens when the category of sainthood is interrogated and inflected by the problematic category of race

Sainthood and Race Marked Flesh Holy Flesh explores this complicated relationship by examining two distinct characteristics of the saint's body the historicized marked flesh and the universal holy flesh The essays in this volume comment on this tension between particularity and universality by combining both theoretical and ethnographic studies of saints and race across a wide range of subjects within the humanities Additionally the book's group of emerging and established religion scholars enhances this discussion of sainthood and race by integrating topics such as gender community and colonialism across a variety of historical geographical and religious contexts This volume raises provocative questions for scholars and students interested in the intersection of religion and race today

The Complete History of the Black Death Ole Jørgen Benedictow, 2021 Completely revised and updated for this new edition Benedictow's acclaimed study remains the definitive account of the Black Death and its impact on history The first edition of The Black Death collected and analysed the many local studies on the disease published in a variety of languages and examined a range of scholarly papers The medical and epidemiological characteristics of the disease its geographical origin its spread across Asia Minor the Middle East North Africa and Europe and the mortality in the countries and regions for which there are satisfactory studies are clearly presented and thoroughly discussed The pattern pace and seasonality of spread revealed through close scrutiny of these studies exactly reflect current medical work and standard studies on the epidemiology of bubonic plague Benedictow's findings made it clear that the true mortality rate was far higher than had been previously thought In the light of those findings the discussion in the last part of the book showing the Black Death as a turning point in history takes on a new

The Clash of Cultures on the Medieval Baltic Frontier Alan V. Murray, 2009 The conversion of the lands on the southern and eastern shores of the Baltic Sea by Germans Danes and Swedes in the period from 1150 to 1400 represented the last great struggle between Christianity and paganism on the European continent but for the indigenous peoples of Finland Livonia Prussia Lithuania and Pomerania it was also a period of wider cultural conflict and transformation This collection explores the theme of clash of cultures from a variety of perspectives discussing the nature and ideology of crusading in the medieval Baltic region the struggle between Catholicism and Orthodoxy and the cultural confrontation that accompanied the process of conversion

Amazing Facts About the Negro Henry Louis Gates, Jr., 2017-10-24 The first edition of Joel Augustus Rogers's now legendary 100 Amazing Facts About the Negro with Complete Proof published in 1934 was billed as A Negro Believe It or Not Rogers's little book was priceless because he was delivering enlightenment and pride steeped in historical research to a people too long starved on the lie that they were worth nothing For African Americans of the Jim Crow era Rogers's was their first black history teacher But Rogers was not always shy about embellishing the facts and minimizing ambiguity neither was he above shock journalism now and then With lan and erudition and with winning enthusiasm Henry Louis Gates Jr gives us a corrective yet loving homage to Roger's work Relying on the latest scholarship Gates leads us on a romp through African diasporic and African American history in question and answer format Among the one hundred questions Who were Africa's first ambassadors to Europe Who was the first black president in North America Did Lincoln really free the slaves Who was history's wealthiest person What percentage of white Americans have recent African ancestry Why did free black people living in the South before the end of the Civil War stay there Who was the first black head of state in modern Western history Where was the first Underground Railroad Who was the first black American woman to be a self made millionaire Which black man made many of our favorite household products better Here is a surprising inspiring sometimes boldly mischievous all the while highly instructive and entertaining compendium of historical curiosities intended to illuminate the sheer complexity and diversity of being Negro in the world With full color illustrations throughout

Rediscovering Black Portraiture Peter Brathwaite, 2023-05-30 Join Peter Brathwaite on an extraordinary journey through representations of Black subjects in Western art from medieval Europe through the present day These mirror images with their uncanny resemblances traverse space and time spotlighting the black lives that have been silenced by the canon of western art while also inviting us to interrogate the present Times UK Since the beginning of the COVID 19 pandemic Peter Brathwaite has thoughtfully researched and reimagined more than one hundred artworks featuring portraits of Black sitters all posted to social media with the caption Rediscovering blackportraiture through gettymuseumchallenge Rediscovering Black Portraiture collects more than fifty of Brathwaite's most intriguing re-creations Introduced by the author and framed by contributions from experts in art history and visual culture this fascinating book offers a nuanced look at the complexities and challenges of building identity within the African diaspora and how such forces have informed Black portraits over time Artworks featured include The Adoration of the Magi by Georges Trubert Portrait of an Unknown Man by Jan Mostaert Rice n Peas by Sonia Boyce Barack Obama by Kehinde Wiley and many more This volume also invites readers behind the scenes offering a glimpse of the elegant artifice of Brathwaite's props setup and process An urgent and compelling exploration of embodiment representation and agency Rediscovering Black Portraiture serves to remind us that Black subjects have been portrayed in art for nearly a millennium and that their stories demand to be told An exhibition of Brathwaite's re-creations is on view at the Bristol Museum Art Gallery in Bristol UK from April 14 to July 23 2023 The African Diaspora Patrick

