The Philosophy of Curatorial Practice Sue Spaid, 2020-10-15 This book walks us through the process of how artworks eventually get their meaning showing us how curated exhibitions invite audience members to weave an exhibition's narrative threads which gives artworks their contents and discursive sense Arguing that exhibitions avail artworks as candidates for reception whose meaning value and relevance reflect audience responses it challenges the existing view that exhibitions present already validated candidates for appreciation Instead this book stresses the collaborative nature of curatorial practices debunking the twin myths of autonomous artists and sovereign artistic directors and treating presentation and reception as separate processes Employing set theory to distinguish curated exhibitions from uncurated exhibitions installation art and collections it demonstrates how exhibitions grant spectators access to concepts that aid their capacity to grasp artifacts as artworks To inform and illuminate current debates in curatorial practice Spaid draws on a range of case studies from Impressionism Dada and Surrealism to more contemporary exhibitions such as Maurizio Cattelan All 2011 and Damien Hirst 2012 In articulating the process that cycles through exploration interpretation presentation and reception curating bears resemblance to artistic direction more generally Concepts of Aesthetic

Wittgenstein and Merleau-Ponty

Komarine Romdenh-Romluc, 2017-03-31 Maurice Merleau Ponty and Ludwig Wittgenstein are two of the most important philosophers of the twentieth century yet their work is generally regarded as standing in contrast to one another However as this outstanding collection demonstrates they both reject a Cartesian picture of the mind and sought to offer an alternative that does justice to the role played by bodily action language and our membership within a community that shares a way of life This is the first collection to compare and contrast the work of these two major philosophers Fundamental topics and problems discussed include the role of community in their philosophies Merleau Ponty on description and depiction and Wittgenstein on saying and doing the role of language their treatment of expression their relation to the philosophy of the Vienna Circle solipsism and rule following It is essential reading for anyone studying the work of Wittgenstein and Merleau Ponty as well as those interested in phenomenology philosophy of mind and philosophy of language

Eye hEar The Visual in Music Simon Shaw-Miller, 2017-07-05 Eye hEar The Visual in Music employs the concept of the visual in proximate relation to music producing a tension is it not the case that there is a gulf between painting and music between the visible and the audible One is full of colour and light yet silent one is invisible and marvellously noisy Such a belief this book argues betrays an ideological constraint on music desiccating it to sound and art to vision The starting point of this study is more hybrid and hydrating that music is never employed without numerous and complex intersections with the visual By involving the concept of synaesthesia the book evokes music's multi sensory nature stops it from sounding alone and offers music as a subject for art historians Music bleeds into art and visuality in its graphic depiction in notation in the theatre of performance its sights and sites This book looks at music in its absolute guise as a model for art at notation and the conductor as the silent visual fulcrum around which music circulates at the music and image of Erik Satie at the concert hall as white cube at the symphonic film 2001 A Space Odyssey and at the liminality of John Cage and Andy Warhol

Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-06-07 Black theology tends to be a theology about no body Though one might assume that black and womanist theology have already given significant attention to the nature and meaning of black bodies as a theological issue this inquiry has primarily taken the form of a focus on issues relating to liberation treating the body in abstract terms rather than focusing on the experiencing of a material fleshy reality By focusing on the body as a physical entity and not just a metaphorical one Pinn offers a new approach to theological thinking about race gender and sexuality According to Pinn the body is of profound theological importance In this first text on black theology to take embodiment as its starting point and its goal Pinn interrogates the traditional source materials for black theology such as spirituals and slave narratives seeking to link them to materials such as photography that highlight the theological importance of the body Employing a multidisciplinary approach spanning from the sociology of the body and philosophy to anthropology and art history Embodiment and the New Shape of Black Theological Thought pushes black theology to the next level

Learning from Memory Bianca Maria Pirani, Ivan Varga, 2011-05-25 This challenging book with excellent contributions from international social scientists focuses on the link between body and memory that specifically refers to the use of digital technologies Neuroscientists know very well that human beings automatically and unconsciously organize their experience in their bodies into spatial units whose confines are established by changes in location temporality and the interactive elements that determine it Our memories might be less reliable than those of the average computer but they are just as capacious much more flexible and even more user friendly The aim of the present book is to outline by the body what we know of the sociology of memory The authors and editors believe that an analysis at the sociological level will prove valuable in throwing light on accounts of human behavior at the interpersonal and social level and will play an important role in our capacity to understand the neurobiological factors that underpin the various types of memory This book is an ideal resource for advanced and postgraduate students in social sciences as well as practitioners in the field of Information and Communication technologies Scholarly and accessible in tone Learning from Memory Body Memory and Technology in a Globalizing World will be read and enjoyed by members of the general public and the professional audience alike

The Exemplifying Past Chiel Akker, 2025-10-01 This book addresses a wide range of philosophical problems about history and the semantics of time The point of departure is the distinction between events under the description of past witnesses and their contemporaries and events under the description of historians Its main claim is that a thesis on the past is exemplified rather than being justified by the available evidence Such thesis the book argues retroactively becomes concrete in the past under consideration This book will not only appeal to philosophers and historians but to students and scholars across the humanities

