The Bones Of Garbo A Collection Of Short Stories:

The Bones of Garbo Trudy L. Lewis, 2003 The Bones of Garbo Trudy L. Lewis, 2003 A Different Plain Ladette Randolph, 2004-01-01 O Pioneers was oh so long ago and yet Willa Cather's masterpiece has proven to be an enduring template for readers' notions of Nebraska writing. The short stories collected here so richly various in style, theme, and subject matter should put an end to any such plain thinking about writing from this anything but plain state. Nebraska writers all the authors explore the Midwest: a vastness of small towns, corn, cattle, football, and family businesses. They also venture far afield to desolate western lives, crowded urban relationships, poignant couplings, comic families, and the worldly idiosyncrasies of characters everywhere. Whether about aging or coming of age, leaving or coming home, falling apart or finding love, these stories represent contemporary fiction at its best, from the high style of Richard Dooling's Immortal Man to Kent Haruf's soft spoken Dancing from Ron Hansen's My Communist to Jonis Agee's earthy offbeat Binding the Devil. Original, spirited, and surprising, these contemporary writings depict a modern world on the move and extend the tradition of great fiction from Nebraska into the twenty-first century.

Adventures in Pen Land Marianne Gingher, 2008 She invites us along on a raucous tour of soul-sucking jobs, marriage, and a teaching career with accompanying disquisitions on blasphemous reading preferences, 60s pop culture, writing workshops, and other amusing detours and distractions on the way to publication. She also shares her keen insights into the role of a Southern writer in American literary culture, the experience of writing as a mother, and the process of novel writing as compared to a lengthy family car trip. Featuring guest appearances by other writers such as Fred Chappell, Max Steele, and Annie Dillard, plus cameos by the likes of Patty Hearst, Richard Nixon, and Bon Jovi, Adventures in Pen Land celebrates writing as a form of play that Gingher has never outgrown. The lighthearted illustrations by novelist Daniel Wallace, author of Big Fish, serve to reinforce this refreshing message as they depict one writer and her imagination growing up together. Adventures in Pen Land conveys a writer's sheer doggedness with a few bones of advice tossed in along the way. Candid and irreverent but always humane, this memoir is must reading for fans of Southern literature, students of creative writing, and anyone who can't resist the treat of reading about a writer's resilience and dedication to her craft.

American Book Publishing Record, 2003 True Kin Ric Jahna, 2008 Ranging from the clay roads of Central Florida to the American Desert Southwest, the stories of True Kin foreground a cast of recurring characters engaged in battles both public and private, epic and mundane. The lead-off story Independence Day 1983, winner of an AWP Intro Award, introduces a lakeside family barbecue where class tensions and long-held grudges threaten to burst forth with dangerous consequences. In Making Weight, a jumbo-sized high school wrestler struggles against his unpredictable body to lose six very important pounds. In Release Statement, a troubled young woman attempts to make sense of her longtime obsession with Bob Barker. In The Price Is Right, fame An unsuspecting adjunct professor in Hurricane Party 2002 finds himself thrust suddenly into a violent confrontation with his former student. Rendered in meticulously crafted prose, these nine stories and one novella are grounded soundly in the dramatic moment while probing deeply into the larger mysteries of the human condition Seekers all Jahna s characters brave the often absurd trials of contemporary life in an ongoing search for community meaning and love Poets & Writers ,2002 New England Review ,2004 Third Coast ,2004 The Kenyon Review John Crowe Ransom,2003 Editor winter 1939 autumn 1941 J C Ransom Short Story Index ,2004 The Writers Directory ,2013 Short Stories Irwin Shaw,2013-02-26 A wide ranging fictional portrait of life in postwar America by an acclaimed New Yorker short story writer and 1 New York Times bestselling novelist Irwin Shaw was a star of the New Yorker s fiction pages in the 1930s and 40s His prose helped shape the landscape of post war fiction and his work drew from a remarkable life that spanned from American football fields to European battlefields Broadway to Hollywood Depression era saloons to the McCarthy hearings Among these sixty three stories are iconic works such as The Eighty Yard Run a tale of an American dream crippled on Black Monday and Main Currents in American Thought in which a hack radio copywriter is tormented by the glitz of show business Through the decades Shaw s writing as demonstrated in these pages maintains the clear eyed moral purpose rich in wit and startling insight of a tough kid with a philosopher s soul This ebook features an illustrated biography of Irwin Shaw including rare images and never before seen documents from the author s estate Poetry Harriet Monroe,2003 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters What Do I Read Next? Neil Barron,2005-10-21 By identifying similarities in various books this annual selection guide helps readers to independently choose titles of interest published in the last year Each entry describes a separate book listing everything readers need to know to make selections Arranged by author within six genre sections detailed entries provide Title Publisher and publication dateSeriesNames and descriptions of charactersTime period and geographical settingReview citationsStory typesBrief plot summarySelected other books by the authorSimilar books by different authorsAuthor title series character name character description time period geographic setting and genre sub genre indexes are included to facilitate research The Reminiscence Quiz Book Mike Sherman,2017-07-05 An enduringly popular informative and unusual quiz book specifically produced for work with reminiscence groups Covering the years 1930 to 1969 it draws on memories and experiences of daily life and recalls major