Manning,2010-03-05 Patrick Manning follows the multiple routes that brought Africans and people of African descent into contact with one another and with Europe Asia and the Americas In joining these stories he shows how the waters of the Atlantic Ocean the Mediterranean Sea and the Indian Ocean fueled dynamic interactions among black communities and cultures and how these patterns resembled those of a number of connected diasporas concurrently taking shaping across the globe Manning begins in 1400 and traces the connections that enabled Africans to mutually identify and hold together as a global community He tracks discourses on race changes in economic circumstance the evolving character of family life and the growth of popular culture He underscores the profound influence that the African diaspora had on world history and demonstrates the inextricable link between black migration and the rise of modernity Inclusive and far reaching The African Diaspora proves that the advent of modernity cannot be fully understood without taking the African peoples and the African continent into account Hypermedia Design Sylvain Fraisse,Franca Garzotto,Tomas Isakowitz,Jocelyne Nanard,Marc

Nanard,2012-12-06 This is the latest volume in the Workshops in Computing series and contains papers from the International Workshop on Hypermedia Design held in Montpellier France from 1-2 June 1995 The workshop aimed to provide a forum for researchers and practitioners from a variety of backgrounds to discuss the many facets of hypermedia design Among the specific topics covered by the papers are design methods multimedia modelling higher structures in hypermedia design spaces user interface design for hypermedia building distributed web applications and hyperdialogs The resulting volume provides a comprehensive overview of the state of the art in this important field It will be of interest to researchers practitioners and students involved in any aspect of hypermedia design Black Saints in Early Modern Global Catholicism Erin Kathleen Rowe,2019-12-12 This is the untold story of how black saints and the slaves who venerated them transformed the early modern church It speaks to race the Atlantic slave trade and global Christianity and provides new ways of thinking about blackness holiness and cultural authority The Fortney Encyclical Black History Albert Fortney

Jr.,2016-01-15 The Encyclical Black History has been created for the critical and lack of vital Afro Centric Multi Curriculum text in urban school systems and is a necessity for African Americans This book was created with careful and serious attention to biographical names that identifies history culture as well as biblical characters The reason why of this encyclical history can be explained with the facts and proof evidence of the following The point that has socio psychological implications at the unconscious as well as the conscious level is the great little white racist lie seen long enough becomes the truth like portraying a white Jesus Christ who was a black man Dr Alvin Poussaint a Black psychiatrist associated with Harvard University and others have observed and explained the most tragic part of all of this is that the African American has come to form his self image and self concept on the basis of what white racists have laid down as a guide or prescribed Therefore black men and women learn quickly to hate themselves and each other more than their white oppressor There is almost infinite evidence that racism has left almost irreparable scars on the psyche of Afro Americans that burden with an unrelenting painful anxiety that drives the psyche to reach out for a sense of identity and self esteem Poussaint and others say that black children especially learn to hate themselves at very early ages Studies reveal their preference for white dolls over black ones One study reported that black children in their drawings tend to show blacks as small incomplete people and whites as strong and powerful To conclude in western color symbolism white is positive and black negative Many people might ask why the contributions of Africa should be included in American curriculum Is because they bleach and still rob black history and culture with black pictured as white that lie leaves us mentally dead angry and without purpose of where we are going Human culture is the product of all humanity not the possession of a single racial or ethnic group Afro centric Multicultural educations major aim is to close the gap between Western ideals of equality justice and practices that contradict these ideas Stereotype people of color and people who are poor have just about no opportunities to become free of perspectives that are monoculture that devalue African culture victimize them mostly having an inability to fully function effectively in society Many of these problems could be miraculously remedied with astonishing results if explained of black scientific achievements which occurred in black Africa There are also white African Americans living in the U S A besides black African Americans should make the distinction Carl Sandburg 1979 related a dialogue between a white American and an American Indian which illustrates the need for multicultural education The white man drew a small circle in the sand and told the red man This is what the Indian knows and drawing a big circle around the small one this is what is what the white man knows The Indian then took the stick and swept an immensely big ring around both circles and said this is where the white man and the red man knows nothing

Americas Kingship and Justice in the Ottonian Empire Laura Wangerin, 2019-04-12 Laura E Wangerin challenges traditional views of the Ottonian Empire's rulership. Drawing from a broad array of sources including royal and imperial diplomas, manuscript illuminations, and histories, Ottonian kingship and the administration of justice are investigated using traditional historical and comparative methodologies as well as through the application of innovative approaches such as modern systems theories. This study suggests that distinctive elements of the Ottonians' governing apparatus, such as its decentralized structure, emphasis on the royal iter, and delegation of authority, were essential features of a highly developed political system. Kingship and Justice in the Ottonian Empire provides a welcome addition to English language scholarship on the Ottonians as well as to scholarship dealing with rulership and medieval legal studies. Scholars have recognized the importance of ritual and symbolic behaviors in the Ottonian political sphere while puzzling over the apparent lack of administrative organization, a contradiction between what we know about the Ottonians as successful rulers and their traditional characterization as rulers of a disorganized polity. Trying to account for the apparent disparity between their political and military achievements, cultural and artistic efflorescence, and relative dynastic stability, which seemingly accompanied a disinterest in writing law or creating a centralized hierarchical administration, is a tension that persists in the scholarship. This book argues that far from being accidental successes or employing primitive methods of governance, the Ottonians were shrewd rulers and administrators who exploited traditional methods of conflict resolution and delegated jurisdictional authority to keep control over their vast empire. Thus, one of the important things that this book aims to accomplish is to challenge our preconceived notions of what successful government looks like.