End-of-Art Philosophy in Hegel, Nietzsche and Danto Stephen Snyder, 2018-11-04 This book examines the little understood end of art theses of Hegel Nietzsche and Danto The end of art claim is often associated with the end of a certain standard of taste or skill However at a deeper level it relates to a transformation in how we philosophically understand our relation to the world Hegel Nietzsche and Danto each strive philosophically to overcome Cartesian dualism redrawing the traditional lines between mind and matter Hegel sees the overcoming of the material in the ideal Nietzsche levels the two worlds into one and Danto divides the world into representing and non representing material These attempts to overcome dualism necessitate notions of the self that differ significantly from traditional accounts the redrawn boundaries show that art and philosophy grasp essential but different aspects of human existence Neither perspective however fully grasps the duality The appearance of art's end occurs when one aspect is given priority for Hegel and Danto it is the essentialist lens of philosophy and in Nietzsche's case the transformative power of artistic creativity Thus the book makes the case that the end of art claim is avoided if a theory of art links the internal practice of artistic creation to all of art's historical forms

A Philosophical Anthropology of the Cross Brian Gregor, 2013-03-18 What does the cross both as a historical event and a symbol of religious discourse tell us about human beings In this provocative book Brian Gregor draws together a hermeneutics of the self through Heidegger Gadamer Ricoeur and Taylor and a theology of the cross through Luther Kierkegaard Bonhoeffer and Jungel to envision a phenomenology of the cruciform self The result is a bold and original view of what philosophical anthropology could look like if it took the scandal of the cross seriously instead of reducing it into general philosophical concepts

The Lightning Field Kenneth Baker,2008 Martin Buber's Dialogical Thought as a Philosophy of Action Asaf Ziderman,2024-10-30 This book promotes a philosophical revival of Buber's dialogical thought by repositioning it as a philosophy of action departing from a long established consensus that narrowly viewed it as a post Kantian epistemology Based on careful analysis of his writings the book's main thrust is to reconstruct Buber's argument that dialogue is the perfected form of action and a perfect action is necessarily dialogical This reconstruction renders Buber's dialogical thought pertinent to contemporary analytic philosophy by situating it within central discussions in the field of philosophy of action

Beauty Matters Peg Zeglin Brand,2000-05-22 Beauty has captured human interest since before Plato but how why and to whom does beauty matter in today's world Whose standard of beauty motivates African Americans to straighten their hair What inspires beauty queens to measure up as flawless objects for the male gaze Why does a French performance artist use cosmetic surgery to remake her face into a composite of the master painters version of beauty How does beauty culture perceive the disabled body Is the constant effort to remain young and thin often at considerable economic and emotional expense ethically justifiable Provocative essays by an international group of scholars discuss aesthetics in aesthetics the arts the tools of fashion the materials of decoration and the big business of beautification beauty matters to reveal the ways gender race and sexual orientation have informed the concept of beauty and driven us to become more beautiful Here Kant rubs shoulders with Calvin Klein Beauty Matters draws from visual art dance cultural history and literary and feminist theory to explore the values and politics of beauty Various philosophical perspectives on ethics and aesthetics emerge from this penetrating book to determine and reveal that beauty is never disinterested

Ideal Embodiment Angelica Nuzzo,2008-10-28 Angelica Nuzzo offers a comprehensive reconstruction of Kant's theory of sensibility in his three Critiques By introducing the notion of transcendental embodiment Nuzzo proposes a new understanding of Kant's views on science nature morality and art She shows that the issue of human embodiment is coherently addressed and key to comprehending vexing issues in Kant's work as a whole In this penetrating book Nuzzo enters new terrain and takes on questions Kant struggled with How does a body that feels pleasure and pain desire anger and fear understand and experience reason and strive toward knowledge What grounds the body's experience of art and beauty What kind of feeling is the feeling of being alive As she comes to grips with answers Nuzzo goes beyond Kant to revise our view of embodiment and the essential conditions that make human experience possible

The Cultural Space of the Arts and the Infelicities of Reductionism Joseph Margolis, 2010-05-25 Joseph Margolis known for his considerable contributions to the philosophy of art and aesthetics pragmatism and American philosophy has focused primarily on the troublesome concepts of culture history language agency art interpretation and the human person or self For Margolis the signal problem has always been the same how can we distinguish between physical nature and human culture How do these realms relate The Cultural Space of the Arts and the Infelicities of Reductionism identifies a conceptual tendency that can be drawn from the work of the twentieth century's best known analytic philosophers of art Arthur Danto Richard Wollheim Kendall Walton Nelson Goodman Monroe Beardsley Noël Carroll and Jerrold Levinson among others This trend threatens to impoverish our grasp and appreciation of the arts by failing to do justice to the culturally informed nature of the arts themselves Through his analysis Margolis sets out to retrieve an adequate picture of the essential differences between physical nature and human culture particularly through language history meaning significance the emergence of the human self or person and the essential features of human life all to explain how such difference bears on our perception of paintings and literature Clearly argued and provocatively engaging Margolis's work reestablishes what is essential to a productive encounter with art
