Who Goes There, 1979 A guide to the works of authors who have contributed to the literature of fantasy and science fiction and who have published some or all of their work pseudonymously Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region The Dictator Novel Magalí Armillas-Tiseyra, 2019-07-15 Where there are dictators there are novels about dictators But dictator novels do not simply respond to the reality of dictatorship As this genre has developed and cohered it has acquired a self generating force distinct from its historical referents The dictator novel has become a space in which writers consider the difficulties of national consolidation explore the role of external and global forces in sustaining dictatorship and even interrogate the political functions of writing itself Literary representations of the dictator therefore provide ground for a self conscious and self critical theorization of the relationship between writing and politics itself The Dictator Novel positions novels about dictators as a vital genre in the literatures of the Global South Primarily identified with Latin America the dictator novel also has underacknowledged importance in the postcolonial literatures of francophone and anglophone Africa Although scholars have noted similarities this book is the first extensive comparative analysis of these traditions it includes discussions of authors including Gabriel García Márquez Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o Alejo Carpentier Augusto Roa Bastos Domingo Faustino Sarmiento José Martí Esteban Echeverría Ousmane Sembène Chinua Achebe Aminata Sow Fall Henri Lopès Sony Labou Tansi and Ahmadou Kourouma This juxtaposition illuminates the internal dynamics of the dictator novel as a literary genre In so doing Armillas Tiseyra puts forward a comparative model relevant to scholars working across the Global South
